HOSPITAL TRUSTEES MEET

AND DISCUSS THE AFFAIRS OF THE INSTITUTION.

Reports of Physicians and Visiting Committee—The Free Admission of Hawaiian Seamen Brought Up.

The adjourned quarterly meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Queen's Hospital, took place at 10 o'clock this morning, twelve of the trustees being present. Rev. Alex. Mackintosh temporarily occupied the chair.

Treasurer Paty made a verbal statement of the financial affairs of the institution for the last quarter, showing that the sum of $6339.59 was due him:

Secretary Schaefer read the report of the visiting physicians for the quarter ending September 30th, as follows:

The number of patients at present in the hospital is 73, viz: 40 Hawaiians (31 males, 9 females) 4 Chinese, 9 Japanese and 20 of other nationalities, including 29 paying patients. The number of admissions during the quarter was 128, viz: 62 Hawaiians [42 males, 20 females], 6 Chinese, 19 Japanese and 41 of other nationalities. The number discharged was 114, viz: 50 Hawaiians [32 males, 18 females] 3 Chinese, 15 Japanese and 44 of other nationalities.

The number of deaths for the quarter was 13, of whom 8 were Hawaiians, (16 males, 2 females), Chinese and 4 of other nationalities. Causes of death were: Apoplexy 2, Carcinoma uteri 1, general dropsy 1, general tuberculosis 1, organic heart disease 1, phthisis pulmonaris 2, pneumonia 1, remittent fever 1, shock following operation 1, thrombosis 1, and uterine fibroid tumor 1. Of the above one died within twelve and one within forty-eight hours of admission.

The highest number of patients in the institution at any one time during the quarter was 85 and the lowest 59, giving a daily average of 69. The number of prescriptions made up during the quarter was 434. In the same period six major and ten minor operations were performed, together with one post-mortem examination. The whole number of patients treated during the quarter was 346, as follows: July 106, August 130 and September 110.

The above report is signed by Drs. Chas. B. Cooper and C. B. Wood and dated September 30th. Ordered filed.

The Visiting Committee made its report, stating that the condition of the hospital as shown by personal visits of the committee members was excellent.

A letter from the Minister of Interior was read, stating that the following had been appointed as government trustees of the hospital, viz: John H. Paty, James I. Dowsett, Bruce Cartwright, J. F. Hackfeld and George W. Smith, their term of office being four years from July 1st. The two latter are new appointees. Communications were received from Drs. Clifford Ryder and Suhrmann, asking to be placed on the list of honorary physicians to the hospital and on motion the requests were granted.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to investigate the matter of admitting Hawaiian seamen to the institution free of charge presented both a majority and minority report, which led to a long discussion. The controversy is as to the term "Hawaiian Seamen." Some advocate that only native born Hawaiians are entitled to free admission under a proper definition of that term, while others maintain that it includes seamen of any nationality sailing on vessels carrying the Hawaiian flag. The controversy is an old one but it bids fair to be finally settled this time. After much discussion the matter was again referred to the committee to obtain more necessary data and statistics.

Messrs. John Ena, J. F. Hackfeld and George W. Smith were appointed a Visiting Committee for the present quarter and at a few minutes before noon the meeting adjourned.

AVERT THE NUISANCE.

