FATAL ENDING.
Maurice Adler died early Sunday morning from the cause reported in Saturday's issue—lockjaw produced by wounds in the hand from an exploding Chinese bomb. The funeral which took place at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon was largely attended, the house of the afflicted family on Nuuanu street being unable to contain the assemblage. A deputation of the G. A. R., of which the bereaved father, Mr. L. Adler, is a member, attended. Maurice was about 21 years old. He had served an apprenticeship as a typesetter in the Bulletin office some years ago, then made a few trips to sea between here and the Pacific Coast. Since returning home to stay where he had worked at his trade whenever there was an opening—his last engagement having been on this paper during the late holiday pressure. In keeping New Year's eve with other lads he was setting off a bomb that had missed fire, when it exploded in his hands with the sad results already mentioned. Maurice was cheerful in disposition and a willing worker.
The Bulletin would here tender heartfelt condolence with the afflicted father and family.

"Lave a hoi!" (Take and own it.)
"Veni, vidi, vici!"

The Hawaiian Islands were discovered by Getiano, a Spanish navigator, in 1542. The independence of these islands was recognized by the United States in 1829, and more formally in 1843, by Belgium in 1844, and by England and France later in the same year.—S. F. Call.

A CHINAMAN, Ah Fook, was disturbed in the act of enjoying an opium smoke by police officers yesterday.
He was taken in charge and hustled off to the Station. On the way Ah Fook attempted to bribe the officers, but it was no go. The officer gave it away at the Station, consequently John has been charged with bribery.
Both charges will be heard to-morrow.

DEATH OF A KAMAAINA.
We have to record the death of Mr. George Charman, who passed quietly away from us at Koloa, Kauai, on Jan. 5th at 10 minutes to 4 a. m.
Mr. Charman, or "Old Keoki," as he was familiarly called by the natives, was born at Shoreham, Sussex, England, on May 2nd, 1814, and came to Lahaina, Maui, having been picked up in an open boat with a few others who have since passed away. He was one of the crew of the whaler James Corwin, which vessel was set on fire by the colored cook, who, after having set fire to the ship, cut his throat and was thrown overboard by some of the crew.

There are no doubt a good many yet who can recall the many stories told by Old Keoki, and we feel assured that he will be deeply lamented by all who knew him. His generosity was boundless and he will be greatly missed at Koloa, where he has left a widow, one daughter, Mrs.
Lydia A. B. Miller, and two sons, Henry and William, and 19 grandchildren. His death was occasioned by pneumonia. He was not long a sufferer, however, being taken sick on Wednesday, Dec. 30th, and was ill only a week to the time of his death.
We believe he came to the islands somewhere about 1837 or 1838, and was about 55 years on the islands, having spent nearly all his life at Koloa. Old Keoki comes from a long-lived family and only last Wednesday week he received a letter with a lock of hair from his brother, who now glories in his 92nd year.
Although not a member of the church, he followed it regularly and his pocket was ever open for its good purposes. J. H. C.
Koloa, Jan. 8, 1892.

FOR ABUSE OF ALCOHOL
Use Horsford's Acid Phosphate.
Dr. W. B. CRANE, Mitchell, Dak., says: "It has proven almost a specific for this disorder; it checks the vomiting, restores the appetite, and, at the same time allays the fear of impending dissolution, that is so common to heavy drinkers."

NATIVE SONS NOMINATE.
The Candidates Announced at a Public Meeting.
A nominating convention was held by the Native Sons of Hawaii at their hall, Queen and Nuuanu streets, Saturday evening. Thirty-seven members were present, including Hon.
Cecil Brown, who took an active part in the discussion. The meeting was called to order at 7 o'clock by Vice-President Samuel Mabelona. Mr.
J. K. Kaula was elected secretary and performed that function. The chairman stated the object of the assembly, v. z., the nomination of candidates.

The nominations for Nobles, after a discussion of one hour, resulted as follows:—
J. A. Cummins, 6 years,
S. M. Kaaukai, 6 years, J. N. S. Williams, 6 years, Juo. Eua, 4 years,
A. P. Peterson, 2 years.
The names of C. B. Maile and Paul Neumann were strongly repudiated.

J. N. S. Williams received a nomination after a severe struggle. When his name was first brought before the meeting, it failed. After two or three attempts, however, and strong argument on the part of Messrs. Cecil Brown and W. C. Achi, he received the nomination.

On motion the nominees for Nobles were unanimously adopted as a whole.
Cecil Brown moved the consideration of Representatives, and nominated J. Heleluhe for Ward 1.
Frank K. Archer was also nominated. Before balloting the latter nominee stated that he was not aware of any nomination until seeing his name in the paper. He had intended to run as an independent candidate however and should he fail to receive their sanction he would not change his mind, but run and depend on both whites and natives for election.
The election of Representatives resulted as follows:—
Ward 1—Frank K. Archer.
Ward 2—J. K. Kaula (unanimously).
Ward 3—B. F. Dillingham (unanimously).
Ward 4—S. K. Aki.
Ward 5—W. C. Achi.

