THE HOLOKAHIKI CASE.

His Honor Judge McCully having given his decision in the case brought against Mr. Holokahiki, in favor of the defendant, thus reversing the decision of the lower court, we publish the opinions delivered by His Honor and by Judge Bickerton. Mr. Kinney has, on behalf of his client, appealed to a jury and the case will be reheard at the April term.

JUDGE BICKERTON'S DECISION.

In giving his decision in the Lower Court, Judge Bickerton said that he regretted that any member of the bar should be guilty of usury at the rate of one hundred and fifty per cent. per annum; he could not regulate the charges of lawyers, but he could limit them to such as had been agreed upon. The sum of $104 for costs of court was an illegal charge. The usury had been conducted in such a way that the law was avoided. The defendant had induced his client to spend $100 when he was not in any way called upon to do so. This was paid to Kawela. It was the duty of a lawyer to protect his client and he had sworn to do so. He had gone to Kohala, his expenses being paid, yet he had charged twenty-five per cent. interest on the amount of his expenses. He had received $554 besides the amounts made by charging 25 per cent. interest. There was no question as to returning the $104 charged for costs of court, and the remaining $96, sued for, had been obtained by means which should not exist between a lawyer and his client. The Judge concluded his very severe censure, which, he said, would have been stronger had the lawyer been a foreigner, by regretting that he had been compelled to speak in such a manner.

JUDGE McCULLY'S DECISION.

The defendant is an attorney at law and the action is brought to recover $200 as "money had and received for plaintiff's use." The plaintiff paid defendant $150 as a retainer or fee in two proposed ejectment suits, and also deposited with him $104 for costs of court in the same.

The two pieces of land are in Kohala, Hawaii. The defendant went with the plaintiff to Kohala and induced the adverse holders of the lots to abandon their claims without suit. He afterwards assisted plaintiff to sell the lots for $2,400, of which $2,000 was paid in cash, $400 being left to pay off a mortgage of that amount on the land.

The plaintiff claims that he was unjustly and inequitably induced to pay defendant the $104 deposited with him for costs in actions which were not brought, and that $200 being ten per cent. upon $2,000 was at least $100 too much for the services in the sale of the land, and so brings his action for $200, throwing off $4 to bring it within the Police Court jurisdiction.

In my opinion the charges are too high, and if defendant were bringing the action to recover these amounts upon a quantum meruit I should not allow them. But the plaintiff testifies that he freely consented to pay these amounts, and his wife also, who was owner of the land, and was a party to the conference, agreed to the payment of $200 as ten per cent. on cash received, that the defendant wanted to return the $104 deposited for costs but that his wife and himself told him to retain it.

There is no evidence of fraudulent deceit or of a failure to do his client's business. It is only claimed for the defendant that he asked too high a price and that the plaintiff was ignorant and gave it.

To hold that money so paid may be recovered would be to permit all persons who consider that they have paid their legal advisers excessive fees to bring actions to recover the excess.

I do not think that the proofs in this case support a judgment for plaintiff.

Judgment for defendant. W. A. Kinney for plaintiff. W. L. Holohahiki in person. HONOLULU, March 5th, 1884.

THAT "SUGGESTED REQUEST."

The Gazette, in its last issue, publishes "the tenor of the letter forwarded by the Fort Street School teachers to the President of the Board of Education." (A copy of which was refused to the Editor of the Bulletin.) Our contemporary also insinuates that it was obtained from "within the precincts of the Premier's premises," in this instance, probably, from Fort Street School, and not from the same region as the Protest, the Cleghorn Correspondence or the Mounted Police Report. As the Gazette is not so clever in concocting, as in collaring, a document we reproduce the two letters, a comparison of which will show a resemblance and a difference. In the matter of composition the Gazette letter is an improvement upon that signed by the teachers of the Fort Street Public School, which, curiously enough, bears no date.

THE GAZETTE LETTER.

HONOLULU, JAN. 16th, 1884. To the President of the Board of Education: DEAR SIR:—As a case of leprosy has been known to exist in this school, it would relieve all anxiety that might be entertained by parents and patrons of the school if a medical examination was instituted, and we the undersigned, teachers in the Fort Street School, have thought it would be advisable to respectfully request the Board of Education to take into consideration the propriety of examining the scholars at present in this school.

(Signatures of teachers.) THE GENUINE LETTER.

To His Excellency The HON. WALTER M. GIBSON, President of the Board of Education.

As a case of leprosy has been found in one of the public schools, the teachers, desirous that all cause of anxiety might be removed from the minds of the parents patronizing the same, respectfully ask that all children attending the public schools may be at once examined and that those who may hereafter enter be subject to a proper medical examination and present a certificate of health.

(Signatures of six teachers.) The six teachers appear to have ignored the Secretary of the Board of Education who is the proper medium through whom official communications should be sent.

THE Y. P. C. T. U. (Communicated.) The Young People's Christian Temperance Union met at the Kindergarten Rooms on Tuesday for the re-election of officers. The union has been organized six months and has enrolled one hundred and nineteen members, only three of whom it has been found necessary to drop. The following officers were unanimously elected:

- Superintendent.....Anna J. Breese
Asst. Superintendent.....R. N. Podmore
Sec. Secretary.....Olie Swain
Cor. Secretary.....Sarah J. Dickson
Treasurer.....Frank J. Chapman
Users.....Thos. Nott and Fred Grannis
Librarian.....Joseph Cowan
Asst. Librarian.....Robbie I. Moore

The following committees were appointed by the Superintendent:

- On Literary Entertainment—Mrs. Isaac Moore and Archie Sinclair.
On Music—Miss Hattie Dickson and Ella Moore.
On Printing—James Nott, Jr., and Mrs. Dr. Hagan.

A vote of thanks was passed to the following named persons, who have so generously donated books to the library, and added so materially to the pleasure and interest of the young people of the union: Mrs. Wm. Allen, Mrs. Lowell Smith, Mrs. A. L. Smith, Mrs. S. N. Castle, Miss Sarah King, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Powers, Mrs. Gilman and Fred. Grannis.

CIVIL COURT.

M. Roderick v. J. N. Palanolelo, action for damages $200, plea of general issue.

J. Berenaba for plaintiff, E. Preston for defendant. The claim was for the care of a child for two years. Mr. Preston moved that judgment be given for defendant on the showing made by plaintiff. Judgment for defendant, costs $4.75. Appeal noted to the Intermediary Court.

W. H. Page v. P. Milton, assumpsit for $63.25, continued to 13th Inst.

John Chee Fook & Co. v. Y. Man Hop, action on promissory note for $191.50. Discontinued, costs $2.

L. Ahlo v. L. Amo and Lampan, assumpsit for $200. Mr. E. ff. Ward for plaintiff, Messrs Smith and Thurston for defendants. Judgment for plaintiff in full amount with costs $17.40.

G. Awana v. Ah Hong, assumpsit for $112.78. Mr. C. Brown for plaintiff and Mr. W. R. Castle for defendant. Judgment for plaintiff.

Japanese chess is probably the most intricate game in the world. The board has eighty-one squares, and twenty pieces are used, which have moves somewhat like our own, though none are exactly similar. These pieces change in grade when they arrive at a certain position on the board. The strangest feature of the game is that either player can take any piece that has been captured from him replace it on the board, and use it against his adversary. Exchange.

Rest before meals makes digestion more complete. Exertion immediately before meals retards digestion, and exertion immediately afterward deranges it.
