THE DAILY BULLETIN.

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party, But Established for the Benefit of All.

THURSDAY, JULY 20, 1893.

THAT INSCRIPTION.

It is no wonder Minister Blount was angry, when an emissary of the Annexation Club's organ went to him, with the falsehood that, "The royalists are bragging on the streets that you signed your name to that inscription," meaning the inscription on the gold-headed cane presented to Col. Claus Spreckels by some of the "doomed men" who, according to correspondence inspired and written by annexationists, which was published in San Francisco papers, were to be murdered by members of the "Citizens' Reserve" in a certain contingency. Instead of bragging as alleged, the contributors to the cane took particular pains to make known that the owners of several of the inscribed names knew nothing about the matter. There were more on the list than the Queen and the Minister who were kept out of the secret until after the work was done. The BULLETIN was asked first to keep the names of the Queen and the Minister out of print, as they had nothing to do with the gift, and when the answer was made that historical accuracy required all the names published in San Francisco as prospective victims of the annexation mafia, or else none at all, the next request was that none of the names be published in connection with the presentation. This was complied with by this paper's giving a simple reference to the previously republished list. While it may have been injudicious to have placed the full list on the cane, instead of merely the names of the subscribers to the gift, yet the inscription did not indicate that the case was presented by all those whose names were engraved. Neither the word "by" nor "from," usual in such cases, was employed. The main point is as to where the list originated. There is where the insult was committed, and not in the transcription of the names for what was meant as a pleasant practical joke on Col. Spreckels. The list was originally furnished to the Associated Press of the United States by its Honolulu correspondent, who gave as his authority "a member of the Citizens' Reserve." At the time the letter containing the list was forwarded, the Associated Press was represented here by Mr. Paul Cowles, who has since left by the steamer Warrimoo. For some time before Mr. Cowles left, his successor had his commission, and we believe collaborated with him in getting up the Associated Press correspondence. That successor is the editor of the Advertiser, who previous to his taking the Associated Press represented the San Francisco Call here. The Call and the Bulletin being twins get the same correspondence, and it was from the Bulletin that this paper copied the account of the organization of the murder gang. There is therefore strong reason for believing that the editor of the Advertiser, who this morning devotes more than a column to a strained denunciation of the alleged insult to the American Minister, was himself at least privy to the original publication of the dastardly threat against the Minister, in the following words, here reproduced from the San Francisco Bulletin:

It is said also that the ex-Queen and Claus Spreckels will be disposed of, and some of the extreme radicals go so far as to say that if Minister Blount interferes in any fight that may occur he also will be shot down.

Talk about threats after that! But the unmitigated gall of one of the annexationist correspondents, who have been doing their dirtiest to discredit and slur Minister Blount in dreary screeds, from the very day he landed here as special Commissioner and refused all party favors, could no further go than the following from his article of this morning:

The treatment of former American ministers, however, has been repeated; and now there is no reason for concealing the truth that sooner or later Mr. Blount will be subjected to all the slander and indignity heaped upon his predecessor, if he continues to refuse to become a partisan of the royalist cause.

But the rare impertinence of the citation just made is exceeded by the ostrich-like stupidity of the following sentences:

The present case is aggravated by the evident duplicity which accompanied its carrying out. The list of names is to be used abroad as a political endorsement of the anti-annexation sentiment represented by Claus Spreckels, and all hint to the contrary has been carefully excluded from both the presentation and its publication. It was done intentionally, and the return of the Australia will bring the proof of this infamous duplicity in the files of the American press.

"The list of names" has already been used abroad but not by the anti-annexationists, and the nine days wherein the matter might have been food for sensation has long since expired. Whatever mischief the inclusion of the American Minister's name in a list of objects of assassination may have involved "abroad" has by this time been wrought, and the entire vile responsibility for such mischief rests on the annexationist correspondents of the foreign press in Honolulu. The inscription on the souvenir stick of Col. Spreckels will only display the grim sense of humor possessed by the donors, showing that they are rather good fellows, who deserve a better fate than being made billets for the bullets of assassins.

Pugilism.

EDITOR BULLETIN:— It does not look right for you to describe the Barrowich-Cunningham glove contest as something horrible to contemplate. Both men rode back to town in the same hack, and were around together next morning treating their friends. Professional pugilism in these days consists principally in scientific taps, not brute force. Preachers, editors and all like to have their sons taught the manly art. The so-called fight at Waikiki was with soft gloves. Wherefore does the kick come in?

