Now that we have a Jockey Club formed, and as we expect some fine racing from our fine young stock, it will be very necessary that accurate time be kept of the performance of each steed, and this can be done only by each owner of such stock providing themselves with one of those gold chronographs, to be had from M. McInerney. 733 5t.

Two young Chinese lads, at Kaili, on the Ewa road, amused themselves yesterday in trying the relative speed of their steeds, perhaps preparatory to the 11th of June. One was thrown violently from his horse, but without serious injury. A policeman happening to be at hand, they were both arrested on a charge of furious riding.

BETWEEN Moanalua and Puuloa, and to seaward of Salt Lake, there is a considerable area of fertile, but uncultivated land. The great impediment to its cultivation is lack of water for irrigation. At present Mr. J. I. Dowsett is having a well bored, and if the attempt be successful in securing a flowing stream, a magnificent track of land that is now running to waste will shortly be covered with profitable vegetation.

It is certainly time some change was made in the present existing liquor law. Coming down Nuuanu Valley Saturday evening about 7 o'clock, we first met a party of drunken natives on horseback disputing about two mules, creating quite a disturbance. A little further down we passed two more beastly drunk, trying their best to keep from falling out of an express, and just below School street we met a party of four intoxicated natives on horseback hardly able to keep their seats. All, this was seen within 20 minutes, and is of frequent occurrence. Would it not be advisable to have the Mounted Police out Saturday evenings.

Hon. J. L. Kaulakou said in the Legislative Assembly this morning, that the Justices of the Supreme Court were not doing their duty, but the honorable member was promptly sat upon by the President, who told him not to speak in such a disrespectful manner against the Judges.
