CHANGES AT CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Father Stephen a Former Hilo Boy Welcomed.

Father James who has been assisting Father Adrian in the St. Mary's Catholic Church, returned on last Friday to Honolulu. He is Provincial of the Hawaiian diocese, being next in authority to Bishop Libert. During his stay in Hilo he caused many extensive improvements to be made to the Church property, constructing a substantial stone wall on two sides of the lot and laying a cement walk on Bridge and King streets. The members of this parish have a warm spot in their hearts for Father James, who some fifteen years ago was in charge at Hilo. Pending the return of Father Oliver, who is now in Belgium, Father Stephen will assist in the work here. Father Stephen is one of the youngest men to assume the priestly garb, and was only been ordained three years ago. He is a former Hilo young man, being then known as Peter Alancaster and residing with his parents at Wainaku. He attended the public schools and later entered St. Louis College, Honolulu subsequently graduating from the Theological Seminary, at Louvain, Belgium.

At an executive committee meeting of the Hilo Cottillion Club, held last Thursday afternoon, it was decided to hold the next dance to be given on Friday evening, October 7th, at the commodious pavilion which Mr. E. N. Holmes erected adjoining his home in Puaeo. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, who are members, kindly tendered to the Club the use of the pavilion for that occasion. The names of J. D. Kennedy and E. H. Moses were presented for membership and are to be voted upon at a general meeting to be held at the Board of Trade rooms next Monday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. All members are requested to be present. The Club is now out of debt and in a prosperous condition.

The following committees were appointed for the coming dance:
Refreshment; Miss Venable, Miss Sumner and Mr. S. Grace.
Decoration; Mrs. Marsh, Miss Eaton, Miss Schmidt, Mr. O. English, Mr. J. C. Ridgway and J. U. Smith.

A Pleasing Program.

The ladies of the First Foreign Church on last Friday night in the Sunday School rooms, gave a church social which was well attended by the young people as well as the older members of the congregation. A delightful musical program had been arranged under the supervision of Mrs. Lewis, which was much enjoyed. Miss Katherine Westervelt rendered a well executed piano solo and Mrs. R. T. Moses gave a pleasing violin selection. Miss Florence Hill charmed her audience with a vocal solo, which received much applause. Mrs. Turner and tiny Gertrude were thoroughly enjoyed in a piano duet, as were also Mrs. Lewis and Miss Esther Lyman. Refreshments were later served and a social evening spent by those who were fortunate enough to be present.

For Faithful Performance.

No man likes to give his personal security for the honesty and faithful performance of the best friend on earth. Why then should any person desiring to obtain a bond as a trustee, receiver, administrator, executor, guardian or any position of a fiduciary capacity, impose on a man's friendship to give his personal security for his good behavior, especially when there are bonding companies such as the Pacific Surety Company who daily accept such risks at a nominal cost. PETE THE PROWLER

Plays Hide and Seek With Police Department.

Although Sheriff Andrews has put three additional men on the night watch to circumvent the thicken thief, who has been making effective raids upon chicken coops in the past six weeks, he fails to overtake him. Pete the Prowler goes barefoot and carries sundry gunnysacks in which he stores his game. His foot prints have been seen and while he was not looking, some natives going early to work Friday morning came upon some of his plunder, ten fancy chickens belonging to B. F. Schoen. It appears another call had been made upon Schoen's coop, and two Portuguese lads employed at Amaula saw two bags containing chickens early in the morning of Friday, near the stone crusher on the Waialuku river. They called two natives who were passing who proceeded to take possession. These were J. K. Apiki, Jr. and Kaheiau, who are employed at Kaunama. Apiki took his bag of chickens to his own home in Puaeo and Kaheiau presented his share of the booty to Umuloi, a well known Hawaiian resident of Puaeo.

When the police arrived, Umuloi had turned his chickens into his own yard, after removing the Schoen leg bands and amputating a toe of each hen. On a count of heads, Schoen recovered only eight of his missing flock, and Umuloi will now have to explain what he did with the others. D. Lycurgus, and Chan, the attendant at the Eika's Club, both report additional losses of chickens.

Charged With Wood Stealing.

A case which has been attracting considerable attention in legal and business circles, is the case of larceny in the first degree against H. E. Beasley, charged with appropriating to his own use 115 cords of wood belonging to the Hilo Railroad. According to the complaint, it appears that Beasley was accustomed to purchasing from various parties in Oahu, quantities of wood which he shipped over the Hilo Railroad. It is claimed that 115 cords of wood cut into lengths belonging to the railroad and piled along side their tracks was shipped by him to Honolulu as his own property. The trial has been in progress for four days before District Magistrate Hapai. H. L. Ross appears for the Territory and LeBlond & Smith for the defense. The prosecution rested their case and the defendant promptly moved for a dismissal which motion after being taken under consideration for several days, was disallowed Saturday morning by Judge Hapai. The case is set for Wednesday, when the defense will be heard.

He Used High Life.

Two Japanese, Okinaga Kenaoka and Hiratsuka Kutaro were endeavoring to break a horse to drive single on Front street last Friday morning, and when the animal refused to budge applied a quantity of "high life." This is a volatile liquid which evaporates like ether, when exposed to the air, and when applied to the skin gives a sensation of freezing. Animals go wild when even a small quantity of high life is thrown upon them, and invariably run or smash things to get away from the stinging of the drug. The animal in question was not slow in responding to the high life application and proceeded to run down Front street, narrowly averting several collisions and finally dumping out the occupants of the cart in front of the Hilo Mercantile Co. Aside from several bruises and three broken teeth, the Japs suffered no serious injuries. They were immediately put under arrest, and the $10 bail was forfeited in the Police Court yesterday.

Receiver for Williams & Co.

Last Tuesday morning Judge Parsons granted the petition in equity of Cecil Brown, one of the partners of the firm of H. L. Williams & Co., manufacturers of the celebrated Kawaiakeku Volcano water in Puna, wherein he prayed for a dissolution of the partnership and the appointment of a receiver. Ridgway & Ridgway represented the plaintiff and H. L. Ross appeared on behalf of the respondent, Williams. By agreement of counsel, J. E. Elderts was appointed receiver, and he has been authorized by the Court to dispose of the plant and wind up the business. All property belonging to the company is to be sold at public auction on December 1st.

Another Smash Up.

An unbroken pony attached to a cart and driven by Manuel Morise, head lina for Robt. Young, Oiaa, returning from the funeral on Friday became unmanageable on Waiamuenue street. The rig ran into a City Stables hack standing at the curb, near the telephone office and completely dished the inside hack wheel next to the walk. Mr. Morise promptly made good the damage.