Some Calm Reflections on Nuisance Stream and the Harbor.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—In a late issue of the Star it was stated that the Superintendent of Public Works in the course of his soundings along Nuuanu stream had found only soft mud, and that on that account walls could not be constructed properly, nor other improvements carried on in a permanent way. Notwithstanding, with a mud foundation, a loose stone wall is being erected, a most unsightly, and what is worse a merely temporary structure. It is a well established fact that running waters confined in narrow spaces gain in impetuosity and power, and should there happen a wet season with heavy rains that wall would be undermined and collapse. The writer of these lines asserts with sincerity that captious or unfriendly criticism is far from his thoughts. His only desire is to see work done properly, and as a taxpayer to see it done economically and scientifically, as all Government work should be done. The wall from King street bridge to the turn should be built with mortar on a firm foundation, and to get that foundation two or three rows of piling should be driven. In San Francisco some of the largest buildings rest on such a foundation and are there to stay. Whilst it is in order for the Government to own a dredger for the purpose of keeping the harbor clean, all other Government work should be done by contract and bids called for in a business and legitimate way. In that manner the work is done better and cheaper. It relieves the Government of all responsibility, and, most important, it does away with that pernicious thing known as political jobbery. By the time the improvements contemplated are completed the powers that be will have an object lesson in the truth of the above remarks. A writer in the Advertiser states that dredging has been done in the United States for 20c per cubic yard, and that it should be done here for 30c. Dredging has been done in the United States for less than 20c a cubic yard and money made on it, and why it should cost more here the writer cannot see. Wages are no higher, and if it is all soft mud the conditions are more favorable, there being neither shipping nor choppy seas to interfere with dredger or pontoons. But while there is still time the Government should pause ere it make a dumping ground of the city. There is no precedent for such a course. In no part of the civilized world would the health authorities allow sewage to be raised from its slimy bed and spread through a populous district. There is but one paper in the Islands to advocate such a course, and some of the ablest and oldest physicians are opposed to it. In conclusion I would ask the editor of the Star to cease throwing out mean insinuations and innuendoes. They are unworthy of the writer and have no place in honest discussion. He is in favor of harbor improvements. There are few that are not, and let me assure him that in this community there is none more anxious to hear the hum of industry, to see the wheels of progress revolve, the dredger's sloop with the rest, than

IN THE HIGHER COURTS.

W. C. ACHI, THE EX-LAWYER, AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

John C. Lane Backs Out of the Complaint Against His Father—Alfonso Bankrupt.

John C. Lane by his attorney, W. A. Kinney, has withdrawn from the suit to place his father under guardianship, so far as he personally is concerned.

Isabella A. Achi has complained on oath to the Circuit Court that William C. Achi has for seven weeks neglected to pay the $6 a week alimony decreed against him on June 1 of this year. Respondent is cited to appear tomorrow and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt in disobeying the order of the Court. He has filed an answer saying that he continued to pay the alimony as long as he could, that he is disbarred as a lawyer and is in no way to make money, that his property is double-mortgaged to Bishop & Co. and the mortgages are foreclosed, that his bills for provisions are unpaid, that his taxes and water rates are due for two years, that he has a father to support, also an adopted son at St. Louis College, and in general that he is willing to obey the orders of the honorable Court, but is unable financially to do so; further, that complainant last month collected "a big amount of money," being the purchase price of land which was bought by defendant in her name. He says the alimony of six dollars is more than he can stand, and requests that the Court will reduce it to three dollars a week.

Judge Whiting this morning heard argument and took under consideration the bill to set aside a mortgage, brought by C. Busse, assignee in bankruptcy of J. A. Alfonso, against Isabel V. Regentes and J. A. Alfonso. Hatch appeared for plaintiff, and Thurston for defendant. The complaint avers that a certain mortgage made by Alfonso to Mrs. Regentes shortly before his bankruptcy was false and fraudulent. In her answer Mrs. Regentes declares that the mortgage was executed in good faith, that she is a widow unfamiliar with business, and that the money she advanced on the mortgage constituted her entire earthly possessions.

Another bill to set aside a mortgage, connected with the same bankruptcy, Manuel Brianco being the mortgagee, was argued and submitted by the same counsel. Brianco makes a similar answer alleging good faith in the transaction and ignorance of Alfonso's impending bankruptcy.

Judge Whiting has signed an order of default in the suit of the California Wine Co. against John A. Cummins.

