LEGISLATURE IN SESSION.

A FAVORABLE REPORT ON THE MILITARY EXPENDITURES.

Kauiulani Accepts the Situation and Will Likely Receive $2000 Annually from the Republic.

10TH DAY, MARCH 3RD.

THE SENATE.

In the absence of President Wilder, vice-president Kauiulani opened the Senate this morning at the usual hour, a bare quorum being present.

After the usual preliminaries, the clerk reported the receipt of the native copy of the President's message. Ordered filed.

Senator Baldwin presented a report from the Committee on Commerce and Agriculture saying they had had the following items in the Appropriation Bill under the head of "Forests and Nurseries" under consideration: Pay of Commissioner $4800; pay of Professor Koebele $5000; pay of gardener at nursery $2040; pay of forester at Makiki $1800; pay of laborers at Makiki $1800; pay of laborers at nursery $1080. After presenting a long review of the work done by Prof. Koebele and Mr. Marsden during the past two years, the committee recommended the allowance of the amounts given above, with the further recommendation that the pay of the forester at Makiki be increased to $2040. Placed on the table to be considered with the bill.

The Military Committee presented the following report:

"Your committee to whom was referred the Pay Roll of the Military, beg leave to report that they had the same under careful consideration and find as follows:

"That for the last six months of the last two years there was expended under this head a monthly amount of six thousand, five hundred and eighty-one dollars, ($6,581) while the amount asked for this period is one hundred and thirty-six thousand dollars ($136,000) or a monthly average of five thousand, six hundred and sixty-six dollars, ($5,666); showing a reduction of nine hundred and fifteen dollars ($915.00) per month.

"We recommend the passage of the amount asked for in the bill.

J. A. McCANDLESS,
J. N. WRIGHT,
Committee."

Senator McCandless from the special committee on the Kauiulani appropriation presented the following report:

"Your committee to whom was referred the item which the Minister of Finance moved to be inserted in the Appropriation Bill, viz: Pension for Kauiulani, $4000, beg leave to report that we have had the matter under careful examination.

"On investigation, your committee is satisfied that Kauiulani not only would not consent to be a partisan to any scheme for overthrowing the present government, but that she accepts the situation and is friendly to the government.

"We therefore recommend that the item be inserted in the Appropriation Bill.

J. A. McCANDLESS,
H. P. BALDWIN,
F. S. LYMAN."

When the order of the day was called which was the consideration of the appropriation bill, Senator Baldwin moved an adjournment for the day, on the ground that the matters reported on by the committees were too important to be considered with only a quorum of Senators present. The Senator incidentally called attention to the death of John T. Waterhouse and the desire of many of the members to attend the funeral this afternoon. The motion was agreed to and at 10:40 the Senate adjourned.

11TH DAY, MARCH 3RD.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Speaker Naone called the House to order at 10 a. m.

A committee was received from the Senate, announcing the passage on third reading in that body of the legislative expenses bill. Placed on the order of the day.

Rep. Richards reported the laundries and washhouses bill as printed.

Rep. Rycroft reported favorably from the committee on public lands on the petition for a road at Kalala, Kauai. Rep. Kao moved the report be adopted. Carried.

The current accounts bill came up for third reading. It authorizes the Minister of Finance to receive temporary loans from local banks at interest not exceeding six per cent per annum. Rep. Pali moved the bill pass. Carried by unanimous vote on a call of ayes and noes.

The Senate bill appropriating $15,000 for expenses of the Legislature came up for first reading. Passed, and a second time by title, under suspension of the rules, and ordered read a third time tomorrow.

The bill to amend an act entitled "An Act relating to Laundries and Wash Houses" approved August 9, A. D. 1880, came up for second reading. It provides that from and after the date of the publication of this Act every person who shall carry on the business of laundry keeping or washing for hire, within the limits of the city of Honolulu, except in such building as shall be provided for such purpose in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be liable to a fine of fifty dollars for each and every day or part of a day during which he shall so carry on such business, and in default of payment of such fine shall be imprisoned at hard labor until such fine is paid.

Rep. Bond moved that the bill pass.

Rep. Robertson remarked that he understood the Government had erected a new building for washing at Iwilei, to prevent washing in Nuuanu stream.

There was not accommodation, however, for more than half the washermen of the town in the new building. It would be hard to fine or imprison a washerman for washing clothes outside if he could not get room in the public wash house. There ought to be a saving clause in the bill, and he would move to refer it to the committee on public health.

