THE ORGAN RECITAL.

A Crowded Audience at Kaunakapili Church—Interesting Programme Well Rendered.

Kaunakapili church was taxed to its utmost capacity last evening on the occasion of the ninth organ recital by Mr. Wray Taylor. Every seat was taken long before the hour announced for the recital to commence, and a large number of people were obliged to stand. Among those present were noticed Mr. Justice and Mrs. McCully, His Excellency H. A. P. Carter and family, Hon. Chas. R. Bishop, Hon. Wm. G. and Mrs. Irwin, Hon. W. F. and Mrs. Allen, Major J. H. Wodehouse, H. B. M.'s Commissioner, and the Misses Wodehouse; Mons. G. C. d'Anglade, French Commissioner; Senor A. de Souza Canavarro, Portuguese Commissioner; Dr. J. S. and Mrs. McGrew, Hon. A. S. Clegg, Hon. Rev. Alex. and Mrs. Mackintosh, Mrs. F. M. Hatch, officers of H. B. M. S. Espiegle and Caroline, and U. S. S. Alert and Nipisic, Mr. H. F. Glade, Rev. Dr. C. M. and Mrs. Hyde, Rev. Dr. E. G. Beckwith, Rev. W. D. and Mrs. Westervelt, Mr. T. G. and Mrs. Thrum, Hon. A. Young, Hon. F. H. and Mrs. Hayselden, Rev. H. H. Gowen Mr. H. W. Severance, U. S. Consul and Mrs. Severance, and others.

The opening number was Guilmant's Marche Triomphale, a difficult composition, but it was well played by Mr. Taylor. He gave next a pastorella, in which judicious combinations were introduced, several solo stops being very tastefully employed.

Miss Dora Dowsett gave Marguerite's Three Bouquets by Braga with much taste and finish, the violin obligato being excellently played by Miss Kate McGrew. Miss von Holt accompanied with skill on the piano. The number was loudly applauded.

Mr. Arthur Tibbs gave a capital rendition of Molloy's song, "To-morrow will be Friday."

Mr. Myron Jones, the organist of Central Union Church, next played two numbers, a Larghetto by Beethoven and Offertoire by Batiste. Both afforded ample scope for Mr. Jones in the way of expressive playing, and it need hardly be said that the gentleman treated the compositions with the justice they merited.

Miss Kate McGrew was enthusiastically received when she appeared on the platform to play a violin solo, Dormeuse by Dancla. This young lady, daughter of our respected residents, Dr. and Mrs. McGrew, has, so the writer understands, been studying in Paris the past two years. The violin is her favorite instrument. The number was most beautifully played and a genuine treat to the audience who would not be satisfied until Miss McGrew responded to a most enthusiastic encore. She is to be congratulated upon her success. Miss von Holt accompanied the solo with precision.

Mr. Paul Isenberg gave a German song, his fine voice being heard to much advantage on this occasion. He was encored and had to respond.

The Concert Fantasia by Mr. Taylor brought out an imitation of the bagpipes, the "Blue Bells of Scotland" on the carillons, and an Irish air.

The song "Fiddle and I" by Miss Dowsett, with violin obligato by Miss McGrew, was a complete success. It is an odd but catching composition and its rendition was rewarded with much applause.

The large audience left the building to the strains of Hawaii Ponoi from the full organ.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Another Large Meeting—Reports from Canvassers.

The adjourned meeting in the interest of the proposed Chinese amendment to the Constitution yesterday evening was well attended. At 8 o'clock Mr. T. R. Lucas, chairman, called the meeting to order and Mr. Frank Godfrey, secretary, read the minutes of Friday evening's meeting, which were accepted.

Mr. Lishman of the canvassing committee for Ward 1 reported 38 additional signatures to the resolution for calling the Legislature.

Mr. Quinn reported 36 additional from Ward 2.

Messrs. Wright and Lapierre reported 31 additional from Ward 3.

