A LARGE hog fell overboard from the steamer W. G. Hall this morning, and after a swim about the bay he was rescued when about to finally sink.

THERE was a good attendance at Honolulu Rifles' drill last evening under First Lieutenant McLeod. The company will probably know who is to be their captain next Tuesday night.

THE steamer Jas. Makee returned this afternoon with Gov. P. P. Kanoa, wife and child. The steamer arrived at Nawiliwili at 7 o'clock last night and sailed again four hours later for Honolulu.

IT was rumored this morning that Chas. McCarthy was married last night. It appears that Mr. C. K. Miller had invited a number of his friends to Waikiki last evening and the boys returned with wedding cake; hence the rumor.

THE intention, mentioned in this paper some weeks ago, of renovating the lecture-room of Fort Street Church, is being carried out in fine style. It will look like a new place, above, below, and all round. In consequence of operations to this end, the prayer meeting to-night will be held in the Y. M. C. A. hall.

THE Myrtle Boat Club held a meeting this noon, at which it was voted to beg the Boating Association to admit the Myrtles into the Association again. Mr. Fred. Wundenberg has tendered his resignation to the boat club, saying that he would not have anything to do with men who could so stultify themselves.

THERE is a varied pictorial display in Oats' window, Merchant street. It includes instantaneous photographs of the recent international yacht race, and pictures of other famous yachts than those engaged in that contest; also premium pictures to celebrate the holiday numbers of standard periodicals, some of them regular little gems of art.

JOHN McCloskey, America's first, and thus far, only Cardinal, became insured in the Mutual Life Insurance Company for $10,000 in 1867. He was a gentle man, a sincere Christian in the truest sense of the word, and his loss is deeply felt by all who knew him, irrespective of religious denomination. The dividend additions on his insurance policy amount to $5,779, so that the total claim paid will be $15,779. S. G. Wilder, Agent.

Whether Adam in Paradise thought it worth while to invent for himself an Edenish tile. Is a matter of learned dispute. But very certain it is, his sons ever since have thought a Hat needful,—from peasant to prince— To distinguish the man from the brute.

The Mohammedan foggy for ages, he says— Has stuck to his head-gear of turban or fez, The girls of the Harem to "mash" on;

While we infidel Franks, he declares with a sneer, Will don a new Hat every day in the year.

If prompted by Fancy or Fashion. A splendid lot of new Hats in men's and boys' just in this morning, at 174 1w. M. McISERNY'S.

ODDFELLOWSHIP.

BRO. W. E. Foster, P. G., was introduced last night at the regular meeting of Excelsior Lodge, I. O. O. F., by the retiring Deputy District Grand Sire, Bro. R. W. Laine, as the successor to that office. After the usual routine of business, the Lodge adjourned, for the "good of the order," to the Elite Ice Cream Parlors, to take cool comfort upon the invitation of Bro. Foster, the new representative of the supreme authority of the institution.

MARSHAL'S SALE.

AT noon to-day the Marshal of the Kingdom, Mr. J. H. Soper, sold, under a writ of execution out of the Supreme Court, the following properties of David Kaapa, defendant in a suit brought by the administrators of estate of D. K. Mahu: 1st, a parcel of land situated at Kiki-hale, near Maunakea street; 2nd, land at Kumunui, Waikane, this island, and, 3rd, at Koolapoko, Oahu, known as the Ahupuaa of Waikane. The execution was for $466.39, and the properties were knocked down to the administrators mentioned above for $105.

SALE OF QUEEN EMMA'S EFFECTS.

THERE is a good attendance to-day at the sale of Her late Majesty Queen Emma's effects, by Messrs. E. P. Adams & Co., among many prominent people present being His Majesty the King, Mr. Morgan, who officiates, used a magic wand instead of a hammer, and with fascinating cadences and florid diction wows the wealth of his auditors in exchange for the rich and regal chattels. The King this forenoon bought two classic marble busts for $20 each. Hon. H. A. Widemann for $30 secured the handsome book rest that took the prize at the Centennial Exposition in 1876, and was presented to Her late Majesty by the Government. The piano fell to Miss Stella, cousin of Queen Emma, for $375. Among the unsold articles in the main parlor, two that attracted much attention were the beautiful baptismal font presented to the late Queen Dowager by Queen Victoria, and the stereopticon given her by Napoleon III. At noon a great deal remained to be sold, and the auction was proceeding briskly.

