Mrs. Hartwell's funeral will take place at four o'clock. A meeting of the American League is called for tonight. Mr. Burns, proprietor of the circus, is still quite ill but is on the mend. The exhibition of the Kilohana Art League will close in about three weeks. Company F of the regulars is camping out on the grounds of the Executive building. The courts were closed for the day out of respect for the funeral of ex-Justice Hartwell's wife. The Kams and 1st Regiment nines will cross bats at the ball grounds on Saturday afternoon. The postponed annual tea party of the Woman's Board of Missions takes place tomorrow afternoon. While being fitted for a hat at Mrs. Hanna's you can enjoy a nice cold drink of lemonade, soda, etc. The Y. M. C. A. orchestra will have the weekly rehearsal this evening under the new leadership of Mr. Heitman. The Punahou cars stop at Queen street instead of running to Oceanic wharf as the new time table says they do. Strong men who lift horses will soon be back numbers. There is a fellow expected at a New York circus who promises to lift a full-grown elephant. The experiment of Sunday band concerts will be tried at Makee Island on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Minister Cooper having given orders to that effect. Mrs. D'Arcy, an experienced hotel manager, will open the Club Hotel (late Richelieu) on June 10. The building has been thoroughly renovated and stylishly refurnished. The regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association will be held in Queen Emma Hall at 9:30 a. m. Friday, June 6, 1896. E. Pund, who was convicted in the Police Court yesterday morning of assault and battery on E. Wolters, was sentenced at the afternoon session to two months' imprisonment. Dr. McWayne has gone to the Koolau side of the island to attend Judge Whiting, who caught a cold from being dropped in the surf by a sailor who was carrying him ashore from a steamer. Germany is entitled to the credit of the discovery of the conversion of barley into malt. Every age has seen an improvement in beer manufacture, the latest and best example being the celebrated Seattle beer sold at the Criterion saloon. E. W. Jordan, proprietor of the famous No. 10 (formerly Waterhouse) store, gives a list of attractive new goods at thatemporium. The ladies will be less inclined than ever to pass the door. They must at least see the elegant goods. Carl Du Roi, manager of the store of B. F. Ehlers & Co., was married last evening to Miss Margaret Carroll. The newly married couple held a reception at the home of Geo. Carter on Nuuanu street after the ceremony which was largely attended. The circus performance this evening will include some new and amusing features as well as startling feats, acrobatic and otherwise. The members have practiced very diligently during the week and tonight's performance will be a particularly fine one.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held this evening at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Business of importance. The Marshal's sale of the real estate involved in the O'fergelt-Stevens law suit will come off tomorrow at 12 o'clock. A deposit of $200 is required as a guarantee on the fall of the hammer.
