TUESDAY, JUNE 5, 1883.

THIS DAY'S DOINGS.
EVENING.
Excelsior Lodge, I. O. O. F., 7:30.
Bible Class at Lyceum at 7:30.

WHAT ARE WE DOING?
The Royal Hawaiian Agricultural Society is likely to be in a pitikia if our citizens do not respond better to the invitation offered. Here is the 5th of June, and the show coming off on the 12th, and 13th, and yet but little space for exhibits has been applied for, except for horses and dogs. Is this indifference? Or are there no poultry, pigs, flowers, fruits, etc., in the country that are worth exhibiting? Do people think that a show is not needed?

It has often been said that the Hawaiian climate is enervating, and we really think it must be so when we find that our planters haven't got even energy enough to send in an application for space for their exhibits; and it is just the same with those who own stock, or have plants, etc. Is all the money expended to go to waste for want of energy?

ANGLICAN CHURCH CHRONICLE.
Made its seventh bow to the Honolulu public on Saturday. In its leading article, on the critical notices of the local press, we think it gives about as good as it got—some of the hits made are palpable. An article on what is the reason for existence of the proposed cathedral and what it ought to be, comes next, and if its ideas are carried out none will rejoice at it more than ourselves. The usual Church items from all parts of the globe follow and we find them full of interest as showing how the work is spreading. The small portion devoted to Education contains naught but paragraphs, and we think that the space devoted to the odds and ends could have been better filled by original matter.

COMBINED CONCERT.

LOCAL & GENERAL ITEMS.
Mr. S. J. Levey's horse, the Livermore Pet, raffled on Saturday night, was won by Mr. H. Macfarlane.

On Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock the Moravian was to sail for the Coast but her crew struck work. The services of a Hawaiian crew were enlisted and she was hauled out in the stream.

Two boys, on Saturday, were arrested for destroying the flowers at the Lunalilo Mausoleum, near the Kawaiahao Church. They got 10 days' imprisonment each yesterday morning.

MANY of the through passengers by the Zealandia availed themselves of the opportunity of visiting the Pali, afforded by that vessel's short stay in port. As many as sixty were there at one time during Sunday afternoon.

On Friday morning a Hawaiian named Maui, while searching the rubbish heaps at the foot of Alakea street, found a wooden box which he took home for firewood. On breaking it up he found two small boxes in it, each containing half-a-dozen white metal hunting case watches, with mirror dials. They are now at the Police Station awaiting an owner, who can have them on proving ownership and paying expenses.

W. O. Smith & Co., stock brokers, report the sale of the following stocks and bonds: 500 shares Paukaa Sugar Co., at par; 8 shares Waimanalo Sugar Co., at $130 per share; and $1500 of Onomea 9 per cent bonds.

THE P. M. S. Co. has, we learn from the New Zealand Herald, agreed to the proposals of the New South Wales Government and will, therefore, renew the mail service contract at the expiration of the present contract.

A subscriber draws our attention to the fact that the small bridge on Beretania St. beyond Punchbowl St. and another on the Waikiki road beyond the Sunny South ought to be repaired. The timbers rattle very much as horses or vehicles pass over.

THE Ewa side of the pathway on Fort St. above Beretania St. is rather dangerous for foot passengers at night as the roadway being higher than the house lots, the ground falls away close to the fence and leaves a hole.

THE Board of Education held a meeting on Saturday to discuss the matter of a uniform series of text-books. Several teachers in the employ of the Board, and others, were present, by invitation of the Board, to give their opinions on the matter.

People ought not to be allowed to pile boxes, etc., on the streets. Yesterday morning early, Mr. M. D. Monsarrat's horse was frightened by a pile of these, on Beretania street, and run into a mule team, breaking the shafts. Later, an express horse was frightened by the same thing.

THERE was considerable excitement last night amongst the members of the Fire Department over the election. Everything went off quietly and with good humour. The following was the result: Total No. of voters, 383; total No. of ballots cast, 224. Chief Engineer, John Nott, 223; James Dodd, 1. First Assistant Engineer, Wilson, 128; Dodd, 95; Monsarrat, 1. Second Assistant Engineer, Monsarrat, 139; Whitman, 85.

INTER-COLONIAL NEWS

NEW ZEALAND.

It is said that Tawhiao, the so-called Maori King, intends to go to England shortly to interview the Queen. Tawhiao's mana, or power, has shrunk wonderfully during the past six months, and since his refusal to accept the terms offered by the Native Minister he has been ignored by the Government, who are treating with the landowners.

Native affairs were never in a brighter and more promising state than they are at present, and the native difficulty fairly may be said to be at an end.
