HIS MAJESTY'S BIRTHDAY.

The celebration of His Majesty's birthday commenced on Thursday evening with the pretty decorations of the Bell Tower. This was followed by the band concert in Emma Square, which attracted a large audience, the native songs being much admired. After midnight the city was invaded with sundry string bands that called at private houses, arousing folks from their peaceful slumbers. At six a. m. a salute of twenty-one guns was fired, and at seven o'clock yesterday morning, the police force, headed by the Royal Hawaiian Band, marched up King street to the palace, where a few selections were played, salutations given and exchanged, and a return march was made to the station house.

The shipping in harbor was decorated with bunting, and, as early as eight o'clock, the harbor was sprinkled with boats of all kinds.

THE REGATTA

Commenced with the 1-Yacht Race.—1st Prize $75 or Silver Cup; second $25. If 4 boats start, the third boat saves stakes. Sarah—Hawaiian flag.....S. L. Ayelet Healani.....W. L. Wilcox Consuelo—Red burgee.....W. H. Christie Restless—Red flag.....T. E. Wall Pauline.....J. Murdock Kahihilani.....W. F. Williams Kapiolani.....J. F. Colburn

All the yachts came to the starting post, the Healani at once getting ahead, and maintaining her lead all through the race. Her time was 1h 48 min 20 sec. The Kahihilani came in second, and the Restless third, but the latter was allowed a few minutes extra time, in consequence of difference in tonnage, and consequently takes second prize. She was beaten by the Healani by 24 min 3 sec.

2-Six-oared Gigs.—Prize $50 or Silver Cup. Liliu—Haw'n flag...Prince Keliiahonui Melie—Haw'n flag.....S. Nolan Tiliu—Blue flag.....Col. C. H. Judd Kanoelani—Haw'n flag.....O. Stillman

The Melie and Kanoelani were ruled out, only the Liliu and Tiliu coming to the line. The former won easily in 21 min, 22 sec. The Chinese were delighted at the victory gained by a boat manufactured by one of their countrymen.

3-Two-oared Boats.—Prize $20. Puallii—Red & White.....Myrtle B. Club Shoo Fly.....Kol

Both started, the Myrtle Club getting away with a good stroke; they maintained their position all through, finishing in 9 min, 44 sec.

4-Four-oared Gigs.—Prize $50 or Silver Cup. Red White & Blue—Blue & White flag.....Myrtle Boat Club Puallii—Red & White flag.....A. W. Carter

The Myrtle Club were again victorious, winning by a length, in 22 min, 38 sec.

5-Six-paddle Canoe Race.—Prize $25. Ihihilauakea—White.....Kahuli Ohuli—Red.....Waiohikia Lelanae.....E. K. Liliakalani Lapkahoe—Blue.....Pau

Only the Ihihilauakea and the Lelanae started, the latter winning, after a close race, in 9 min, 40 sec.

6-Six-oared Whaleboat Race.—Prize $50 or Silver Cup. Kinau.....Alex. McGregor Ke Kaa—Red.....Kahalewali

A good start was effected, but the Kinau soon obtained the lead and held it to the finish. Time 20 min. 52 seconds.

7-Chinese Boat Race.—Prize $40. There were six entries, but only three starters. This race caused considerable amusement, from the style of rowing adopted by the celestials. The boats arrived at their destination in the following order: Ho Lee, Ah Man, Hoy Yean, but the latter received the prize as the two first did not adhere to the course. Time 22 min.

8-Swimming Race.—Prize $10. The course was from the O. S. S. Co's wharf to the Judge's boat, and Poepoe was the victor.

9-Yacht Race.—1st Prize $25—2nd Prize $15. Lena—American flag.....B. Moffitt Consuelo—Red burgee.....W. H. Christie Gnat.....W. F. Williams

Some delay was caused in the start, the Gnat getting away ten seconds before the Lena, which was nearly two minutes ahead of the Consuelo. The Lena however proved the fastest sailer, winning in 1 h. 32 min. 22 sec., with the Gnat second, and the Consuelo due this morning.

10-Single Scull Race.—Prize $15. Shoo Fly.....J. Kai January.....Dan

This was won by the Shoo Fly in 13 min. 44 sec. by six lengths.

11-Catamaran Race.—Prize $20. Ka Ehukai—Red flag...Uwais Napoleon Hard Scrabble—White & Blue...M. B. C.

The Hard Scrabble got away first and was the general favorite, but on the arrival of the Ka Ehukai, in 2hrs and 30 sec, the Scrabble was being towed in by a friendly steamer.

12-Six-oared Gig Race.—Prize $50 or Silver Cup. Kanoelani—Blue.....Col. C. H. Judd Puallii—White.....Ho. C. Ulukou Kapiolani—Haw'n flag.....Alex. George Malie.....Sam Nolan

The Kapiolani got away slightly in advance, but was soon overhauled. The Puallii came in first, six lengths ahead of the Kanoelani, and the Kapiolani third. Time 28 mins.

13-Diving Contest.—Prize $10. Pelehu and Awahua.

There were only two entries, and the prize was one by Pelehu, who remained under water for 3 minutes.

Pelehu was born at Malukona on Hawaii, is over 70 years of age and won a similar prize at the last regatta. He says that he could have stopped under longer, and is sure that he has done so, as yesterday he swallowed none of the briny.