Messrs. Kinney and May reported 29 additional from Ward 4.

Mr. Emmeluth reported 56 additional from Ward 5.

All told the additions bring the signatures up to about 800 names.

Mr. Quinn stated that he found general favor of this movement, but personal interests and prejudices prevented many sympathizers from giving their names. He went on to make a speech that proved very acceptable to those present, asserting the right of those who secured good government two years ago—"to make a paradise for a few and a Chinese heaven"—to secure their present demand for such changes in the Constitution as will make the country tenable to them. He urged activity in the cause upon all. They only asked to have the Legislature called together and would not let dust be thrown in their eyes again.

The speaker gave credit to Col. Spalding for being the only planter who had countenanced this movement during last legislature. If the planters had foresight they would see that their own interests would one day be conserved through the present agitation.

Mr. W. A. Kinney advocated preparing for an early public meeting. They should have to confess that unfortunately they did not represent the wealth of the community. A committee should be appointed to report a recital of the situation at length, which after acceptance should be published in the newspapers. There were men who once worked with their hands who owing to that fact were sent out to influence workmen, and the persons who often were most intolerant were those who had got a little ahead of the mechanical toil once their support. Some of this class were opposing this movement about town, including business men who received thousands of dollars patronage from these whose interests are involved in the success of this movement.

The speaker referred to Hon. W. O. Smith's remarks at the previous meeting, saying that gentleman seemed to think they needed to be impressed with the seriousness of changing the Constitution. He believed Mr. Smith had not himself thoroughly apprehended how serious a question this was to people such as composed these meetings. Mr. Kinney stated that Hon. Justice Preston had privately expressed an opinion upon the question of whether the Legislature could act without the seats of the three members expelled for bribery being filled. This opinion had been used on the street corners to suppress this movement and had had considerable effect.

The speaker stated that he had gone to Justice Preston and asked him if it was so and received the reply that he (the Judge) declined to be interrogated or to say whether he had or had not expressed an opinion. The Chief Justice upon being interviewed emphatically stated that he had expressed no opinion whatever. The speaker said in this movement we expected opposition of mostly every kind, but we certainly did not expect to have the cause stricken down by gossip from judicial lips, from one who by donning the "spotless ermine" had become a Judge and a lawgiver to us all alike. He was happy to say, however, that the opinions of those who ought to know are decidedly against this opinion and they need not hesitate on that account. Mr. Kinney concluded by moving the following resolution:

"Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to draft a call for a public meeting to report next Monday evening."

Mr. John Phillips, on the resolution being seconded by Mr. R. Lishman, supported it. He described the popular opinions come in contact with while canvassing. One man believed this Government was good and he did not want to see it upset by an agitation. The revolution of 1887 would never have occurred, the speaker held, if sugar had not been so low that the planters feared the Government's extravagance would ruin them. They had to call on the mechanics then to get them out of trouble, but the mechanics who now looked to them found themselves in the bouillon.

Messrs. Quinn and Lishman and others further supported the resolution, the latter named stating that everyone met with in canvassing was in favor of the movement, but many feared trouble and the loss of their bread and butter. If trouble was to ensue the sooner it came the better. He would prefer to take his bread without butter rather than to leave his children to look up to Chinamen for their subsistence or be forced out of the country by them.

Messrs. Emmeluth and Devoll having made pithy speeches in favor of the resolution, it was put to the meeting and passed without dissent. The chairman thereupon appointed, as a committee for the purpose of the resolution, Messrs. Kinney, Lishman, Phillips, Emmeluth and Godfrey.

Rev. W. B. Oleson was called upon for remarks and on rising was received with applause. He did not know that they would applaud him throughout his remarks. All that he had heard there did not meet his views. He considered that it would not be wise or judicious to have the Legislature called before the elections.

Mr. Kinney, upon Mr. Oleson sitting down, asked for his reasons. Mr. C. M. White also wished to hear Mr. Oleson's reasons.

