

EDGAR DISASTER A FACT.

Letter from an Officer on Board Confirms the report.

A Yokohama paper prints the following letter from C. E. Lloyd-Thomas, an officer of H. B. M. S. Edgar, which confirms the brief telegraphic reports of a frightful accident to a large boatload of officers and men. The letter is dated H. M. S. Edgar, Chemulpo, Nov. 15th.

A fearful accident happened the day before yesterday. My company and five officers (that includes Mr. Bruen, Rymer, myself, Hobson and Macworth) were landed on an island for company drill. After finishing drill we marched back to the boat and embarked for the ship; seas began to come in over the bows and she was filling, so we turned round and made for the shore. When about 600 yards off the shore she filled and sank. Nearly everybody jumped overboard at once, but I couldn't, as I was in the bottom of the boat trying to bail out. When she sank I swam clear, and then swam back to get hold of something and found about a foot of the mast sticking up. I held on to that for a short time and then it sank. I then swam about looking for something and saw Hobson with a breaker and joined him, but we found it sinking and we had to look out for something else, and I was just starting to swim for shore when I saw two men with a breaker, so I joined them, and just put my finger through the becket to keep myself afloat until I was picked up by a Russian steamboat. We were in the water 15 minutes, temperature 48, and temp. of air 40. All of the officers were saved, but only 18 men, making only 23, out of 71. I am afraid the men lost their heads completely, for they seemed to let go of things they had hold of. Our poor little drummer was picked up unconscious and died afterwards.

FINEST GRADE OF Hawaiian Blue Stone

Arthur Harrison, Prop. 151-1f

DECEMBER 7, 1895.

In every account of weddings, receptions, anniversaries and dear knows what there is always a description of the floral decorations but never a word about the pots that hold the plants and flowers. There are two reasons for this: One, because the pots are usually such common-place affairs that they are not worth mentioning; the other is because they escape the reporter's eye.

Heretofore there has been only one place in Honolulu where genuine majolica vases for plants could be bought. Now, there are two. Ours is the other one, and we think it is the best because the stock is larger and the assortment more varied. Today is a good time to come down and make your selection.

There used to be only two or three places where you could buy a decorated chamber set and the ones they sold were indifferent as to quality or style; they contained a certain number of pieces and they managed to pretty well cover a wash stand. Ours were selected first for their usefulness and next for their beauty. You never saw their equal in this country and you may never again—the odd shape will strike your fancy and the price, $5 to $12, will settle it so far as you are concerned. There's nothing cheap about them except the price. If you were in the States you would pay twenty dollars for them and never murmur. We don't want the earth but we want your trade.

In the same room with the chamber sets you will notice a lot of whatnot ornaments for holding flowers. Most anyone would appreciate one of them as a gift at this season, because they are pretty and useful, and you will enjoy giving one of them away because they are inexpensive. The assortment is larger than you imagine. If you prefer giving away cut glass and do not feel that you can spend much money buy a piece of English cut glass. It costs about half what the Dordlinger American does, but it is genuine.

We have the Dordlinger too.

MRS. AUG. DARROW.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., GENTLEMEN—I was very much run down, had no appetite at all, was very nervous, had no sleep night or day; to sum it all up, I WAS PERFECTLY WRETCHED. But thanks to Paine's Celery Compound I can now eat and sleep and work just as well as I could before I was taken sick. When I commenced taking the Compound I weighed 136 pounds; I now weigh 158 pounds and do all the work for my family of five. I have recommended the Compound to three families already and they are very much pleased with it. I am now taking my fifth bottle, and would RECOMMEND IT TO ALL WHO ARE SUFFERING WITH STOMACH TROUBLE OR NERVOUS TROUBLE. Yours respectfully, MRS. AUG. DARROW.
