The D. S. Williams finished her deck load yesterday forenoon.

The C. O. Whitmore is discharging at the rate of about 75,000 feet of lumber per day.

New mooring posts are being put in place of the old ones on the Likelike wharf.

This trip, the Alameda will be more heavily loaded than ever.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

The officers of the U. S. S. Hartford give a dance to-morrow afternoon.

A CANARY has been found and can be obtained, by the owner, at the Chamberlain's office.

THERE will be no meeting of the Musical Society this evening, but the regular business meeting will be held next Friday.

Messrs. Lyons & Levey offer for sale to-day, alongside the Myrtle Boat Club house, a boat fitted complete with all necessary nautical appliances.

MONEY orders on the United States will not be issued, for the Alameda's mail, after two o'clock to-day. The regular mail will close at ten o'clock to-morrow morning.

THE number of cases brought before the Police Court, which are remanded from time to time and in which a nol pros is ultimately entered, is on the increase.

A SUDDEN squall blew on Wednesday evening about eight o'clock sending clouds of dust through the town and extinguishing the lights in the basement of the hotel.

THOUGH the teachers at Fort Street School were the first to ask for a medical examination of their pupils they are the last to be attended to. "The first shall be last."

THE evidence in a case before Judge Bickerton on Tuesday showed that Captain Fehlbehr used strong language upon the occasion of a recent arrest. It is probable that he will be sent to church on Sunday's with the native officers.

IN addition to the usual assortment of goods to be offered for sale to-morrow, by Messrs. Lyons & Levey, are bed lounges, superior furniture, harness, Manila cigars, bran, sugar and a good cart.

NEARLY two months ago the deputy marshal was informed that a few articles of jewelry had been stolen from a house on Beretania street; he was also told who were the thieves, and some of the missing property was handed to Mr. Dayton. Though the boys have been within the precincts of the station house they have not been tried on any charge, and the owner of the property still mourns his loss for it remains in the custody of the deputy marshal.

DELICACIES of all kinds can now be obtained from Henry May & Co., who have just received, by the Alameda, a stock of new goods which include chicken, turkey, fowl, ham, cheese, butter, bacon, mackerel, salmon bellies, and some splendid potatoes and smelts from Oregon.

IN passing down Fort street this morning we were much pleased with the handsome line of Gent's Fine Shoe Wear in the window of M. McInerny. Every one ought to see them. 649 3t.

THE store of Messrs. Ehlers & Co. was visited yesterday by hundreds of ladies who inspected the silks, supposed to have been damaged by salt water. In many pieces it is difficult to see where the damage is; the sale will commence on Monday.

MR. E. P. ADAMS will continue the sale of Messrs. Hackfeld & Co.'s goods this morning at ten o'clock, when even a better assortment will be offered than was sold yesterday. Messrs. Lyons & Levey have postponed their regular sale till to-morrow.

A FOOTBALL match has been arranged for to-morrow afternoon, at the Makiki reserve, between the Rocky Hills and Pacific Slope clubs. The losers have the privilege of paying for ice cream for the crowd. It has not yet been decided what doctor will be in attendance to alleviate the sufferings of the halt and the maimed.

ALTERATIONS and improvements have been commenced in the store of Messrs. Lyons & Levey, who will remove their general office to the back of the store, having their jewelry on exhibition close to the door, and samples of all the goods, for which they are the agents, will be displayed in their show room upstairs.

MY dear, have you seen those Picture frames and Cornices they make at King Bros., they are just too utterly too too, and so very cheap. I asked them how they could afford to make them for the prices they asked and they told me it was because they were in an out of the way place, their rent was very cheap, and they did their own labor. 647 1w 3

HIS Majesty paid an official visit to the U. S. S. Hartford at noon yesterday and was received by Rear Admiral A. K. Hughes. His Majesty was accompanied by Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, His Excellency W. M. Gibson, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Major Purvis, Acting Chamberlain; Colonel J. H. Boyd and Major A. Rosa of His Majesty's Staff. His Majesty remained on board for an hour, the customary salutes being fired on his arrival and departure.

THE young ladies of Honolulu might imitate the example of their sisters on the Comstock and give a Leap Year Ball. It would certainly be a novelty, and, judging from the account, from the Virginia City Enterprise, which is published on our fourth page, it would be productive of considerable merriment.

THE Alameda will take a large number of passengers to-morrow over forty berths having been already secured. Among the departures will be Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Jones, Miss Jones, Miss Jarboe, Captain and Mrs. Wright, Captain and Mrs. Ainsworth and family, Mr. Claus Mangels, Mr. E. C. Macfarlane, Dr. Saxe, Mr. S. B. Slight, J. D. Snyder, G. Carlisle, C. M. Keeney, J. Coffee, Mrs. Grant, Mr. Joe Grant, R. H. Morrell, Mr. and Mrs. A. Spence, Dr. Stallard, L. Bisajno, R. Merry, Mrs. Warley, H. Williams, L. Way, S. J. Shaw, P. C. Jones Jr., Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Robinson, H. Turton Jr., H. B. Hasbrouck, J. K. Porter, C. E. Williams, Miss Lottie Williams.

THE plans of the new Government offices can now be seen at the Interior Department. The building will be of brick and two stories high. On the ground floor are offices for the Tax Collector and Assessor, the Superintendent of Water Works, the Road Supervisor and a room for surveyor's implements. On the second floor it is proposed to have a map room, a draughting room, and offices for a Civil Engineer and Superintendent of Public Works. The rooms are almost all 26 feet by 26 feet, well lighted and ventilated. Tenders for the erection of the building will be received till Wednesday, the 15th March, so says the official announcement in the Gazette. Oat might supply a diary to the Interior Department.