Mr. Oleson again took the floor. His first reason was that the question at this stage would divide the foreign element on the eve of the general elections. Recent events made the natives feel sore, for they did not thoroughly understand the situation. He looked for no permanent peace in this country if the people were to divide by races. It was therefore most important that foreigners should be in accord among themselves at the present juncture. Several questions were likely to arise if the Legislature came together now which would be very embarrassing, and indeed he learned for the first time at this meeting that the question of legality of proceedings was already decided by one of the Judges.

Mr. Oleson was then asked, if unity among the foreigners was the great consideration, whether it would not be best secured by making some concession on the Chinese question. Mr. Oleson said he thought it would not. Remarks by others then followed, in effect that they wished unity, only that Mr. Oleson desired to secure it by doing nothing and they by doing something.

Mr. Devoll stated that very few natives refused to sign the resolution. On motion of Mr. Phillips a collection was taken up to pay expenses, $17 being found in the hat when it returned. It was agreed that the chairman be added to the committee on public meeting. Adjourned till Monday evening.

THE JAPANESE FETE.

The Japanese Mutual Benevolent Union, of which Mrs. Taro Ando is the President, have opened and are maintaining on Nuuanu street an Invalid's Home. It is designed to give the Japanese the benefit of medical treatment in pleasant quarters, where those in ill health can have the friendly aid and companionship of their own people. The mind has great influence over the physical well-being, and those not needing skilled surgical treatment, and not suffering from infectious disease, may be most effectively helped by kindly nursing and cheerful surroundings.

The idea and methods of such an institution must commend themselves to the sympathies of this generous Christian community. Honolulu people generally will be given an opportunity to aid in supporting such an institution in connection with a fete and bazaar which Mrs. Ando proposes to hold with the assistance of some of our well-known ladies. For this purpose the Queen Emma Hall premises have been secured for next Thursday evening.

The Hawaiian band has been engaged. The building and grounds will be tastefully decorated. Japanese articles, sent from Japan to Mrs. Ando for this purpose, will be on sale, and refreshments served in Japanese style. Ice cream and cake will also be provided. It is hoped that a liberal patronage will be accorded to this enterprise. The Japanese Consul and his lady have been very kind and generous in their social relations during their residence among us, and their efforts in behalf of their own countrymen should meet with generous support from our people.

New Free Tontine Policy

OF THE
Equitable Life Assurance Society
OF THE UNITED STATES

A SIMPLE PROMISE TO PAY.

[From the NEW YORK TIMES, June 22, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has adopted a new form of policy which, like a bank draft, is a simple promise to pay without conditions on the back.

[From the CHICAGO INVESTIGATOR.]

Always on the alert, and ever anxious to give the public the most advantageous contract in life insurance, the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York has, in the past, made many advances on old methods, and has been the means to liberalize life insurance in a greater degree, perhaps, than any other organization. It is not at all surprising, therefore, that this great company now comes before the people with a new contract, the like of which has not before been known in life insurance.

[From the KENTUCKY REGISTER, Richmond, Ky., June 25, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has, in the past, done more to create and maintain confidence in life insurance than any other company. Consequently its business is larger than that of any of its competitors. Furthermore, it has now taken a step which practically sweeps every objection of the character referred to out of the way. The result, undoubtedly, will be that thousands of men who have heretofore lacked confidence in life insurance, will examine the new policy offered by the Equitable, and assure their lives forthwith.

[From the BOSTON POST.]

This company has done more than any other to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life insurance.

[From the PACIFIC UNDERWRITER, San Francisco, July 1, 1889.]

The Equitable has already established a world-wide reputation for liberal dealings with its policy-holders and for its prompt settlement of all legitimate claims against it, and this new policy cannot fail to enhance its reputation for enterprise and progressiveness in dealing with the subject of life insurance.
