THE FRANCO-CHINESE TROUBLE.

The news we gave in a note the other day, about the resignation of General Camponen as French Minister of War, was incorrect in the cause assigned. A despatch in an Australian paper was the source of our information. Instead of Camponen resigning because the Ministry refused to send reinforcements to Tonquin, the cause of variance was the Ministry's persistence in the Tonquin invasion contrary to the Minister of War's advice. Prime Minister Ferry, in answer to an interpellation in the Chamber of Deputies on Jan. 14th, is reported as follows:—

"He (Camponen) contended that the task would prove unprofitable and unworthy of the republic, which could not, he argued, afford to spare 20,000 French soldiers, essential to the success of the enterprise, in view of the European situation and the pressing necessity of the more perfect mobilization of the army in France. General Camponen's idea was that the mobilization was the immediate and supreme duty of the hour, and it should at once be undertaken with a view of giving the republic an available military strength of 3,000,000 men. General Leval of the Seventeenth Army Corps, who commanded the Rhine army during the Franco-German war, and who was in thorough sympathy with Ferry's views, was at once installed as General Camponen's successor. Ferry went bluntly to the point at once. He announced the Government intended immediately to increase its energies in Tonquin, and would not stop until it occupied the entire country up to the frontier of the Chinese Empire. This declaration produced a profound sensation, and was received with cheers and considerable disapproval. Among the distinguished visitors present to hear the Ministerial announcement was Prince Hohenlohe, German Ambassador. Ferry, continuing, said the operations necessary to the proposed conquest of Tonquin would in no wise compromise the French military strength at home or interfere with the necessary general mobilization. In saying this the Premier fortified himself with the authority of General Leval, than whom there could be no military authority more respected by France. There were 3,000,000 men in the republic, the best soldiers in the world, ready to march at a moment's notice in the cause of France. It was impossible to longer keep an army in Tonquin, crouching idly like hunters, with their eyes fixed upon a single point. That was unworthy an army of France. That army must be at work and Tonquin must be entirely occupied. The task was not difficult: it would require but an insignificant mobilization. Ferry's speech, besides producing a great sensation in the chamber when delivered, has astounded Parisians generally and made them quite serious. The general impression that it has made may be described as had; people discuss it as if they disliked to be forced to contemplate the probability of trouble. After this the Chamber adjourned until January 29th.

So France is, to use a vulgar phrase, bound to "go the whole hog" in Tonquin. News from that quarter in the near future may be expected to be of an exciting nature.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Some interesting items regarding Southern Polynesian conquest will be found in our latest foreign news.

The Washington Gazette has vented another intemperate article against the renewal of the Hawaiian Treaty.

Until Honolulu has a paid fire brigade and special horses for the engines, there should be a provision for compelling people within hall to assist in hauling the engines to fires.

 The San Francisco Merchant says the Advertiser is wrong in saying Chinese on the Coast consume Hawaiian rice, on account of its lower price. The Chinese, it says, import their own rice and stick to the home supply. The Merchant says our local contemporary's statement would injure rather than benefit the treaty.

An article in the S. F. Chronicle says if Congress does not make provision for the mail service, the Australasian line of steamers to California will cease. It therefore urges the importance of subsidizing the line, and so preserving the increasing American trade with the Colonies, which is pushing European competition hard. It is remarkable to find such solicitude for foreign trade in a journal holding nothing but contempt for the lucrative Hawaiian trade.

Tonnage statistics of the port of San Francisco, in the Bulletin of that city, show Hawaiian sailing vessel tonnage to stand sixth on the list of all countries. If the steamship tonnage exclusively engaged in the Hawaiian trade were added, Hawaii would be third on the tonnage list. Europe and Australia alone exceeding it. In passenger traffic, omitting China, that with Hawaii for 1884 was only slightly exceeded by that of British Columbia, while the Colonies were one thousand less.

General Sheridan, who recently paid a visit to these Islands and was treated with all kindness and respect, is reported in an interview with a San Francisco Chronicle reporter to have given his impressions of Hawaii as follows: "It is a first-class place for a person who wishes to get out of the way of the press and its attaches and wishes to be isolated from the rest of the world for about two weeks, but it is good for nothing else. There is nothing there but the sugar interests, and when they die out there will not be much left of the island kingdom." His opinion was that the proposed treaty between America and Spain would have the ultimate result of knocking the "group of craters" in the head. As usual with brief visitors, the General took away wrong notions of leprosy treatment.

More of the Sharon case! In the discussion of alimony and costs in the Sharon case, in court on Jan. 12th, an affidavit was read from Nellie Brackett, one of the plaintiff's chief witnesses, in which she declared the "dear wife" letters were forgeries. Also, an affidavit from the Senator, saying that the decision was a great shock to him and would hasten his end, which he believed would be soon, and declaring that, despite the decision, he had never entered into marital relations with Sarah Althea Hill. Geo. W. Tyler, one of plaintiff's counsel, on the stand admitted he had forged one Cumpel's name to a contract, with Cumpel's connivance. Altogether, there seems to be no bottom to the rascality in this case.

EDMOND'S LATEST CIRCULAR.
 The following extracts from Edmond's latest circular, Jan. 15th, comprise what is interesting relative to this Kingdom's trade:—

SUGAR.—Eastern advices report the market very dull. Centrifugals 96 per cent, test nominal at 5 1/4 cents. The Refineries have been either wholly idle for the past fortnight or running very light, and the trade are only buying for immediate requirements. London cables of the 12th inst., advise a further advance of best sugar to 10s; 6d firm. M. Licht's latest report reduces his estimate by 30,000 tons.

A Manila cable of the 12th inst., reports an advance of 8s making the basis 4.38. The crop of the Philippines is estimated at 225,000 tons, or 50,000 excess over the last.

RICE.—Since our last, an improvement has taken place and the market is strong at 1 1/2, at which price several sales have been made. Nearly all of the island stock is now in the hands of one importer, who is holding for 5 cents each.

CHARTERS.—Freights continue firm, and since our last a large business has been done at higher rates.

A London dispatch says that the Secretary of State for the Colonial Department has sent a circular dispatch to the Governments of the different Australian Colonies, reassuring them that the Imperial Government is taking action to prevent an extension of the annexation of foreign powers in the Southern Pacific.

Advices from Melbourne state that popular opinion in Australia continues greatly agitated in view of the recent German annexation in New Guinea and adjacent islands. Mass meetings to protest against foreign annexations in the Pacific are every-day occurrences.

A story in the latest despatches, that El Mahdi had accepted conditions of compromise for the peaceful relief of Khartoum, is not generally believed in England.

NOTICE.
 Having leased the TRAINING STABLES from H. J. Agnew, at Kapiolani Park, I am now prepared to take horses to train, and prepare them for the coming Fair on the 11th of June next.

Breaking and Educating Young Horses a specialty.
 It is a point of importance to all owners of fine young colts not to have them jammed or hammered over the hard roads, and to get them properly handled for the first lessons are the ones that make the horse.

Also in connection with my Training Stables, I will serve a certain number of choice mares with my Young Hambletonian Stallion "APTOS CHIEF." He was sired by Electioneer, owned by Gov. Stanford. The sire of Electioneer was Risdeke's Hambletonian. The dam of Aptos Chief was sired by Speculation; he by Risdeke's Hambletonian—so it will be seen that Aptos is an in-bred of Hambletonian.
 Terms for service of Aptos Chief, $50 for the season, payable at the time of service; and all mares failing to be with foal will have the service of the horse the next season free of charge.
