HAWAII'S "BLUE" LAWS

CONSTITUTION and LAWS
Framed by the Missionaries

LAWS of the HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

SECTION II.

BOATS AND CANOES PROHIBITED FROM VISITING STRANGE VESSELS.

1 After the promulgation of this law, all canoes and boats and all persons not authorized by the Board of Health, are prohibited from visiting any foreign ship whatsoever until she shall have been examined by a health officer or one of the Board of Health according to the above requisitions, and the white flag has been hoisted, after which she may be visited.

Whoever shall visit a vessel in violation of this law shall be fined forty dollars, one half to be paid to the government and the other half to the informant.

2 If one is accidentally brought in contact with a contagious ship, or being on board discover her to be so, or then ascertains that she is quarantined, in such case he shall remain on board said ship, as is required above of the Pilot and Physician. Whoever violates this law shall be fined five hundred dollars. And if any one be discovered while in the act of violation, or while in the act of leaving a quarantined vessel, it shall be lawful to fire upon him or do whatever is necessary in the judgement of the Governor or superior officer.

SECTION III

OF SHIP MASTERS, AND OF FOREIGN SHIPS VISITING THE ISLANDS.

1 It shall be the duty of all ship masters to examine carefully the blank certificate handed them by the Pilot and to fill out said blank, and then put the name and date. And this shall be done under the same liabilities as if under oath. But if the Captain is unable to subscribe the certificate on account of its not stating the truth in relation to his vessel, it shall then be returned to the pilot. Whatever Captain refuses obedience to this law, or subscribes his name to a falsehood, shall be fined five hundred dollars.

2 If any Master of a vessel refuses obedience to the requisitions of the Health Officer, or anchors when forbidden, or does not hoist the flag required by the Pilot, or refuses obedience to any requisition of the Quarantine laws he shall be fined five hundred dollars.

And it shall be lawful for the Governor to fire, or do any thing which is necessary in his judgement, in order to the execution of the laws.

3 All vessels having had the small pox or any other contagious disease on board, unless six months have elapsed since all appearance of disease ceased, are hereby prohibited from anchoring at any port, harbor or roadstead of the Hawaiian Islands until visited by a health officer or one of the Board of Health and received his approbation, after which they may anchor.
