A PRETTY DISPLAY.

One of the windows of the Pacific Hardware Company's store is occupied with a baseball display. On an easel stands a photograph of the Champion Stars in a very handsome gilt frame. The Company has kindly presented a frame to each member of the Stars. They were allowed their choice. Surrounding the frame, are baseball bats, catcher's mask, gloves, etc. There is also the gold ball, which has had engraved on it nine stars and the words "Champions of 1889." The display is attracting considerable attention.

Last evening a very elegant dancing party was given at the residence of Hon. H. A. Widemann, in honor of Miss Allie Widemann, who leaves for the Colonies on the Zealandia.
The decorations were on a very extensive scale and much admired for their uniqueness. The Royal Hawa-ian band was present and dis-coursed appropriate music during the evening, and also played for dancing. Among those present were Their Majesties the King and Queen, Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, Princes Kawannakoa and Kalaianakole, the British, French and Portuguese Commissioners, Sir William Wiseman, Bart., officers of the men-of-war in port, and others. The party was an exceedingly pleasant and successful affair.

HAWAII BASEBALL LEAGUE.

A meeting of the Hawaii Baseball League was held at 12:30 this afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce room, Hon. W. F. Allen, President, in the chair.

The committee of investigation appointed Sept. 9th presented its report. It contained considerable evidence, and concluded with the recommendation that Meek, the pitcher of the Hawaii, be permanently expelled from the League, and prohibited from ever again participating in a League game.

The League adopted the report, and Meek is expelled as the Committee recommended.

There was no evidence to show that any other player in the League had played crooked during the season.

A vote of thanks was accorded Mr. J. J. Williams for presenting photos of the winning Stars.

It was decided to open the season next year, the first week in April.

MR. GLADSTONE ON EDITORIAL FUNCTIONS.

Mr. Gladstone has written to the Hon. Lloyd Bryce a brief account of his recollections of the late Mr.
Thorndike Rice, editor of the North American Review (says the London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian). The right hon. gentleman writes:—"The character of editor as such is comparatively modern. It meets a manifest want of modern society, and the duty of the editor is to select and compound for a very large portion of modern communities a main part of their staple mental food. I at once perceived, or seemed to myself to perceive, that Mr. Rice possessed in a very remarkable degree the gifts required for the effective discharge of the function of an editor. In another point of view," continues the right hon. gentleman, "I view the career of Mr. Rice with interest and respect. Mr. Rice was, as I understand, a man of independent fortune, and being such he nevertheless gave himself to a laborious occupation. The growth of a class of rich men would, in my opinion, be a great misfortune to America, as it must be to any other country, and I take it as a sign of a mind aspiring to public virtue when the rich man frankly and practically owns himself to be amenable to the common lot of honorable duty and labor."

Every man is "hunting for a girl" until he is married. Then he takes a rest and his wife begins.
The Los Angeles and Pacific Railroad was on Sept. 10th placed in the hands of W. S. Spilman, as receiver, by order of the Superior Court, on an order asked for by the Bank of California. The bank holds claims against the concern for over $12,000. The company has spent about $950,000. The road is not paying interest on the investment.
The tracks extend from Los Angeles to Santa Monica, and there is a branch to Burbank.

THE BUS DRIVER AS ART CRITIC.

The pride of East-enders in their palace is illustrated by an incident told to the London correspondent of the Manchester Examiner by an American lady now in London. The latter, with true American energy, was doing the East-end on the top of a bus, when, noticing a placard above the People's Palace, she remarked, "We must go there before we leave London." To her surprise, the driver put in "Ay, do, miss; there's a fine exhibition of pictures on there just now," and he straightway produced for my American friend's edification a long description of the pictures from a daily paper, taking part in the conversation "just like a human being," remarked my informant.

Rear Admiral Henry Fairfax, C.
B., R. N., having been appointed a Second Lord of the Admiralty, is succeeded as commander-in-chief of the Australian naval station by Rear Admiral Lord Charles T. Douglas Scott, C. B., R. N. Lord Scott commanded the Bacchante, with the Prince of Wales' sons as midshipmen on board, when that vessel visited Australia in 1881, and in 1883 visited the country again and married a daughter of Mr. Charles Ryan, of Melbourne, stock and station agent.
