A TERRIBLE CASE OF ECZEMA

CURED BY
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Mrs. E. Wyatt, of Fort Road, West Hindmarsh, So. Australia, writes of the sad condition of her little daughter, whose portrait she also sends:

"My daughter was afflicted with Eczema of the most aggravated type. The disease first appeared in eruptions on her head, then her hair began to fall out, and in spite of the best medical advice and treatment she grew steadily worse. The sores were full of matter and were extremely offensive. Her eyes became affected, and she was, in truth, in a terrible state. My neighbors were very sympathetic and took great interest in the case. They persuaded me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I am most thankful to be able to say that this wonderful medicine completely restored my daughter's health. She has now as good a head of hair as anyone could wish, her eyes are perfectly well, and she is a fine girl of eight years with every prospect of growing up to be a strong and healthy woman."

LEGISLATURE IN SESSION.

THE SENATE FINISHES UP IN HALF AN HOUR.

The Income Tax Bill Before the House of Representatives—The Annexation Resolution Passed.

SEVENTY-FIRST DAY, MAY 20TH.

THE SENATE.

Minister King announced that the President had signed a number of bills.

A communication from the House reporting the passage of certain bills was read.

Senator Lyman from the Committee on Passed Bills reported a number of bills presented to the President for his approval.

Senator Baldwin from the Committee on Commerce reported back Senate Bill 47 with amendments.

Senator Lyman from the Conference Committee on the bill relating to the extension of streets in Honolulu reported that an agreement had been reached, striking out the section in dispute.

House Bill 48, relating to the military rank of army surgeons, passed the first reading.

Under suspension of the rules the bill was read a second time and referred to the Military Committee.

House Bill 33, defining the course of procedure in condemnation suits under the right of eminent domain, was read the first and second time and referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

House Bill 40, the new foot-binding bill, was read the first and second time and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Senate Bill 47, relating to ports of entry, with the amendment reported by the Committee of Commerce, came up on the second reading. The bill merely substitutes Kailua for Kawaihae as a port of entry. The bill passed as amended and was placed on the order of the day for tomorrow.

At 10:35 the Senate finished up all the business on the table and adjourned.

SEVENTY-THIRD DAY, MAY 20TH.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Minister King reported that the President has signed the bills relating to the penalties and definition of the crime of larceny, malicious injury, assaulting an officer, perjury, vagrancy and the fire limit act.

Rep. Richards reported House Bill 21, promoting fencing, and the House resolution relative to the Great Seal as having been presented to the President.

The committee on Public Lands, through Rep. Rycroft, reported favorably on Senate Bill No. 45, referring to the extension and widening of certain streets in Hilo.

Rep. Bond, for the committee on Public Health, recommended the passage of the bill condensing and rearranging the laws relative to the conduct of the public schools, and placing private schools under a certain amount of jurisdiction by the government.

The Senate committee on House Bill No. 6 informed the House that they had reported unfavorably on the House amendment to the Bill, and recommend that it be stricken out. This is the bill providing for street extension in Honolulu, and the amendment referred to reads as follows: "Provided that the amount of damages (to be paid by the government) does not exceed the betterments in the opening of any such street, etc."

From the wording of the report which is extremely obscure, the conclusion is drawn that the Senate committee conclude, as was the case in the House, that it is practically impossible to accurately gauge the amount of benefit to be derived from the extension of a street.

House Bill 47, relating to the practice of medicine and surgery and repealing Sec. 2 of Chapter 59, Penal Code, passed third reading.

A discussion, which at one time promised to be somewhat heated, over the resolution favoring annexation, followed, about half the members taking part. Several of them stated that they looked upon the matter of sending an unlimited number of resolutions to the United States in reference to the matter of annexation as very much of a cusemat. Nevertheless, the motion to take up the resolution and act upon it carried. The resolution, slightly amended, was read. Rep. Kamaoaha moved to lay on the table. Rep. Richards moved to vote upon it now. In seconding the motion of Richards, Rep. Robertson said that the matter of annexation was embodied in our present Constitution; that every member, swearing to support that constitution, was bound to favor such resolution, whether it was a matter of reiteration of sentiment or not. Let us vote upon it now and get to more important work. The motion to adopt the resolution carried by a 14 to 9 vote, Rep. Kamaoaha dissenting.

