

SOCIETY NEWS

Mrs. Harrison is busy trying to catch up with her correspondence and put the finishing touches to household arrangements for the winter. To an outsider the wonder is what more can be required since the mansion never appeared in finer trim or wore a more elegant and inviting air of comfort. Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Russell Harrison are now settled at the Executive Mansion for the winter.

Miss Anna Seaton Schmidt's success as a lecturer is now an established fact. Her first effort Thursday evening gave unqualified pleasure to a cultured audience, and many are looking forward to the remaining lectures of the course with anticipation of most profitable enjoyment. That on Florence will be particularly interesting, the pictures being exceptionally beautiful. Miss Schmidt has a rare faculty of description and she undoubtedly has a career of great promise before her.

The entertainment and dance given by the Young Men's Catholic Club, of Gonzaga College, was a very enjoyable and successful affair. It came off Tuesday evening at Concordia Hall, and all participating in the pleasures of the evening left with the hope that there soon might be "more of it."

Among society people there exists a craze for china decorations, and whenever an exhibition of this beautiful style of art is announced, it always brings out a large gathering. The classes of Professor S. S. Sherratt gave their annual exhibition at their studio on Ninth street last week. Every style of china painting was exhibited. Beautiful vases, coffee pitchers, trays, dinner sets, bon-bon boxes, fish sets, punch bowls, jardiniere, cream pitchers, etc., were greatly admired and the opinion was expressed that the exhibition was the finest ever seen in the District. Mrs. Harrison and the ladies of the Cabinet were among the visitors during the week. Among the exhibitors were Mrs. George W. Moss, Mrs. Pollock, Mrs. James M. Durant, Miss Flora Engel, Miss Lillian I. Collins, Miss Mamie Hill, Mrs. Patterson, Mr. Clark, Mrs. Frank Brown, Miss Emily Jenkins, Mrs. Wilbur, Miss Phillips, Mrs. Stanton, Mrs. John Young, Mrs. H.
