Prices on both grades are quoted in our price list. We pay particular attention to uniformity and selecting the finest flavored fruit to be had, as there is a vast difference between the fruit of different localities. PUGILISTIC SENATORS.

Indiana Man Refuses to Retract Criticisms and Texan Resorts to Force.

Washington, June 30.—Senator Bailey of Texas assaulted Senator Beveridge of Indiana tonight just after the Senate had adjourned from executive session. The Texas Senator was dragged away and separated from his opponent by some of those about the Senate. He was very angry, and threatened severe harm to the Indiana Senator. The episode was the result of a heated controversy which the two Senators had during the afternoon, when Senator Beveridge had said that Senator Bailey had made "an unwarranted attack on Solicitor Penfield of the State Department."

In executive session Senator Beveridge, like other Senators who smoke, lighted a cigar and took a seat on the Republican side. He was still sitting there when the Senate adjourned. Senator Bailey crossed the aisle and walked through the seats until he was facing Beveridge.

"Beveridge," he said, "I don't want to have any trouble with you, but I want you to withdraw those words which charge me with making an unwarranted attack upon Penfield."

"I did not intend to insult you," replied Senator Beveridge, "and there is nothing in my language that you could consider offensive."

"I don't allow any one to say that I libel a man, and that is what you do in making the charge. Now, if you won't withdraw the word's when I ask you I'm going to make you withdraw them."

Senator Bailey had been getting more and more angry and excited as he talked. He had been sitting down part of the time, leaning against the desk immediately in front of Senator Beveridge. The latter, in reply to Senator Bailey's last remark, still remaining in his chair, said: "I repeat that I did not intend to insult you, and that I have nothing to retract."

As the words were uttered Senator Bailey threw himself upon Senator Beveridge, who is a man hardly up to the average in physique, and seized him by the throat with both hands. The rush was so sudden and fierce that the chair in which Beveridge was sitting was pushed back against the desk and toppled over before the assault could go any further. Senators who had been sitting near had moved up between the desks. Senators Hansbrough of North Dakota seized Senator Bailey by one arm and Senator Spooner seized the other. The Texan Senator is a powerful man, and it was with great difficulty that the two Senators were able to drag him away from Senator Beveridge, and when they succeeded a part of the Indiana Senator's neckwear was ripped away in the vigorous grasp of Senator Bailey.

Canal Inquiry.

Washington, June 28.—A lively debate was precipitated in the Senate today over a resolution of Morgan of Alabama, authorizing the Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals to investigate the status of American stockholders of the Panama Canal Company with a view of protecting them in the French courts. Spooner, Hanna and Mitchell of Oregon antagonized the resolution, maintaining that it was a matter with which the United States had nothing to do. Morgan warmly advocated the proposition but it finally went to the calendar without action.

Will Call Extra Session.

Washington, June 28.—President Roosevelt has definitely decided to call a special session of the Senate for November 11th to consider a Cuban reciprocity treaty which was recently negotiated by Assistant Secretary of State Hill, representing this Government, and Senator Quesada, representing Cuba. The Republican leaders of the Senate who have been consulted by the President have all assented to the proposition of returning to Washington one month earlier than the opening of the regular session. By this means the President hopes to create the impression that Cuban reciprocity has not been abandoned.

CAPE HAYTIEN BOMBARDED.

Foreign Residents at the Mercy of Lawless and Savage Combatants.

Cape Haytien (Hayti), June 29.—There has been much fighting here today and great excitement prevails. Admiral Killick, commander of the Haytien fleet, disembarked a further detachment of troops and a large quantity of ammunition at 4 o'clock this morning for the better protection of General Firmin, one of the candidates for the presidency of the republic.

Since 6 o'clock this morning there have been several lively engagements between the men from the fleet and the revolutionists from the north. Several machine guns were set up in a commanding position by General Firmin's force and an attempt was made to drive the men from the north from their positions. Notwithstanding the fire from the machine guns, detachments of the northern revolutionists made several attacks on General Firmin's followers, and the latter were eventually dislodged.

In the meantime the vessels under the command of Admiral Killick were bombarding Cape Haytien. This action was taken without previous notification to the foreign Consuls here. There has been a lively rain of shots down the streets of Cape Haytien all day long. The firing was particularly heavy between noon and 2 o'clock and between 4 and 5 o'clock this afternoon.

At the moment of filing this dispatch the foreign Consuls, under the protection of their various flags, are with General Firmin, and are about to embark on the Government gunboat Pierot. They are under a rather heavy fire and in much danger. The foreign residents of this port are at present exposed to the lawlessness and savagery of the combatants. Deep regret is expressed that no war ships of a foreign power are in the harbor to afford protection to foreign residents. Great excitement reigns here this afternoon and as this dispatch is being sent the firing in the streets continues.

PRATT DID GOOD WORK.

Easy Matter to Get Appropriation at Next Session of Congress.

Washington, D. C., June 28.—At this writing the General Deficiency Appropriation bill is in the hands of conferees, the House having rejected the Senate amendments to the bill, one of these amendments being the provision for paying Hawaiian fire claims. There is likely to be a spirited and extended controversy on this item as the House conferees, under the lead of Representative Cannon will fight against its adoption. Whatever the outcome may be too much credit and praise cannot be given Mr. Pratt for his efforts in behalf of these claims. He has accomplished wonders in getting the item through the Senate and if it should fail at this session through the opposition in the House, it will be in shape to get through with but little trouble at the next session of Congress. Mr. Pratt has been working almost unaided by Hawaiian citizens during the past week and if the matter is successfully enacted into law the honor and credit should be accorded him almost exclusively. Mr. Pratt appreciates exceedingly the support which has been given him by the press of Honolulu, and particularly by the Bulletin, which has unreservedly given encouragement and support to his mission.
