HE REFUSED TO TAKE MAIL

AND WAS BROUGHT TO TIME BY THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

The Action of the Board of Health Endorsed by the Chamber of Commerce and others.

The Board of Health held a special meeting this morning to hear the report of the Port Physician relative to the steamship China which arrived off port this morning.

Dr. Fay stated that one death had occurred on board three days since, the cause being given by the steamer's physician as consumption.

It was stated to the Board that the vessel would not take either mails or passengers from this port under written instructions to her captain from the agents in San Francisco. The China had on board 533 passengers for this port and 200 tons of freight which Captain Seabury desired to land.

After some discussion the Port Physician was authorized to select some other physician to accompany him and verify the cause of the demise of the dead passenger before taking any further action.

It was then strongly intimated to the agents of the steamer that unless the vessel's captain determined to take a mail the Board of Health would insist on the China's going into quarantine for a few days on suspicion that the death on board occurred from cholera.

At 1:30 p. m. a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce took place at which P. C. Jones, John Ena, E. D. Tenney, W. W. Hall, H. A. Parmelee, T. J. King, E. Lowers, H. Foeke, C. Bolte, W. F. Allen, E. C. Macfarlane, B. F. Dillingham, J. G. Spencer, T. B. Waity, T. R. Walker, F. M. Swanzy and others were present.

E. D. Tenney acted as secretary.

President Schaefer stated the object of the meeting was to back up the action of the Board of Health and by bringing enough pressure to bear on the captain and agents of the China induce her captain to carry a mail.

E. C. Macfarlane presented a resolution stating that it was the purpose of the Chamber of Commerce to have endeavored to force the China to take a mail, but as the Board of Health had forestalled it in the matter the Chamber of Commerce hereby approved its course in the matter and extended its thanks to the Board for its watchfulness of the mercantile interest. The resolution also stated that the chamber did not propose to submit to such unreasonable treatment.

W. F. Allen seconded the resolution in a few words.

P. C. Jones thought that because the captain of the China did not treat us right was no reason why we should retaliate and make matters worse. If the China refused to take a mail it must be because this was an infected port, and upon that refusal she should be denied a clean bill.

John Ena coincided with Mr. Jones and thought that the Board of Health had the necessary powers to regulate the matter satisfactorily to all parties concerned.

President Schaefer said he had talked with Consul General Mills on the matter, who said that Captain Seabury wanted something to show his owners for disobeying written instructions. Mr. Schaefer thought the resolution of the Chamber would go far towards justifying the captain if he took a mail.

At this juncture a message was received that Captain Seabury had yielded to the wishes of the agents here and would take a mail.

After passing the resolution unanimously the Chamber adjourned.

Old Resident Dies.

Michael C. Kennedy, an old resident, died at the Queen's Hospital this morning. He was a native of Ireland who became a naturalized United States citizen in 1855. Mr. Kennedy was a machinist and worked at his trade here until advancing age compelled him to quit five years ago. He was a widower without children. His wife was a prosperous milliner when they lived in San Francisco some years ago. At death Mr. Kennedy was about 67 years of age. Since giving up the workshop he has been cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Arch. Sinclair at the Central House, whose kindness he returned by taking care of their little grandson. He was quiet and inoffensive. Mr. Sinclair took charge of his burial this afternoon and had some handsome floral compositions to lay on the old man's coffin.

IN THE POLICE PRECINCTS.

A BULL MONDAY IN DISTRICT COURT BUSINESS.

"Happy New Year" Forfeits His Bail - Woo Sin's Optum Case and Other Matters.

Judge Perry had a comparatively easy time of it this morning, and although there were twenty-nine cases on the calendar the leniency of the prosecution materially reduced the number, while many cases went over to future dates.

Woo Sin got into trouble with the Marshal's myrmidons over a little matter of opium and to secure his liberty over Sunday deposited $100 in cash as bail money. This morning he pleaded guilty and received half his deposit back, less a few dollars for costs.

Despite the closing of the saloons on Saturday night there was an array of drunks with more than usually fancy names, including one female, whose biblical name of Martha shows that her sponsors were good people even if their godchild has degenerated from the virtuous example of her namesake. One jovial individual deposited $8 as surety that he would appear this morning and answer to the name of "Happy New Year." This he failed to do and the Republic of Hawaii has eight dollars towards paying the expenses of quarantining the 533 Chinese who arrived today.