14-Sailing Canoe Race.—Prize $35. Mignon—French flag.....W. M. Giffard Flying Fish—Red.....S. Nanao Hokulele—White.....J. H. Makole Ohuli.....Waiohikia

All came to the scratch, though objections were raised to the Mignon. At the close of the race, the contestants became so excited that they used their paddles, and had to sail again. Ohuli won the prize in 12 min. 1 sec.

15-Five-oared Whaleboat Race.—Prize $40. Kinau.....Alex. McGregor Ke Kaa—Red.....Kahalewali

The Ke Kaa won easily in 21 min. 35 sec.

16-Tub Race.—Prize $10. Bob, Kahuli, John Kay and Pa.

The course was the same as in the swimming race. John Kay, known as the New Yorker, was an easy winner.

17-Tug-o-war.—Prize $10. Courses as in the Tub and Swimming races.

This was an easy victory for II, who towed Kahonuanui, to whom he was tied, as if he were the Pele towing the Mignon.

18-Barge Race.—Prize $50 or Silver Cup. Piolallehua—Blue...Hon. J. A. Cummins Hanakeeki—White, Red and Blue.....D. L. Kinimaka Kauhahahe—Pink.....C. H. Clark

This was the most interesting and closely contested race of the day, a good deal of money changing hands on the event. An excellent start was effected and the boats kept close together round the course, the Piolallehua having a slight lead.

This boat proved the victor in 29 min., 27 1/2 sec., being six seconds ahead of the Kauhahahe, the Hanakeeki being a close third. Hon. J. A. Cummins was loudly cheered on his arrival, and welcomed by His Majesty.

19-Grand Promenade. This consisted of a grand promenade home of all folks, as quickly as their own or their horses legs would carry them.

The day was everything that could be desired, there being sufficient wind for the yachts, and not too much for the rowing boats. The attendance was not so large as at last year's races, and the arrangements for the ladies on Foster's wharf were not so good as they might have been. His Majesty passed most of the day on board the Waimanalo and the Judge's boat, and was highly pleased with the day's amusement, his own boats having carried off so many prizes. A salute was fired at twelve o'clock and another at half-past five, by which time the regatta of 16th November was over.

THE Y. M. C. A.

The regular monthly meeting was held on Thursday evening, Mr. C. M. Cooke, vice-president, in the chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The directors recommended the election of five new members, Messrs. J. H. Hare, W. W. Smith, W. C. Murray, E. C. Sandford and R. W. Homberg. These gentlemen were unanimously elected.

Mr. Atherton reported that no further communications had been received from America about a general Secretary; that one application was made in Honolulu, but they could not recommend it.

Mr. W. W. Hall, for the entertainment committee, reported that fourteen ladies were arranging for a fair to be held on 11th December, by which they hoped to realize $400 or $500, towards the fund for altering the building and making more rooms.

Mr. P. C. Jones Jr., reported on the success of the Sunday afternoon services, and asked all members to exert themselves in distributing invitations to every person they met. He was doing his best but he wanted other members to assist him. He felt that they were deeply indebted to Mr. Cruzan, and said that his (Mr. Cruzan's) last afternoon sermon was one of the best he had ever listened to.

Mr. C. M. Cooke said that he had been present at the first service and noticed many regular church-going people. He had not been again till the last, when he saw that most of the congregation was composed of the working class.

Rev. A. Forbes, then took the chair, the vice-president being excused.

Rev. J. A. Cruzan hoped that the temperance committee would assist him in preparing for the free entertainments. It seemed to be the opinion of the meeting that Mr. Cruzan had done so well that it would be a pity to give him any help.

Rev. A. Forbes then spoke on the illicit sale of liquor, saying that it had materially diminished, especially among the Chinese on the other islands, and that the manufacture of liquor by stills had almost ceased. The reason was because they could easily purchase all they wanted, openly and directly from first hands. The wholesale liquor dealers were making a large profit. He understood this to be so, from what was told him by sheriffs and residents in various parts who said that the natives now got their liquor, a case at a time, instead of slyly by the bottle.

On motion, it was agreed that the building committee be instructed to proceed with the work on the new room, but not to expend more money than they had in hand.

Mr. Hall mentioned that $200 was owing on the furniture account. One gentleman hoped that the next chairs purchased would be more comfortable than those they now had.

In consequence of complaints made about persons writing obscene things on the black-board and in the visitors' book, and of the lights being put out at nine o'clock sharp, when gentlemen were reading, it was decided that the trustees be instructed to take responsible charge of the building and give orders to the janitor.

An interesting letter was read from Mr. Isaiah Bray, who had been to the Massachusetts State Convention of Y. M. C. Associations at Springfield. He recommended that the Honolulu Association become identified with the American International Committee by the appointment of a correspondent. They would then be entitled to send delegates to the American Annual Meetings, or to receive visits from the International Committee. At the convention each secretary was allowed three minutes to make his report, while he (Mr. Bray) was allowed all the time he wanted. He had given a history of the Honolulu Institution, and the fact, that it was all paid for, created much surprise. The "modest man" in Honolulu was compared with Mr. H. M. Moore, the "modest man" at Springfield, who was there deputed to collect money. He had offered $25 from the Honolulu Association towards their funds, and the offer was received with cheers. He stated that Mr. Sayford would probably visit Honolulu in the spring on an evangelical mission.

The action of Mr. Bray was fully endorsed, and the meeting adjourned.
