MRS. WRIGHT.

ORGANIZATION OF HILO PINEAPPLE CANNERY CO.

The business men of Hilo and L. A. Andrews have decided upon a plan of organization of the company to engage in canning pineapples at Hilo. Owing to objections being raised by some of the business men to some of the details of the plan as originally proposed, Mr. Andrews has offered the following amended proposition which the leading business men concerned state their approval of and which will be carried into effect. Organization will be perfected at an early date.

The modifications consist mainly in reducing the capitalization from $100,000 to $25,000, and in eliminating the ownership of land and growing of pineapples from the business of the company. This latter business will be carried on by individuals, and small companies which are already forming.

The capital stock of the company will be $25,000, with the authority to increase to any amount desired, represented by 2500 shares, of the par value of $10 each.

Six hundred and twenty-five shares are to be reserved as treasury stock; 1875 shares, or 75 per cent, as required by law will be issued immediately; of which 175 shares will be issued as paid-up-stock for expenses incurred and services rendered in organization, leaving 1700 shares on which will be realized $17,000, cash. As stated by Mr. Andrews, the object of the company is:

OBJECT OF THE COMPANY.

It is proposed to organize this Joint Stock Company for the purpose of furnishing a market for the fruit produced by individuals.

The primary object is to build and establish in Hilo, Hawaii, a cannery for pineapples produced by individual growers and to buy, can or otherwise preserve and market, pineapples.

This company may have as a secondary object, the purchase of other fruits that may be produced on Hawaii, such as bananas, guavas, grapes, oranges, lemons, berries, etc.; also vegetables and other products, such as taro, ginger, peppers, etc., and preserve or manufacture them into jelly, jam, candied fruit, dried fruit, vinegar, wine, alcohol, brandy, and such other manufactured articles as are marketable.

The profits of a business of this character depend much on the volume of the business done, and there is every reason to believe that once established, this business will rapidly grow to very large proportions, yielding good returns to the investors.

It is estimated that there are enough pineapples now growing in Hilo and vicinity to furnish from 300,000 to 500,000 plants during the next few months, most of which will yield fruit for the 1906 pack. Of course, many of the pineapples produced will be sent to the fresh fruit market, and the cannery may not have enough fruit to yield large returns on the 1st year's pack, but there is no reason why there should not be a pack of 20,000 cases in 1908.

Jailor Maby Acquitted.

The trial of Jailor J. H. Maby and John Kaiki and Keanamoku, assistants, indicted for assaulting a prisoner in the Hilo jail, resulted in a verdict of not guilty being returned by the jury. The case was prosecuted by County Attorney Williams and the defendants were represented by Attorneys W. S. Wise and C. M. LeBlond. The charges brought against the jailor and his assistants were investigated by High Sheriff Henry and found not warranted soon after the indictments were brought by the grand jury. The principal witness was Morito, the Japanese, now convicted of murder. Conrad Hays, the jail cook, and two of the prisoners also testified. The testimony though conflicting made evident the fact that there had been no abuse of the prisoners as charged. Both sides waived argument. Judge Parsons' charge to the jury made plain the duties of jailors and it was thought not more than ten minutes would be required to come to the decision which it took six hours to reach.

Chance For Refund Bill.

"More encouraging for five-year term. Committee considering. Enthusiasm lacking."

Such was the message received by Mr. Case, a member of the refund committee, while at San Francisco, on his way home from Washington. "That means 75 per cent. for five years instead of twenty years," said Mr. Case, "or to shorten the term rather than the amount."

"I infer from this telegram from McClellan that Uncle Joe Cannon is strongly blocking the measure on the twenty-year clause. He is conscientious and he feels that we stand on the same footing as any other Territory, or that we should not have any special privileges that could not be extended to other Territories."

"However, I think Speaker Cannon is relenting. The committee does not want to report, I infer, unless it sees some sign of success. It doesn't want to report measures which may go by default and they are feeling their way very carefully."

"I found among the senators and representatives that those who had been here in the islands, even though for only a day, take a great deal of interest in Hawaiian affairs."

Sugar Trust and Railroads.

Honolulu, March 22.—The coast files brought to The Star by the S. S. Enterprise this morning contain the following relative to the Sugar Trust:

New York, March 8.—Consternation verging upon panic reigned today in the offices of the American Sugar Refining Company and the various railroad corporations which are defendants in an action brought by the United States Government upon the complaint of William R. Hearst.

Nearly every trunk line having a New York terminal, and the American Sugar Refining Company, are charged with flagrant infractions of the Interstate Commerce law and the Sherman anti-trust law, in granting and receiving rebates. The complaints filed by William R. Hearst and the energetic action of the Government in instituting proceedings fell like a bombshell in the camp of the transportation lines and the sugar company.

Attorney General Moody is reported from Washington as saying that some weeks ago a representative of the Hearst newspapers called on him and said that information was in the possession of those papers tending to show that large rebates on the transportation of sugar had been given to the American Sugar Refining Company by the trunk lines of railroads running out of New York city, and asking if the Department of Justice desired to use the information in legal proceedings. An examination of the matter showed clearly that it was highly important and tended to show the giving and receiving of large money rebates.

Mr. Moody said further: "In the Department at present the matter is in the stage of investigation. No determination as to who should be indicted has been arrived at, but full evidence will be laid before the Grand Jury, and they will determine against whom sufficient evidence exists to warrant indictments."

The Sugar War.

San Francisco, March 24.—The sugar war between Claus Spreckels' Western Sugar Refinery and the Sugar Factory Company of Honolulu has forced the former company to bring raw sugar to this coast from Cuba.

Spreckels will also get cargoes from Java and the Philippines, because, instead of getting 150,000 tons from Hawaii, as he did last year, his supply from that country this year will not exceed 40,000 tons.

Building and Fortifications for Hawaii.

Washington, D. C., March 20.—Senator Perkins of California today introduced a bill to purchase a site for a Federal public building at Honolulu for the sum of $200,000.

The Senate today struck out the appropriations for fortifications in the Philippines and appropriated $260,000 for fortifications in the Territory of Hawaii.

To Enter Yacht Race.

Honolulu, March 20.—The yacht La Paloma will leave Honolulu for San Francisco on April 7. Arrangements have been made by the yachting race committee to give her a great send-off, when she departs for the coast. Commodore Hobron will accompany her in his yacht Gladys for one hundred miles. He will take pictures of her and these will be used for advertising purposes.

Representing Immense Wealth.

A party arrived in Honolulu by the last Manchuria representing wealth estimated at a billion. In the party were Jacob Schiff, of Kuhn Loeb & Co., Bankers, of New York, and wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. Budge of Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Neustadt of New York, and Ernest Schiff of Frankfurt-on-the-Main. There is a numerous coterie of maids and valets. Mr. Budge is a prominent banker of Paris.

Mr. Schiff alone is said to be worth $200,000,000. Others in the party are worth from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000, so it is said. Then Mrs. Havemeyer, wife of the sugar baron, represents in the neighborhood of about $100,000,000 more.

It is common rumor that Mr. Schiff is on his way to Japan at the invitation of no less a personage than the Emperor, and that he and his party will be the guests of the nation, as a compliment to their ability in raising loans for Japan during the war.—Advertiser.

The party were delighted with Honolulu and Mr. Schiff regrets that he had not had the Manchuria held over a day, an arrangement he could probably have made, his banking house being the principal Hariman backers.

Moscow, March 19.—D. and A. Rasstorgoueff, the largest merchant in the Russian Empire, have failed for $13,500,000.