New Departure in Shirts.

Having made arrangements with an extensive shirt manufacturing company in San Francisco, Mr. Goldberg is now prepared to show a large and well assorted line of samples in White Shirts, both for full dress and ordinary wear; also in fine Madras (Ethos, Percalés, Flannels, and fine French Piques. A call will convince you that it will pay to have your shirts made to order at popular prices.

The Zambesi.

It is reported, says the Hongkong Telegraph, that the steamship Zambesi which left Hongkong on July 5 for Kobe to be surveyed with a view to sailing to a Japanese firm for $89,000, will regularly between Japan and Honolulu, a line of very great promise, a fact that Mr. F. Upton, former owner of the Zambesi, will be her agent in Kobe.

COURT CHRONICLE.

Damage Suits—Lahaina Church Trouble—Changes of Rooms.

Thomas W. Rawlins is suing the Honolulu Soap Works Company at law for the rights he failed to establish at equity.

Thomas Nott sues C. T. Gulick as guardian of A. A. Doiron for board, lodging and services rendered.

E. C. Crick has entered suit for damages for false arrest against Marshal Hitchcock. His claim is based on the recent conspiracy arrests.

C. A. P. Gardner and Lau Chuck severally are seeking damages against the Marshal and Capt. Juen for alleged unlawful search of domicile.

The Lahaina church trouble has been taken into the Circuit Court by the Hawaiian Evangelical Association. Judge Keopikoi went to Lahaina to hear the case, but granted a continuance until August 2, at the request of the prosecution, to await the presence of Rev. O. P. Emerson.

Hereafter Circuit Court Judges and clerks will have to pay their own traveling expenses and board, as the Clerk of the Judiciary Department has notified that there is no appropriation allowing such expenditure from the public treasury. The dais, drapery and emblems are being removed from the front of the Legislative Hall to the upstairs courtroom.

The Legislative Hall, formerly the principal Supreme Court room, having been transformed into military barracks, the main hall of justice will henceforth be the upstairs courtroom, which has been used while the Legislature occupied the room first-mentioned. An additional courtroom, for chamber hearings, is being made of the late P. G. council chamber, formerly the Hawaiian Government Library and Museum, and later in succession occupied, respectively, by the clerks of the Foreign and Attorney-General's departments.

The former office of the Minister of Foreign Affairs will be occupied by Judge Cooper. That of the clerks of the Foreign Office will be occupied by Judge Whiting. The large office near the head of the stairs, now occupied by Judges Whiting and Cooper, will be taken by the Attorney-General for use in his capacity of a judicial officer.

Juries will be consigned to the tower room to cogitate on their verdicts. It is a snug and warm apartment where there will be no fear of the law and evidence freezing on their hands.

These changes all being accomplished, the whole upper floor of Aliolani Hale will be occupied by the Judiciary Department.

AT IT AGAIN.

More Kicking at the Hawaiian National Band.

Since the formation of the Hawaiian National Band, the meeting place for practice has been at Aylett's on Fort street. This forenoon the band assembled as usual at Aylett's to practice the music to be performed at their next concert to be given at the Hawaiian Hotel to-morrow evening.

They had not been playing very long when Mr. Lightfoot, teacher at the Fort-street School, turned up and informed the band that their playing so distracted the attention of the youngsters from their lessons that they must stop playing. As the band has been practicing now continuously for three months at the same place, and as the Fort-street scholars get their holidays to-morrow, the band thought it was very small potatoes for the teacher to come and kick. However, being willing to oblige, the band stopped practicing. The concert at the Hotel is consequently off, and the public will be deprived from listening to the band's fine playing.

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhoea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it, as it did for me what it was recommended to do. John Hertzler, Bethel, Berks Co., Pa. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. "German Syrup"

A Farmer at Edom, Texas, Says:

"We are six in family. We live in a place where we are subject to violent Colds and Lung Troubles. I have used German Syrup for six years successfully for Sore Throat, Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Pains in the Chest and Lungs, and spitting-up of Blood. I have tried many different kinds of cough Syrups in my time, but let me say to anyone wanting such a medicine—German Syrup is the best. That has been my experience. If you use it once, you will go back to it whenever you need it. It gives total relief and is a quick cure. My advice to everyone suffering with Lung Troubles—Try it. You will soon be convinced. In all the families where your German Syrup is used we have no trouble with the Lungs at all. It is the medicine for this country." John Franklin Jones.