Minister Smith explained that work in erecting new wash houses has been suspended through the giving out of the appropriation. There would be more rooms in the new buildings than there were in the old ones. Of course nobody would be prosecuted, who could not, or before he could, get accommodation in the public wash houses. The Minister spoke of the importance to the public health of abolishing scattered laundries about town.

Rep. Richards thought the objection was met by the bill itself, where it says the Minister may "designate and use for such purposes buildings already erected."

Rep. Davis objected to the terms of the penalty, as the district magistrate might make the fine cumulative on parts of days, so that the offender would be fined $300 for breaches of the law at different hours of a single day.

Minister Smith said the terms were the same as were in the old law, but he would move to insert the words "not exceeding" before "fifty dollars." This amendment carried, and the bill passed as amended, to be read a third time tomorrow.

Minister Smith, on the conclusion of the order of the day, said he wished, as President of the Board of Health and a member of the Government, to express the deep feeling of the Board and the Government over the death of John T. Waterhouse, in view of his able and disinterested public services as a member of the Board of Health. It might not be regarded as a very distinguished position, yet in a long term of years no man had been more faithful. He served without any compensation, at considerable sacrifice of his private interests, and had proved a good and faithful servant. Kindly yet firm, he combined wisdom with sympathy. Mr. Waterhouse has been cut off in the prime of his life, and he deemed it appropriate that mention should be made of such long public services. The members of the House would fittingly mark their esteem for the memory of Mr. Waterhouse by attending his funeral.

Speaker Naone said that although he was not intimately acquainted with the late Mr. Waterhouse, having had more to do with his brother Henry, he knew that the departed gentleman had been a good friend of the native Hawaiians, and he hoped every member of the House would accept the invitation of Mr. Smith to attend his funeral. The members of this House represented the people and it was especially appropriate that the representatives of the people should show their respect for the memory of Mr. Waterhouse.

Rep. Kao was granted leave of absence for the rest of the week. Adjourned at 11 o'clock.

NOTES OF BOTH HOUSES.

Senator Cecil Brown does the interpreting when Vice-President Kauiulani is in the chair.

In an informal discussion in the Senate chamber this morning on the taxes paid by the corporations, Senator Baldwin was forced to acknowledge that the plantation taxes ought to be raised, but he thought some of them were assessed too high.

Senator Baldwin thinks if the period of assessment on growing crops is made on January 1st instead of July 1st that the revenue of the country will be materially increased, while Senators Brown and McCandless insist that the whole system of taxing growing crops is radically wrong. They maintain that the product of the crop alone should be taxed.

CIRCUS POSTPONED.

Benefit Performance to Take Place Thursday Evening.

Owing to the inclement weather the benefit performance this evening by Wirth's circus has been postponed to Thursday evening. Those that have not secured their tickets ought to get them reserved at once, as the program is an excellent and attractive one, and no one should miss the last farewell performance by this meritorious company who departs on the steamer Chiyoda-Maru on Friday. The Young Hawaiian Institute Glee Club and Kawaihan Quintette are hard at practicing some new songs, and a rare treat is in store for those that will attend.

Tickets can be had of the committees and at the following stores: Hobron Drug Co., Thos. G. Thrum, Golden Rule Bazaar, Wall, Nichols Co., also at the gate, but it is advisable to buy your ticket beforehand and avoid the rush.

S. S. Rio de Janeiro.

The City of Rio de Janeiro unexpectedly arrived this morning, 23 days out from San Francisco. On her way to the Orient she encountered very rough weather, and when several hundred miles from Yokohama was compelled to put about on account of heavy gales. Having run short of coal, she was brought to this port.

Owing to the lack of coal, the mizzen-top-mast, the after house on deck, and other combustible things were used for fuel.

The big liner is docked at Pacific Mail wharf, and after replenishing her coal bunkers will continue on her voyage to China and Japan.

While fresh vegetables were being taken aboard, passengers stood at the gangway and watched with envious eyes.

UNITED STATES.

Observations at Yale University Observatory show the comet discovered by Professor Perrine is coming in the direction of the earth, but at an angle to the ecliptic which will bring it far above the earth.

A certificate increasing the capital stock of the Pacific Cable Company from $100,000 to $1,000,000 was filed yesterday in the County Clerk's office of New York. The stock is to be divided into 100,000 shares of the par value of $100 each, and the directors are James A. Seymour, J. Kennedy Tod, Edmund L. Baylie, J. Pierpont Morgan and G. S. Bowdoin.

