DIED.
KEMPF—In San Francisco, April 18th, Louis Meredith, beloved son of Cornelia Selby and Commander Louis Kempff, U. S. N., aged 9 years 5 mon, and 12 days.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

THE U. S. ships of war Trenton and Nipic are expected here from South America.

COMMANDER R. P. LEARY, U. S. N., has come to relieve Capt. Kempff of the U. S. S. Adams.

SIXTY-THREE tins of opium were found in the coal bunkers of the S. S.
Australia, yesterday—no owner.

Sir William Wiseman, Princess Kaiulani and others, were out early this morning, enjoying a horseback ride.

A PAIR of gold eye-glasses have been lost; a reward will be paid the finder by returning them to this office.

Mr. Cunha's horse and buggy ran away on Beretania street this morning. The buggy was smashed and the horse disabled.

THERE was a little disturbance among the people at Kakaako last evening, which the authorities settled with but little difficulty.

CAPTAIN Kempff of the U. S. S.
Adams has received the sad intelligence of the death of his little son, aged 9 years, at San Francisco.

A NATIVE boy was thrown off his horse in front of the Chinese Theatre, last evening, and his head badly cut in two places, by striking the road.

AT 10:30 o'clock to-morrow morning H. B. M. S. Caroline will weigh anchor and depart for Hawaii. The King will go by the Caroline to Kailua.

ANOTHER lot of hay and grain has been received by Mr. J. F. Colburn, also algerba fire-wood, and charcoal which he is offering to his customers at a very low rate.

THE latest news from Hawaii is to the effect that the volcano is unusually active. Now is the time to take a look at this "wonder of the world." All so inclined will have an opportunity to go by the steamer Ki-nau, which leaves here for Keahouh, the nearest port to the volcano, on Monday next, the 7th instant.

THE Dutch man-of-war Zilveren-Kruis, was in San Francisco bay when the Australia left. The Zilveren-Kruis is a massive wooden training ship, on a voyage around the world. Her crew numbers 252, of whom 200 are lads receiving instruction in marine warfare. The Zilveren-Kruis may be looked for at this port in the course of time.

MARSHAL Soper says that good dogs, that is, those that have no disease, may be re-estimated from the Station House, by the owners procuring a tag from the Tax Collector. There are now 20 or more of the animals in the pound, and a sorry looking lot they are. A well-known owner of dogs is reported to have said that he would carry his dog tags in his pocket, and if the dogs were taken he would test the constitutionality of the law.

MAY-DAY FESTIVAL.

A May-day festival was given yesterday by Miss P. Thiele to her elementary and kindergarten school, on Beretania street. Seventy-five smiling-face, happy children were there, many of them accompanied by their parents. The children romped and played and laughed and were as happy as larks. Refreshments, of course, were on the programme. Mr. J. Williams appeared on the scene and photographed the group. This is said to be the first May-day celebration held in Ho-lolulu.

SUGAR MARKET.

The condition of the New York market has improved somewhat.
Raws have advanced 1-16 of a cent, but the San Francisco market remains unchanged. On cost and freight terms there have been sales in New York at 3½ cents for 96 deg. test. Centrifugals near at hand and buyers have bid 3-16 for loaded cargoes. Latest quotations from New York are 3½ cents for 96 deg. test centrifugals.

The American Refinery has finished loading the ship Henry B. Hyde for New York, which is the second vessel loaded by that refinery this year.

A VETERAN GONE.

Henry Stephen Davids, engineer in the United States Navy, died at Sandwich, Ill., on February 8, 1888, at the age of 50. The deceased gentleman did distinguished service during the war of the rebellion, and was on the retired list at the time of his death. Our respected townsman, Captain Ross, was an intimate friend of the late H. S.
Davids, they having served together in the same ships. The deceased visited Honolulu on two or three different occasions a good many years ago, while in the navy, and is still remembered here. He was a member of the "Loyal Legion of the United States."