Tedzuka paid $2 and costs for the privilege of riding his bicycle without a lamp on Saturday night.

Kean and Charles Antonio both pleaded guilty of selling liquor without a license, but sentence was suspended in each instance.

Four Chinese who told fibs to the guards at the entrance of Puna Valley and thus secured admission to its forbidden precincts yesterday were fined $5 and costs each and will hereafter apply for a permit before locking or quiet place to play dominoes on Sunday.

Price, an inmate of the Reform School, pleaded guilty of running away from that institution, and will be returned thereto with additional penalties.

The assault and battery charge against Ali Crawford was dismissed.

WEBSTER WANTED CLOTHES.

He was advised to Use Tobacco and Become a Slave.

One winter day Daniel Webster wrote to his father from Dartmouth, begging him to send on four yards of stuff to be used in making a warm suit. Old Webster answered in this fashion:

"My Dear Boy: You know that when I sent you to college I had to borrow a dollar to be able to stand the expense. Since then I have had to borrow $4 from as many different parties to repay the original debt. I inclose 2 cents. Take 1 cent and buy a pipe and use the other for tobacco. Smoking breeds contentment; contentment breeds stoicism. And if you are a complete stoic you will not want clothes." — Munsey's Magazine.

The Only Way.

There is a man in Iowa named Surplus. The Cleveland administration ought to secure him at any cost. It will never get a surplus in any other way.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Dr. Ryder was present at the Chamber of Commerce meeting this afternoon.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS.

Chinese Band in Court—Accounts of the Late James Gay's Estate.

Robert Loring by his attorney, E. P. Dale, has filed an answer and cross bill to the divorce suit entered against him. Among other things he alleges that he is out of employment, and that the misconduct of plaintiff has caused him the loss of two situations.

E. C. Macfarlane has entered an ejectment suit, with damages laid at one hundred dollars, against the trustees of the Bishop Estate, for 10,313 square feet of land at Waikiki. Also, a suit against W. F. Allen for 12,250 square feet of land at the same place.

Henry Smith has filed a report as master upon the second and final account of Hermann Foeke, surviving executor of the estate of the late James Gay. Receipts were $9578.41, and payments $6510.99. The master reports the estate as freed from all debts, and the executor as entitled to his discharge. A provision of the will forbids distribution of the estate while any of the seven children live.

Judge Whiting has adjudged L. D. Timmons a bankrupt on the petition of H. Hackfeld & Co., E. Hoffschlaeger & Co. and L. B. Kerr.

Judge Cooper was hearing the Chinese theater alleged nuisance case to-day. A diversion was the playing of the Chinese orchestra as an exhibit in the case, at the instance of Thurston and Robertson, counsel for the plaintiff, Captain J. C. Cluney.

THANKSGIVING PRAYERS.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—In the Friend of this month I notice two editorial references to Bishop Willis and his sermon preached on the occasion of the reopening of the churches on the 22d of September last, which had been closed on account of the prevalence of cholera. It is possible said comments would lead to the impression that the two congregations worshipping in St. Andrew's Cathedral had avoided the usual appropriate thanksgiving prayer upon that fateful occasion. To avoid such impression, I would say that as far as St. Andrew's Cathedral is concerned, such a "grateful acknowledgment of the Divine goodness" was publicly made.

HENRY SMITH,

One of the Church Wardens.

Oct. 7, 1895.

The mail by the China closes at 5 o'clock.

John A. Hassinger, chief clerk of the Interior office, did not come up from Pearl City today.

The Chamber of Commerce held a special meeting this afternoon to take action on the refusal of Captain Seabury of the China to take a mail to the Coast. Details in another column.

Several people who used to send their children to the Puna-hou schools sent them today to the High school. This is probably on account of the recent differences that led to a change of the Puna-hou facilities.

Messrs. Thurston and Robertson kept their promise, bringing the Chinese theatre orchestra in action into evidence before Judge Cooper this morning. Officials from the Chief Justice down left their offices in consternation at the sound. Some thought the Philistines from Frisco were upon them.

Correspondents of the BULLETIN should hand in their communications early in the day to insure publication. All display advertisements should be sent to the business office before noon of each day. Reading and "By Authority" notices may be sent in any time up to 2 p. m.