George Lucas, master, has been appointed to examine the accounts in the suit of John F. Bowler vs. E. C. Macfarlane and others, in place of C. F. Peterson, master, who resigned and left the country. This is the old Elele newspaper litigation.

An appeal has been taken by plaintiffs in the case of Wong Leong and others vs. W. G. Irwin, the famous Kailua water case, against the decision of E. P. Aikue, Commissioner of Private Ways and Water Rights for the District of Koolau-poko. Hartwell and C. Brown are attorneys for appellants.

Henry Smith, as Commissioner of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, will take depositions in the $50,000 damages suit of Cranston, as well as that of Muller, against the C. A. S. S. Line.

SAMUEL LOUISSON DEAD.

Member of Several Organizations and a Highly Popular Young Man.

Samuel Louisson, one of the most active and popular young men of Honolulu, died about seven o'clock this morning. The cause of death was inflammation of the bowels, the fatal attack coming as a relapse from an illness of some weeks ago. The father of the late Mr. Louisson is one of the senior members of the firm of M. S. Grinbaum & Co., San Francisco and Honolulu. Mr. and Mrs. Louisson are in San Francisco, and not expected to return for six weeks yet. An elder son, Abraham, has been living here for a short time past. Samuel Louisson was 28 years of age, of sturdy build, and seemed to have the promise of a long life. His untimely death causes general sorrow. He was a member of Hawaiian Lodge of Masons, the Myrtle Boat Club and the Pacific Tennis Club, all of which display flags at half-mast out of respect to his memory. "Sam," as he was familiarly called, was characterized by uniform cheerfulness of demeanor and good nature almost to a fault. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at an hour to be announced later.

FAILED FOR A LARGE SUM.

The Pacific Trading Company Closes Its Doors.

Commercial circles were in a flutter of excitement this morning over the failure of the Pacific Trading Company, a large Japanese concern which succeeded to the business of Itohan on lower Fort street a few months ago. The firm was supposed to be doing a large business with the other islands and had connections at Hilo. The liabilities are said to be about $18,000 to $20,000 with two prominent firms as principal creditors in the sums of $3000 and $2000 respectively. The assets of the firm have not yet been made public.

An Elegant Punchbowl.

H. F. Wichman displays in one of his show windows an elegant punchbowl made from a calabash. It is lined inside with silver and has a rim and base of the same metal. Around the widest part of the bowl is an ornamental silver band, containing monograms and the word "Waianae." It is intended to be sent to Germany as a wedding present and is a beautiful specimen of the silversmith's art.

KEPT A DISORDERLY HOUSE.

BUT PRETENDED TO MEND CHAIRS FOR A LIVING.

And Was Fined One Hundred Dollars Therefor—Guilty of Maintaining a Nuisance.

There were only two trials in the District Court this morning, the first being that of Jack Kane, charged with maintaining a common nuisance in the shape of a ferocious dog. John French testified that he had been bitten by the dog on October 4th, while Louis Adler also testified to being bitten by the same dog. The defendant testified in his own behalf together with four of his friends, but Judge Perry found him guilty all the same. Sentence was suspended, as will likely be the earthly career of the dog.

The second case was that of Cha Chong, who ostensibly conducts an establishment for the mending of old chairs on Kawaiahao lane, near the ke-ro-rose warehouse, but in reality rents rooms at 25 cents each for purposes of prostitution. W. S. Edings appeared for the defense. The prosecution had a case on Cha Chong, however, as it produced four witnesses who testified to using the house for immoral purposes, paying 25 cents for rent of the room. Judge Perry found the defendant guilty and fined him $100 and costs. Officer Kapua is entitled to the credit of breaking up this "joint."

The conspiracy case against Ah On and Quan Chan, for putting up an opium job on a felo-country-man, was finished yesterday afternoon in Judge Perry's court. The defendants were both found guilty and sentenced to six months imprisonment and fines of $5 and costs. Pending appeal their bonds were placed at $500 each. No testimony was offered by the defense.