WASHINGTON IRVING BISHOP.

Mr. Washington Irving Bishop, the mind-reader, is more or less known by reputation to almost every newspaper reader. The name has been before the world for many years, in connection with public experiments tending to show the gentleman's capability of reading the unexpressed thoughts of others.

Mr. Bishop is now in Honolulu and staying at the Hawaiian Hotel, having arrived by the steamship Australia yesterday. He has come here for the purpose of rest, and not for work. He will, however, probably give one public exhibition after a few days' recuperation. Mr.
Bishop's health has been considerably broken by overwork, and his voice badly impaired. He hopes for restoration in the "Paradise of the Pacific." Mr. Bishop is a pleasant, gentlemanly man to talk with, modest and unassuming.

BALL OF COMPANY B.

Last night Company B of the Honolulu Rifles gave another of their delightful parties at their armory, on Beretania street.

The armory was beautifully decorated. At the entrance was an archway of ferns and flags, very tastefully arranged, and as the guests entered, they were received by members of the reception committee. The ladies were conducted to the ladies' waiting room, which was a little to the right of the entrance, and was made by draping flags from the ceiling. The gentlemen were shown to the gentlemen's dressing room, which was at the farther end of the hall, and draped with flags hung from the ceiling. Over the drapery was the word "Busy" and under it a very good imitation of a bee. This device was frequently alluded to by the guests, as being very appropriate.

There were about 300 present, including officers in uniform from the various warships in port. A prominent feature of the affair was the number of Rifle men in full dress uniform, which showed to advantage in such an assembly, where there was no lack of exquisite toilets.

During the evening light refreshments were served, and at 11:30 p. m., an elegant supper. The programme contained 13 dances, for which music was furnished by Berger's string band.

The whole affair was an entire success and reflected great credit upon the committee who had it in charge.

SUPREME COURT—IN CHAMBERS.

BEFORE DOLE, J.

TUESDAY, May 1st.

Court opened at 1:30 p. m.

Professor Alexander recalled, testified; Opu is included in the description of this lease. There are other lands included in the lease, Kewalo, Kalawahine, and part of Pawaa. Government lands this side of Makiki Valley. Kalawahine was not Government land, it was a part of a mahaie. I don't know of any Government grants out of Opu.
There were two grants to Kameha-meha before he was King, adjoining Opu. This grant joins the Lunailo asylum line. The local name of this grant is Kaiwikaikahu. This lease covers all these lands. Puna-hou was given by Boki to Bingham in 1828, I think. There is an award for it, and it must be on record.
There is nothing shown in the lease about Kalawahine or Kewalo. I did not know that this strip of land belonged to Kalawahine. Haalelea was in possession of his land at the time of this lease. Don't know whether John I was or not. The distribution made by Kamehameha I has substantially held until now.
Kamehameha I had more power than any other king since his time.
I think the Privy Council always existed, but was not brought into prominence until 1840. I think it originated with Kamehameha I. It was called together by the King; it was a council of chiefs who were usually consulted on all acts of importance that were to be done by the King. The Sumner property deed was based upon an award of Kamehameha III. There were a number of Government land sales before 1847, before a division of land was made. I don't remember the Government buying land from chiefs before the mahaie. The Government became distinct from the arbitrary power of the King in 1840. The King's power was not absolute even before that time, as there was always a council of high chiefs upon any important matter; they were considered more than councillors, they were partners.
Kamehameha I gave lands and took lands away. Makawao was a land sold by the Government before the mahaie. I think it was one of the lands left in the hands of the King.
I think it was sold in 1847. Sales also took place at Kulaokaha before 1848. I think if we had fuller reports of the Privy Council of that time, we could find out why the Government sold these lands and what title they had to them. The Kuhina Nui did not exist in Kamehameha I's time. Kamehameha III and IV sold crown lands without consulting with their Privy Council.
I know of one unassigned land being sold by a king; it was the land of Pua, Hilo. Kamehameha IV sold it, and after his death the Legislature passed a law granting a title to the land.