R. Makalulapa was also a nominee for Ward 4, but declined to run, stating that it was not a matter to be trifled with, but should receive a full and earnest consideration. His motto was, "Look before you leap," and while doing so, a presentation of failure had occurred to him. The speaker did not think himself capable of wrestling with the issues of the day, and feeling that he would not be successful at the polls he would retire. Another reason why he declined to run was the fact that there were three other Hawaiians running in the same ward, and he felt that it was not right that a Hawaiian should try to down a countryman. It would leave a loophole for a foreigner to walk in and take the laurels. He had also heard a rumor to the effect that a hale intended to run as an independent candidate in the same ward.
W. C. Achi said the previous speaker as a coward having fed from the cannon's mouth he would nominate a brave young man—Enoch Johnson.

E. Johnson declined the nomination, as he expected to receive one from some district he did not mention.
Messrs. Poepeo and Achi made motions that the ward be left undecided, as both nominees were Wilcox men. Over-ruled.

There were three tickets for road board; the following ticket, however, received the sanction of the assemblage:—
S. Mabelona,
S. C. Dwight,
A. Fernandez.

The two other tickets were: S. C.
Dwight, H. von Holt and J. Bowler; R. Lishman, H. von Holt and J.
Bowler.

W. C. Achi asked that the Sons adopt the platform of the Kalaiaina and Mechanics' Union, with a slight revision of Article 14.
On motion of C. Brown the request was over-ruled, and the meeting adjourned at 10 o'clock.

SUPREME COURT—JANUARY TERM.
The Queen vs. Hai, liquor selling.
Appeal from Police Court, Honolulu.
The jury after quite an absence appeared without a verdict, having disagreed. They were discharged and the case continued till next term.
Wo Sun vs. Kahakuakoi (w.).
Assumpsit. Appeal from Police Court of Honolulu. It appearing from the record that defendant had defaulted, it was considered an error on the part of the Police Justice to allow the appeal. The case was ordered stricken from the calendar. J.
A. Magoon for plaintiff.
B. Kaana vs. J. Mana. Assumpsit.
Appeal from Dole, J., at chambers.
The trial is taking place to-day. W.
C. Achi for plaintiff; F. M. Hatch for defendant.

THERE IS NONE BETTER.
Dr. R. L. St. John of Howland, Putnam county, Missouri, takes especial pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, because he knows it to be reliable. He has used it in his practice for several years, and says there is none better.
It is especially valuable for colds and as a preventive and cure for croup.
This most excellent medicine is for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents.

CARD OF THANKS.
Mr. L. Adler and family desire to convey their warmest thanks to the many friends who kindly assisted them and sympathized with them in their late affliction.

SMALL POX.
The Lethal Disease is Brought to Honolulu by Two Steamships from Japan.
After the Japanese immigrant steamer Yamashiro Maru had been quarantined within the harbor twenty-four hours, two cases of small pox were discovered on board of her Sunday morning.
Mr. C. B. Reynolds, agent of the Board of Health, was on board engaged in fumigating the ship when he discovered the first case. A man supposed to belong to the crew was found suffering from confluent small pox.
Dr. Trousseau, port physician, on going aboard for a further inspection, discovered another case of the disease. President Dayton of the Board of Health then gave orders to have the steamer removed outside the harbor. Captain Young replied to the orders by stating that the ship could not steam out for twenty-four hours, as the engine had been partly dismantled for repairs.
All the cabin passengers as well as the immigrants had been landed at the Quarantine Grounds on Saturday.
President Dayton undertook that the immigrants should discharge the cargo, and the steamer is now advertised to sail for Yokohama on Wednesday at noon.
This morning the P. M. S. S. Rio de Janeiro arrived from Hongkong and Yokohama and anchored in the roadstead. She like the Yamashiro Maru presented a clean bill of health, but Dr. Trousseau discovered a Chinese woman in the steerage down with smallpox. The patient is a passenger for this port, accompanied by her mother and a sister. The sister is in a doubtful state as to having smallpox.
The Board of Health had a meeting to consider the situation this forenoon. It was attended by all the members at present in the city—Hons. David Dayton, President; Sam'l Parker, J. O. Carter and John Eua—with Hon. C. N. Spencer, Minister of Interior and President of the Board of Immigration, and Dr.
Trousseau, in consultation.
The Board decided to offer the steamer, through her agents, Messrs.
H. Hackfeld & Co., the following conditions: If she remain to land passengers and freight, the ship to be placed in quarantine therewith for 18 days. If she only remain to discharge freight, the men employed in the work of discharging to be quar-antined for 18 days. The sick to be landed in quarantine if desired, according to the law of nations.
As this paper goes to press, it has been decided, on the part of the steamer, to choose the alternative of proceeding on the voyage. The agents could not undertake to get workmen who would be willing to go into quarantine for 18 days. Mails were to have been landed, and fumigated before delivery at the postoffice. The sick girls and their mother were to be landed at the Quarantine Station, and the steamer leave without delay for San Francisco.
The Rio de Janeiro has on board about 500 Chinese and 100 Japanese passengers, together with 500 or 600 tons of freight, intended for this port. All will be taken on to San Francisco.

NOTICE.
I REG leave to notify the public that I have started a horse shoeing shop at No. 81 King street, next to Wright & Sons' carriage factory, where I will be glad to meet my old friends and new ones also. We make a specialty of first-class horse shoeing. We want to stop interfering and can help all lame horses.
