WE NOTICE a squib in yesterday's BULLETIN which may serve to deceive the public. It states: "The big gun at Lack's cannot go off." It is a mistake—it is for the purpose of shooting lovers of the weed that are foolish enough to pass Marchant's without a cut of "HORSEHEAD," or, still better, "PACES PRIVATE." That Tobacco is neither stem or leaf, warranted not to hurt the TOOTH. The young admire it, the old never go without it

MERCHANTS READ!
THE undersigned has, by request of various merchants in Honolulu, attached to his General Office Business that of
Custom House Broker.
The continual increase of commerce to these Islands fully warrants this undertaking, and my intention is to make this department a specialty in my General Business. I have arranged legal Power of Attorney blanks to transact business for the entry of goods at the Custom House, and will also pay and discharge freight and duty expense, and, if required, deliver from the consignees.
Merchants will find that the time employed by them and their employees in making out duplicate invoices and attending to the entries will be a saving to their business interests by placing in the Broker's hands all such business.
The merchants of Honolulu, I feel confident, have full confidence in my integrity and reliability, and that this new undertaking will be highly appreciated, I have not the slightest doubt.
Very Respectfully,
J. E. WISEMAN,
Custom House Broker,
And General Business Agent.