Edgar W. Nye, better known by his pen name "Bill Nye," the famous humorist, is dead. He was to be buried today (Feb. 25) at the Calvary Episcopal church near Arden, North Carolina. Mr. Nye was a member of this church and a regular attendant whenever he was at home.

Mrs. Mary M. Pickerell has been given the contract for removal of garbage at Denver, Colorado, and there are two women inspectors in the health department. Dr. Annie Marsh of Greeley, Colorado, left her husband a deathbed injunction to deliver her body to the State University for anatomical purposes, and her remains were laid on a dissecting table in the midst of a class of students.

Henry C. Bowen, editor and proprietor of the New York Independent, died yesterday.

Secretary Carlisle has been in conference with New York business men on money matters. He said reports from all quarters showed that the movement for "sound money" was gaining in popular favor.

Judge Henry Reed of Philadelphia died in New York after an operation for catarrh. He was 49 years of age and a son of Henry Reed, a professor in the University of Pennsylvania, who was lost on board the steamer Arctic when she sank off the banks of Newfoundland forty-four years ago after collision with a French steamer.

General Ivan Walker, head of the Grand Army of the Republic, lately visited all of the principal northern cities and found that there was strong opposition to the project to hold a "blue and gray" parade in New York on the Fourth of July.

There are indications that the Vanderbilts are behind Senator Thurston's bill to foreclose the Government mortgage on the Pacific railroads and put the entire system up at auction.

The House sub-committee on naval affairs held a meeting on Monday, but its members would say little or nothing about it. It was gathered, however, that provision would be made for not less than four new battleships, which may be increased to six when the matter comes before the full committee. Members of the committee say that recognition of the Cuban insurgents cannot be much longer delayed, and that this may lead to trouble with Spain.

Salvation Army Trouble.

Ballington Booth was offered the leadership of an independent American Salvation Army. Men whom he had raised up, an officers he had appointed, in all parts of the country, besought him to become their general. "It cannot be," he said. "I thank you, dear friends, for the honor you have tendered me, the confidence and trust you have shown me, but I must decline. Mrs. Booth and I will quietly retire from the army, in which we have labored so long. Goody, and God's blessing rest upon you."

Field commander, Eva Booth, sister of Ballington and third daughter of the General, has been placed by a cable order in charge of affairs in America, and all officers of the army must report to her for the present.

In an address at New York on his retirement, Ballington Booth emphatically denied that he was not dismissed. He was deposed, driven from his office, deprived of his command by persons who claimed higher power from England. With bitter words he named while pointing out his enemies about the headquarters, and in a sharp, ringing tone he closed the list with the word "traitors."

Col. Eddie has issued an order telling who Field Commander Booth is. "The London province, which she has orders to farewell, contains 21,000 soldiers, 350 field officers and from 500 to 700 cadets. She also has charge of the slum brigade. She is a great musician and composer of songs. Besides this she is a fervent and effective platform speaker and a successful soul-saver."

Nevertheless, when she appeared on the platform in New York when her brother was leaving, it is reported: "The American army seemed to have no love for her. The sight of sister opposing brother was not pleasant, and she was interrupted by questions and answers from the audience."

Secular Schools Barred.

The House of Representatives decided, by a vote of 93 to 64, that more of the appropriations for Indian schools should go to sectarian schools. Mr. Linton, a Michigan Republican, led the fight. He avowed himself as an American Protective Association man, and he said the pending bill carried $250,000 for sectarian schools, every dollar of which would go into the coffers of one church. More than 4000 children were educated at these schools, but they would not suffer. The Roman Catholic church could care for its own. It was powerful enough, and had a right to, but not with the public money. Both political parties were pledged to the complete divorce of church and state. Walsh and Sherman of New York, Democrat and Republican respectively, argued in favor of aiding the schools. Sherman declared he was a Protestant but did not believe any church alone pointed the way to heaven.

EUROPE.

The French Senate administered a rebuke to the Chamber of Deputies and to the Cabinet on February 21. It has been accepted in silence by the Chamber. At the session of the Deputies yesterday there was no reference to a constitutional crisis. There was the first sign of opposition to the French's worship of their Russian allies. The Government was interpellated on the proposed outlay of one million francs for the French delegation to the coronation of the Czar. A Socialist Deputy protested against the extravagant expenditure in celebrating a monarchical event. The vote showed only twenty-eight opponents. When the result was declared a Deputy in the center arose and cried: "Behold, there are only twenty-eight Republicans in France." There were some murmurs, but no reply was made to the taunt.