The case was then adjourned until Thursday at 10 a. m.

BET SUGAR FACTORY.

The corner-stone of the new beet-sugar factory at Watsonville will be laid to-day. The officers of the Western Beet-sugar Company have made arrangements to celebrate the event in an appropriate manner. It is understood that the Directors of the company will be present, but in the absence of Claus Spreckels his eldest son, John D. Spreckels, will lay the stone. Addresses of welcome and the usual programme for such an occasion have been decided upon, and it is said that during the ceremonies the prominent business places in Watsonville will be closed, as the enterprise is regarded with some favor by the residents. On the 24th ult., the time announced for the distribution of beet seed in Watsonville, more than 175 farmers were present on the factory grounds, and about thirty tons of seeds were distributed to those who signed the contract to raise sugar beets. During the latter part of last month fifteen car-loads of machinery for the factory arrived from the East.
The machinery was made in Germany, and was shipped from Antwerp early in January. The boilers are being made in this city and the evaporating pans in New York. The construction of the factory is being pushed as rapidly as possible, the force of laborers having been doubled last week. Large shipments of limestone from Santa Cruz have been made to the factory grounds, but 600 tons will be required to complete the factory, and as yet not one-third of that quantity has arrived. It is expected that thirty-five car-loads of machinery will arrive from the East some time this month or early in May. The machinery comes in bonded cars, but the Treasury Department granted a request that the cars be opened and the machinery taken out and appraised at Watsonville instead of in this city, the port of entry. Appraiser Beck has been in Watsonville during the week, making a valuation of the machinery so far received.—[S. F. Call, April 14.]

GERMANY.

CONDITION OF THE EMPEROR.

QUEEN VICTORIA IN BERLIN.

Berlin, April 23.—Accounts from the sick-room at Charlottenburg are comparatively cheerful. The partial recovery of the Emperor has amazed even the specialists in attendance and gives hopes that it may be more than temporary. Although he had a restless night, owing to fits of coughing, the Emperor evidently is stronger and declares he feels better than for weeks past. He was able to eat a hearty breakfast, including solids, and lunched on broth and bread.

The Emperor's general condition is satisfactory. The discharge from the throat is copious and the swelling of the glands has decreased.

Berlin, April 21—1 a. m.—The Emperor continues to improve. His fever is decreasing.

Dr. Mackenzie has written letters to the Kreuz Zeitung, Post and Cologne Gazette denying the recent charges against him, stating that he summoned Dr. Bergemann with due courtesy. Dr. Mackenzie had a long interview with Prince Bismarck to-day. The doctor's letters to the three papers above named were inserted under legal compulsion.

Berlin, April 23.—The newspapers almost unanimously welcome the Queen of England to Berlin, and express regret for the mournful occasion of her visit. Bismarck's expressed desire that a worthy reception be given the Queen has had an effect upon the entire press of the empire, and an agreeable change of tone is noticeable in articles on the subject. It is generally understood the Queen comes solely to see her imperial son-in-law before he dies, and to give her daughter the support of her sympathies.

MISCELLANEOUS FOREIGN NEWS.

Gibraltar, April 23.—The British gunboat Falcon sailed hence to-day for Cape Juby, in consequence of an attack by a body of the Sultan of Morocco's troops upon the North African Company's depot at that place. The Moors killed the manager of the depot and wounded others. Help is urgently needed.

London, April 18.—It is again stated that the Duke of Marlborough will visit the United States next summer, where he is expected to marry a rich widow.

Berlin, April 18.—Lord Salisbury has informed the German Foreign Office that Queen Victoria disapproves of the proposed marriage of Princess Victoria to Prince Alexander.

Rome, April 18.—Owing to the protests of the Polish Catholics, the Pope has discontinued negotiations for an entente between Russia and the Vatican.