NOCTURNAL DOINGS.

A gentleman living near Kawaiahao Church heard a noise on his verandah about bedtime the other night. Going out to ascertain the cause, he saw a man in the act of jumping over the railing and disappearing in the darkness. This gentleman says there are never any policemen to be got by hailing in that locality. At night the guardians of the peace go home to sleep, he adds.

A letter in to-day's issue gives the next experience of loss from sneak thieving reported to us this morning.

FOLLOWING close upon the receipt of that letter was the information given our reporter by a gentleman casually met, to the effect that chicken stealing out on the plains has become a systematic, nightly occurrence. Many residents have lately lost all their fowls, including the most valuable breeds in some cases. Here a proprietor of the store where the above was told interjected the remark that a certain clergyman had his coops completely bereft of their feathered occupants a few nights ago. The first informant then added that another species of outrage was the taking of horses out of premises and impounding them, with instructions to the pound-keeper to exact $1.50 reward for capturing the animals. He also remarked that for thirty-five years past, it was a notorious fact that chicken-stealing was always prevalent immediately prior to the sailing of vessels for China and to the occurrence of Chinese New Year's, adding in respect to nocturnal depreidations generally, "If we are not allowed to keep dogs, or to shoot unlawful intruders, the Government should furnish every householder with a chain and padlock to secure his premises." He further believed that the Chinese pedlars spied out premises by day to facilitate robberies by night, and was emphatic in saying that "something must be done" by the community for mutual protection.

STILL another resident—a legal gentleman—said the police were overworked—they had to carry their own stools on which to rest at night. The Government should provide a body servant for each officer to carry his chair.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 11th. Ah Pang and Ah Lang were muled in the sum of $5.70 for keeping pigs where no pigs should be. Chas. Smith, for deserting bark Cape Horn Pigeon, was ordered to refund the advanced $60 or in default to be imprisoned at hard labor for four months. Ah Sam assaulted Loke, and forfeited $10 for the job. Kimo forfeited bail $6 for ignoring the temperance pledge.

CHINESE IN WASHINGTON TERRITORY. Washington, Oct. 21.—Gov. Watson Squire of Washington Territory has sent a special report to the Secretary of the Interior on the anti-Chinese demonstration in that Territory. The Governor says there has been much agitation of the subject of forcing Chinese residents to leave the country, particularly in the counties bordering on Puget Sound. Several public meetings have been held, at which there were present delegates of the Knights of Labor, and violent incendiary speeches were made. The principal point for these demonstrations has been at Seattle, and there has been a great deal of agitation at Tacoma. Thus far there has been no outbreak, although serious trouble has been threatened. The persons accused of killing Chinese hop-pickers near Seattle have been arrested, and one is now in jail under indictment for murder in the first degree. Strong efforts have been made to intimidate the Chinese employes at the Franklin and Newcastle coal mines, and many Chinese are leaving. These places are now quiet, but the coal companies are anxious in regard to the safety of their property. The Chinese Consul at San Francisco was informed that the persons accused of murdering Chinese had been arrested. The Governor says it has been his desire to maintain order without the employment of troops, and a strong organization of the better class of citizens at Seattle has arrayed itself under the law for the preservation of peace. The situation has been improving from day to day, and it is concluded that no necessity exists for calling upon the military. If serious trouble arises the Secretary will be notified by telegraph, and if troops should be required there is an ample force at Vancouver Barracks, within a few hours of the disturbed locality.

The Devil has his way—yet Death comes to all. Wesleyan ministers or local preachers passing through Honolulu to or from the Colonies (with letters of good standing), are invited to stay over a steamer and strive to win such for Christ in the Lyceum.