Rep. Robertson submitted the report of the Finance committee on the Income Tax Bill. The report favors the passage of the bill, reducing the rate from three to one per cent.

The report was adopted and the bill immediately taken up. After the reading of the first section Rep. Robertson moved its passage.

He spoke at length on the amendment, stating that the Bill was necessarily in the nature of an experiment just now, and that putting the rate at 1 per cent, was calculated to facilitate, if not ensure, its passage. Amendments, raising the rates, may easily be added at next session. But at present it is the opinion that the rate of one per cent. will prove ample for the needs of the present.

Minister Damon seconded the motion and said that the introduction and passage of the act would be a complete refutation of any attack on the country which charges it with inability to take care of itself. The passage of this bill will be in accordance with the ideas now obtaining in the older countries which are considered best governed, and accomplishes a just purpose inasmuch as it places the burden of support upon those shoulders best able to support it.

"I consider it the most encouraging move made since the establishment of the Republic.

"Further, it is well that it is a House measure, as the House is elected by a freer vote than the Senate.

"There having been no lines drawn, no talk of 'I am better than thou,' but all are pulling together for the interests of the country to the best of their ability. This gives the House a strength which is invincible.

"It is just a hundred years since the younger Pitt introduced and secured the passage of a like bill in the English parliament.

"That country was then at war with other nations, the case was urgent, the King was at his back. This bill is presented without any of the above forces at work. The House presents the bill in exact accordance with their ideas of justice. This is a right start. May God speed the Bill."

The question as to whether the government bond is taxable or not led to much talk. Finally Minister Damon brought in a copy of a bond and read its terms to the House. The bond guarantees the purchaser exemption from taxes on principal and interest.

Rep. Robertson said he thought that the words "except such bonds of the Republic of Hawaii, etc." should be stricken out of the sec-

ONE JAPANESE SHOOTS ANOTHER IN THE SHOULDER.

Personal and Social Notes—Fine Weather at Hilo—Forest Clearing by Steam Power.

An expert horse shoer arrived by the Annie Johnson to work for the Riverside Carriage Works. This is another of bustling Jack Wilson's industries.

A. D. McEvoy, the former detective, has been appointed deputy jailer at Onomea. Mac intends going into coffee.

One Japanese shot another in the shoulder at Olaa the other day. It was said to have been accidental, but there is a report that a gambling row was at the bottom. Dr. Moore is treating the wounded man. The other is in jail awaiting investigation.

The Social Club farce went off well last night. Admissions were by invitation and 150 attended. A dance followed the performance.

The weather continues delightful, belying the title of "rainy town."

None of the Hall's tourists have turned up here yet.

Mr. Wilson has given a successful test to his traction engine in clearing forest land at Olaa for coffee. It burns woods for fuel and dislodges the biggest trees, roots and all.

More interest seems to be taken on this island in Cuba and South Africa than any other foreign subject. The Hawaiian Legislature's proceedings are regarded with general unconcern excepting when matters directly affecting the big island are up.

Hilo is a fine place for rest and recuperation conjoined with all the needed comforts of life.

D. H. Hitchcock, the veteran lawyer and ex-legislator, is staying at "Pohakuloa," his pretty Olaa villa. He is in excellent health.

Whist is quite a popular pastime in Hilo.

Next to a wharf, Hilo needs sidewalks. Waiuanue street, one of the principal business thoroughfares, has only disconnected platforms in front of the buildings, between which and the street raging ditches intervene. Most of the buildings, it may be added, are elegantly fitted for demolition. Their architecture is pre-renaissance, decidedly, while their state of repair leaves nothing for the tax assessor to value except the sites.

C. K. Spencer, formerly foreman of the BULLETIN printing office, has mechanical charge of the Tribune and is at present acting as business manager. His well-known skill furnishes printing in metropolitan style for customers of the office. The Tribune completes six months of its existence this week. Hilo and the whole island of Hawaii ought to be proud of it, for it would be hard to find a better local paper in a constituency of similar size anywhere in America. Mr. Alfonso, a young Portuguese educated at Punahou, is the energetic and capable reporter. Messrs. Wilder and Wakefield of the directorate are in temporary editorial charge, and notwithstanding their professional engagements as lawyers they keep the paper up to a good standard.
