THE HAMMOCK AND THE PORCH. A Hammock and a Porch were discussing their respective merits.

"I know," replied the Hammock, "but you forget that I combine the beauties of a swinging front gate and a comfortable sofa."

If the habit of drinking hot water is healthy Gus thinks the soup at his boarding-house will preserve him to good old age.

A young Vermont lawyer has just had his first case. It was a case of measles and he had to go home and let his mother nurse him.

When ignorance is bliss it is folly to ask the landlady what she puts in the hash.

AN ALARMING DISEASE AFFLICTING A NUMEROUS CLASS.

The disease commences with a slight derangement of the stomach, but, if neglected, it in time involves the whole frame, embracing the kidneys, liver, pancreas, and, in fact, the entire glandular system, and the afflicted drags out a miserable existence until death gives relief from suffering.

Market Place, Pocklington, York, October 2nd, 1882.

Sir,—Being a sufferer for years with dyspepsia in all its worst forms, and after spending pounds in medicines, I was at last persuaded to try Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, and am thankful to say have derived more benefit from it than any other medicine I ever took.

St. Mary-street, Peterborough, November 29th, 1881.

Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to inform you of the benefit I have received from Seigel's Syrup. I have been troubled for years with dyspepsia; but after a few doses of the Syrup, I found relief, and after taking two bottles of it I felt quite cured.

Hensingham, Whitehaven, Oct. 16th, '82.

Mr. A. J. White.—Dear Sir,—I was for some time afflicted with piles, and was advised to give Mother Seigel's Syrup a trial, which I did. I am now happy to state that it has restored me to complete health.

Dear Sir,—I write to tell you that Mr. Henry Hillier, of Yatesburg, W.Va., in forms me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit, and declares Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life.

Yours truly, N. Wynn, Chemist, Calne, September 28th, 1883.

Dear Sir,—I find the sale of Seigel's Syrup steadily increasing. All who have tried it speak very highly of its medicinal virtues; one customer describes it as a "God-send to dyspeptic people."

Princeton, Sept. 21st, 1883.

My Dear Sir,—Your Syrup and Pills are still very popular with my customers, many saying they are the best family medicines possible.

The other day a customer came for two bottles of Syrup and said "Mother Seigel" had saved the life of his wife, and he added, "one of these bottles I am sending fifteen miles away to a friend who is very ill. I have much faith in it."

A SKILFUL SURGICAL OPERATION. The American Ambassador at Vienna, Mr. Cassin, has lately forwarded to his Government an interesting account of a remarkable surgical operation lately performed by Professor Billroth, of Vienna, which, wonderful to tell, consisted in the removal of a portion of the human stomach, involving nearly one-third of the organ—and, strange to say, the patient recovered—the only successful operation of the kind ever performed.
