HAWAII'S "BLUE" LAWS

CONSTITUTION and LAWS

Framed by the Missionaries.

LAWS of the HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

Be it also known, That if any person or persons shall maliciously stab and wound any person, and death does not ensue therefrom, the said offender or offenders, if convicted, shall receive one hundred lashes on his or their back, and pay a fine of fifty dollars—or upon non payment, shall be imprisoned for two months.

The law now in force respecting murder, will be carried into execution upon all offenders.

Given under my hand, at Honolulu, this twelfth day of November, 1833.

KAUIKEAOULI.

CHAPTER XLIII.

LAW RESPECTING THE PAY OF POLICE OFFICERS FOR SEIZING FOREIGNERS.

At the present time many of the police officers are blamed and spoken evil of; and it is said that they entice people to violate the law and then seize them to obtain their money, and some are seized unguilty, and consequently much evil results. In consequence of this conduct, or rather these charges, in a council of the Nobles and of the Representatives, the following law was enacted;

1. If any police officer seizes a foreigner for a violation of law and that foreigner be fined, no part of the fine shall go to the police officer. He shall be paid in another way. Nor shall any portion of the fine go to the judge, but to the Government only, according as the law declares.

2. Police officers shall be paid for seizing foreigners as follows; when one is seized, the Government shall take the name of the officer who seized him, and at the end of the year the Governor shall see what officer has done the most business and done it best, and he shall have the most pay, and the officer who has done less business or not done it so well shall have less pay. Every officer shall be paid according to the amount of business done by him, and the correctness with which he does it. It shall be proper to advance part pay to the officers before the close of the year, for the relief of their necessities. But at the end of the year full payment shall be made according to the excellence of their conduct.

3. This law does not apply to deserters who are taken, nor does it apply to the who are taken for remaining on shore at night after the hour specified. The officers shall have their pay for these out of the money paid for them.

When this law is printed and put into the hands of the police officers, it shall then take effect at all places in this archipelago.

All the words of this law have been approved by the Nobles and Representatives, we have therefore hereunto set our names on this thirty-first day of May, in the year of our Lord, 1841, at Lahaina, Maui.

(Signed.) KAMEHAMEHA III.
KEKAULUOHI.

1842.

In the month of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty two the House of Nobles and House of Representatives, assembled in accordance with the requisition of the Constitution, the place of meeting was Luachu, on Maui. Paul Kanoa was chosen Clerk for the Nobles, and Kapae the Clerk for the House of Representatives. The following are the laws and resolves passed at this session.
