There is a laborers' strike at Panama.

The Italian mafia in Louisiana is doing more murder.

The Y. M. C. A. building at Washington has burned down.

Senator Bland is being boomed by Silver Democrats for the presidency.

A settlement of Italian laborers at Omaha, Nebraska, is on the verge of starvation.

Proposals for six light draught gunboats have been issued by the Navy Department.

Ex-President Harrison is deemed certainly in the race for the presidential nomination.

In a flurry in the Chicago wheat pit the price jumped from 68½ cents to 72½ cents for September delivery.

Brazilian gypsies are making general disturbance and many thefts in New Jersey. They are on their way to California.

The yacht Valkyrie III. was to sail for New York last Saturday.

English yachtsmen are confident she will be able to beat the new American yacht.

It is charged that the treasury officials, in efforts to keep down the deficit in anticipation of Congress, are holding back five millions due for sugar bounties.

Republicans are charging members of the administration and their subordinates with taking junketing trips in the guise of inspection tours at the expense of the national treasury.

James J. Corbett, while training at Asbury Park, New Jersey, for his fight with Fitzsimmons, was severely injured by a fall from his bicycle. It is settled that the fight will come off at Dallas, Texas, October 31.

A decision by Judge Ross of California holds that the use of water for irrigation purposes is a private and not public use. Mr. Wright, author of the irrigation law knocked out by the decision, does not believe the decision will stand.

Southern Democrats are trying to work a third term boom for Cleveland. General Wade Hampton says if there is to be much splitting up of parties, conservative Democrats would want to run Cleveland and many Republicans would heartily join them.

Charles and Fred Kindling, brothers, aged 17 and 19 respectively, are under arrest in Washington State for murdering Ransome Stokes, a wealthy old farmer, for his money at his home near Sunnydale. Both have served terms in the penitentiary.

A number of settlers in Nebraska have been arrested for conspiring to oppose United States forces with arms. Captain Beck, who swore out the warrants, had his command fire a volley into the camp of the "Penderites," as the rebellious settlers are called. They are charged with purchasing arms to forcibly invade the reservation.

A motion for a change of venue was to be made on the 25th, in the case of Durrant charged with the Emmanuel Baptist Church murders. Women are prohibited from presenting the prisoner with flowers, with the single exception of his mother whose belief in his innocence cannot be shaken. Two women said they had traveled 80 miles to get a look at him.

ON THE WARPATH.

Serious Indian troubles have arisen in the West. The braves want revenge for Indians killed by deputy constables. Four troops of cavalry have been ordered to the Jackson Hole country. Cattlemen are afraid to leave their ranches and it is not safe for white men to go out alone.

It is estimated there are 20,000 elk and many antelope in the Jackson Hole country, and it is the only locality in the United States where moose are still to be found. Indian Agent Teters thinks the country should be added to the Yellowstone national park.

Seventeen Bannock Indians were arrested for breaking the gaming laws of Wyoming. They undertook to fight their way free again, when every one of them was killed excepting one papoose. In their camp 133 fresh elk skins were found. It is for the death of these that the braves have resolved on a war of revenge.

A HUMAN FIEND.

A coroner's jury at Toronto, Canada, found that Alice Pietzel came to her death by the hands of H. H. Holmes, alias Midgett, alias Holmes. The case goes direct to the Attorney-General's department without the intervention of a magistrate, the first time this has happened under the new criminal code of Canada. Holmes is in the States and an application for his extradition will be made at once. He is supposed to have murdered several people after getting their lives insured. Part of his villainy was conducted in Chicago, where, under a building he occupied, a lot of human bones have been dug up, far decayed apparently by the action of quicklime. Several persons are in the hands of the authorities at Chicago, under more than suspicion that they knew a good deal about Holmes' practices.

THE CUBAN REBELLION.

Spanish troops numbering 1500 under Captain General Campos were surrounded by 4500 rebels near Valenzuela, but forced their way through with a loss of 28 killed and 98 wounded. It is supposed the rebels had more than 50 killed.

The schooner Carrie A. Lane of Gloucester, Mass., was brought to by cannon shots from a Spanish warship and had her papers examined, off Port Antonio, Cuba. The skipper considers the incident a trifle and believes the Spanish captain was within his right.

The Spanish authorities have adopted the severest measures for dealing with the insurgents in some of the Cuban provinces.

ORIENTAL NEWS.

Missionaries had to endure much suffering and some peril in their flight down the Yangtse. They had to stand off pirates with their rifles.

M. Gerard, the French minister at Peking, has secured the issue of an imperial decree ordering the immediate settlement of the Szechuan outrages. Meanwhile the French squadron is patrolling the Yangtse.

Japan demands $37,500,000 additional indemnity as compensation for the retrocession to China of the Liao Tung peninsula.

EUROPEAN ITEMS.

Emperor William is having a good time in Sweden.

A collision with the steamer Ortigia sank the steamer Maria P. near the mouth of the Gulf of Spezzia, Italy. The Maria P.

had 178 passengers from Naples for the River Platte, most of them being emigrants. She went down before her lifeboats could be lowered and few of the passengers were saved. The vessel was cut into on the starboard side for a depth of eighteen feet. On her previous voyage the Ortigia collided with a French steamer in the same locality. Fourteen of the crew of seventeen of the Maria P. escaped in one boat that got clear of the ship. This life boat saved thirty of the passengers.

BRITISH ELECTIONS.

There is no check to the tide of Unionist successes in the British elections. Sir Wilfred Lawson, the temperance champion and radical, had his majority cut down from 771 to 241. There are still 75 districts to hold elections.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.
