

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Ex-Governor A. S. Cleghorn is confined to his home with the grip. George H. Fairchild of Kealia, Kauai, was a passenger by the James Makee this morning.

Squad 8, Citizens' Guard, will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the O. R. & L. depot.

N. S. Sachs tells why his store is thronged. The attraction is reasonable goods at the right prices.

Work has been begun on Mr. Carty's new livery stable, corner of Merchant and Richards streets.

President Dole did not return from Kauai on the steamer James Makee this morning as expected.

Rev. Alex. Mackintosh left by the steamer Iwalani for Kauai yesterday. He expects to return Sunday morning.

James F. Morgan will hold an underwriters' sale of corrugated iron at H. Hackfeld & Co.'s yard at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Inmates of the Queen's Hospital will be regaled with music by the Government band from 3 to 5 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Make no engagement that will keep you from Capt. Cochrane's second lecture for the benefit of the lepers' band, next Saturday evening.

Mechanics' Home, corner Hotel and Nuuanu streets, lodging by day, week or month. Terms: 25 and 50 cents per night; $1 and $1.25 per week.

No one is allowed to sit on the post office steps now. This will do away with a good deal of annoyance caused by loafers sitting in front of post office boxes.

The Woman's Exchange on King street is now open for business. A toothsome lunch sent to the editor to-day is gratefully acknowledged. The pumpkin pie was delicious.

Don't forget the social of the Sons of St. George on next Monday evening, St. George's Eve. Ticket for lady and gentleman, $1, which can be had at the Golden Rule Bazaar.

The notorious Ah On has gone to hotel de Low for six months. He stole a wheelbarrow from a countryman on the day the political prisoners were shipped to Hawaii, and was only seen with it the other day.

United Carriage Company's stand, besides having superior hacks always ready at the call of "290," furnishes fine livery outfits at the shortest notice—good horses and nice carriages, from buggy to wagonette.

G. K. Harrison, practical piano and organ maker and tuner, can furnish best factory references. Orders left at Hawaiian News Co. will receive prompt attention. All work guaranteed to be the same as done in factory.

Sequah still speaks nightly at the Beretania-street armory. Victims of rheumatism should not fail to give him a hearing. This evening the Portuguese band will play at the lecture, and the Quintet Club to-morrow evening.

Samples of Japanese brick are shown in a store on King, near Nuuanu, street. The bricks are smaller than the American standard, but seem to be of good texture. Some builders who have seen them do not think they will find a market here.

If you want your watch repaired. If you want jewelry made up neatly. If you want souvenir spoons, or anything in the jewelry line. H. G. Biart, at C. Gertz's store, Fort street, is your man. He was for ten years the practical watchmaker for Weller & Co.

Michael Davitt, the famous home ruler, will shortly visit Australia, and will return home by way of San Francisco. Irishmen in Honolulu will therefore have an opportunity of seeing their distinguished countryman and perhaps getting a speech from him.

Lieutenant Ernest Renken of the mounted patrol was busy to-day selecting horses in the rear of J. I. Dowsett's office for the patrolmen from a brood brought from Dowsett's country ranch. The animals have to be in first-class condition and stand a certain height. The patrolmen buy their own animals and their own uniforms.

Wray Taylor, secretary of the Board of Immigration, is going to the Coast by an early steamer for a month's vacation. For fifteen years Mr. Taylor has toiled vigorously as a newspaper reporter and then as a Government clerk, all the time attending to the duties of organist in St. Andrew's Cathedral, and taking a very active part in various musical organizations. None of his numerous circle of friends will grudge him his well-earned respite from toil.

QUEEN'S HOSPITAL

Change of Ward Fees—Report of Physicians.

The quarterly meeting of the board of trustees of the Queen's Hospital was held this morning in the chamber of commerce.

A resolution of condolence was passed on the death of Charles L. Carter, who was a member of the board, and it was decided that a letter be addressed to the family conveying the heartfelt sympathy of the board.

John Esa was elected to the vacancy to serve the balance of the term as trustee.

It was voted that a daily rate of $1.25 be charged ward patients for their maintenance. This will take effect from the first of May.

C. P. Iaukea, Tom May and C. M. Cooke were appointed as a visiting committee.

The physicians' quarterly report, which is appended, was accepted:

HONOLULU, March 31, 1895.

To the Trustees of the Queen's Hospital:

GENTLEMEN:—We have the honor to present the following report for the four months ending March 31, 1895. The number of patients at present in the Hospital is 65, viz: 32 Hawaiians (20 males, 12 females), 2 Chinese, 3 Japanese, and 28 of other nationalities; 30 paying.

The number of admissions during the four months was 188, viz: 88 Hawaiians (59 males, 29 females), 9 Chinese, 15 Japanese, and 76 of other nationalities.

Discharged 180, viz: 99 Hawaiians (65 males, 34 females), 9 Chinese, 18 Japanese and 54 of other nationalities.

Deaths 14, viz: 7 Hawaiians (6 males, 1 female), 3 Japanese and 4 of other nationalities.

The causes of death were as follows: Abscess of kneejoint, embolic pneumonia, enteric fever 1, general paralysis 1, gunshot injury of brain 1, injury to spinal cord 1, intestinal hemorrhage 1, pericarditis 1, peritonitis 1, pneumonia 3, remittent fever 1, tuberculosis 1.

Of the above 2 died within twenty-four hours and 6 within 3 days of admission.

The highest number of indoor patients was 75, lowest 53, daily average 62. Number of prescriptions, 518.

The number of patients treated in the Hospital has been 452, viz: December, 1894, 124; January, 1895, 105; February, 110; March, 113.

Respectfully submitted,
C. B. Wood,
Attending Surgeon.
CHAS. B. COOPER,
Attending Physician.

SENTENCE FOR EXTORTION.

Ex-Officer Parker is Hauled Up Again and Goes to Jail.

George I. Parker, the board of health agent who was discharged from custody yesterday afternoon, was re-arrested later for extorting $25 from a Japanese while acting as agent for the government. Parker was tried in the District Court to-day, found guilty as charged, and sentenced to three months' imprisonment at hard labor. He noted an appeal. Parker's defense was that he sold the woman a bed for which she paid him $8. That was all the money that passed between them.

Another Japanese woman, however, seems to have been a witness to the extortion and the case was considered by the court as proved.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS

Hearing in Equity—Bankruptcy of Kwong Hop Lung Co.

Elizabeth Moorhead vs. David Dayton, trustee, and others, was argued and submitted before Judge Cooper to-day. Hartwell for plaintiff; Kinney for defendant.

Before Judge Cooper four creditors proved claims against Kwong Hop Lung Co. bankrupt, amounting to $2824.72, and the creditors having failed to elect an assignee, the Court appointed William Goodness of Wailuku as such under $500 bond.
