RESTORED TO HEALTH

BY THE USE OF

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Mrs. M. A. Cumming, of Yarraville, Victoria, Australia, says:

"About a year ago, I had a severe attack of Influenza, which left me very weak, without energy, appetite, or interest in life. Obtaining little or no relief from doctors, or from the many remedies recommended to me, I finally tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and from that time, I began to gain health and strength.

I continued the treatment until fully recovered, and now have very great pleasure in telling my friends of the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and the happy results of its use. I consider it the best blood-purifier known."

THE POLICE COURT.

Fined $100 for Selling Liquor Without a License.

Only seven cases appeared on Judge Perry's calendar this morning, five of which were put off until future dates. The other two, however, took up all of the morning session and His Honor did not have as easy a time as the shortness of the calendar would lead him to expect.

Hirschman is the name of the steward of the Mariposa who got left. Malia Barber, a lady residing on the corner of Merchant and Alakea streets with her daughter, testified that when she got home this morning between 1 and 2 o'clock she found a horrid strange man in her bed. He was undressed and sleeping the sleep of the innocent. She did not scream or go into hysterics but she did telephone to the police station to have the intruder removed, which was done in the prompt and efficient manner, for which Captain Parker's men are gaining an enviable notoriety.

In his own behalf defendant testified that he was the steward of the Mariposa, that he came ashore yesterday and fell in with Ziegler's boys, the result being that he became somewhat under the influence of liquor. Whether this is the natural result of "falling in" with Ziegler's boys the record does not show. The defendant next related how tired he was and that he wanted to seek his couch. A friend of his had promised him a bed in a house on Queen street. After trying the King street house and not being able to gain an entrance, to use his own words, "he become induced to think" that Malia Barber's house was the house of his friend, and went in and went leisurely to bed. Whether he did this as a result of coming in contact with Ziegler's boys or not he did not say. He wound up his testimony with these words: "Imagine my surprise when an officer awoke me and I found that I was sorry for the occurrence and tender an apology to the lady."

Whether moved by this tale of woe or not the Court found him guilty, but sentence was postponed until moved on by the prosecution.

A. Marques is an individual who keeps a store in Pauoa Valley where he has accumulated shekels enough to hire W. A. Kinney to defend him against the charge of selling liquor without a license on which he was tried this morning. What with paying his lawyer and the $100 fine and costs, which His Honor charged up to him in behalf of the Republic of Hawaii, Mr. Marques' profits on groceries will not be as large this month as they otherwise would have been.

Kakaio, charged with feloniously stealing, taking and carrying away all at once the sum of $12, the property of J. Silva, will have his hearing to-morrow morning.

When Others Fail

Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the shattered system by giving vigorous action to the digestive organs, creating an appetite and purifying the blood. It is prepared by modern methods, possesses the greatest curative powers, and has the most wonderful record of actual cures of any medicine in existence. Take only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or gripe. 25c.
