LELEO PARK.

Mrs. Nakuina, one of the most brilliant Hawaiian women of our times, contributes an able plea for the proposed Leleo park to a contemporary. It should not require an agitation to induce the Government to establish a park at that place. One is generally conceded to be needed there, and no argument has ever been openly advanced against the proposition. The railway company reclaimed a stagnant pond and a malodorous morass across the way, making an attractive plaza and a garden in front of the station. From Union square to Kalihi, or about two miles, there is not another available breathing space, unless a high real estate price be paid for one. The land now being filled up, at the site of the former wash-houses, ought to afford space for a playground, in the middle, bordered with shaded promenades, having seating spaces at intervals. A band stand would be a requisite. Public squares have long been regarded as a necessity in towns of any size, of which they have come to be known as the "lungs." In this connection, the people are advised, here and now, never to consent to the alienation of Makiki recreation ground for any but its original purposes. It is the only place in Honolulu free to all for the practice of outdoor sports, and as such is a boon appreciated by the crews of visiting warships, as well as by local devotees of wholesome athletics.

October's issue of the Friend is to hand. It contains less than the usual amount of controversial matter. In historical references it contains two mistakes, which are less excusable in a monthly than in a daily. One is the placing of the Reform revolution in 1889 instead of 1887, and the other the giving the time of Justice B. H. Austin's death as seven instead of eleven years ago. The Friend does not know that the A. P. A. has been started in Honolulu, but expresses its disapproval of the organization, saying that the Church of Rome should be opposed in the open and not by secret societies.

Yesterday a vulgar insult to the President of the United States appeared in the editorials of the Advertiser. Today an evidently constrained apology for the offense appears in the same part of that paper.

Counting electoral votes before they are gained is only a tactical part of the presidential campaign. Present estimates by either side are likely to make many piles of picturesque ruins on election night.

Now the Advertiser growls because the rear of the Judiciary building is left long in a state of wreck and ruin. This burst of independence on the part of the morning paper is startling.

Sympathy for the Cuban cause in thoughtful minds is tempered by the fear that the Cubans will make but a sorry business of self-government if they get it.

Citizens' Guards Certificates can be framed at King Bros. for from 25 cents up.

POLICE COURT CULLINGS.

An Unusually Long Calendar for the Latter Part of the Week.

Judge de la Vergne was confronted with a calendar containing the names of forty-six petty offenders this morning, which is something unusual for the latter part of the week. On taking his seat the Judge announced his decision in the case of Joe de Fraga, accused of assault with a weapon, which was tried yesterday and taken under advisement. The decision was that the defendant was guilty as charged. He was sentenced to three weeks' hard labor and a fine of $10. An appeal was at once taken from the decision and sentence and a bond of $100 ordered given.

A second charge of threatening against the same defendant was submitted on the evidence taken yesterday and the court dismissed it with a reprimand.

Sun You, one of the chefa fiends who used gaspise and penholders to conceal their tickets in, pleaded guilty like a little man and was promptly assessed $25 fine and costs $3.

Kapela acknowledged the embezzlement of $10 from Kamaka and the conversion of the same to his own use. He was fined $50 and costs.

Out of a total of twenty-three Chinese gamblers, eight were convicted and fined $10 each. The others were let go.

The rest of the morning session was taken up in hearing the squabble between W. Thone and Carl Klemme. The former is charged with violating Section 1 of Act 35 of the Laws of the Republic, the particular offense being that he unlawfully and without authority untied the latter's horse from a ring driven into a tree on premises which they both claim. Decision reserved until tomorrow. Creighton & Correa for the prosecution and Davis for the defense.

"Put Me Off At Buffalo"

The title of this wellknown song as well as the song itself emanated from the brain of an employe of the Buffalo Brewing Company. That enterprising firm, believing that a man who could compose so catchy an air must have a large and well balanced brain, straightway raised his salary. This has proven to be a good move on their part as is testified by the excellent qualities of their beer, which is dispensed over the bars of the Cosmopolitan, Pacific and Royal saloons at the rate of two glasses for 25c. It is always fresh and cold and life-sustaining. Or you can get one glass of Buffalo and one of Pabst beer, the fine product of the Milwaukee brewery. Exchangeable checks good at all the above-mentioned resorts are given in change if you only want one drink. "Best beer ever in Honolulu," is the verdict of many of our prominent citizens.

A New Enterprise.

The very latest as regards saddlery is constantly on hand at Chas. Hammer's new establishment, 229 King street, also the very best repairing done. Telephone 682. P. O. Box 393.

The Pacific Hardware Co. have received by the Australia two consignments of picture moulding and mat board, and are prepared to execute orders at lower prices than ever known before in Honolulu.

When you are down on your luck and feel as if the world was cold, hard and dreary, just step into the Criterion saloon and put a rose-colored tint on everything by imbibing a glass of Seattle beer.

Seattle is fast becoming a great city. One thing which makes it famous is Seattle beer, which you find at the Criterion. A good thing always makes its mark. This is one of the best things on earth.

If you want to frame anything in the very best manner; if you want your frame to harmonize with your picture; if you want the best and most tasteful frame in the market, go to King Bros., 110 Hotel street.

The Criterion Saloon is a pleasant place to go to and its greatest attraction is the pure, cold Seattle beer on draught there. It makes one's mustache curly and puts new life into the failing consumptive.

MEAT CHOPPERS, BIRD CAGES AND RAIN GAUGES.

Before Whitelaw Reid became Minister to France he devoted a good deal of his time to the conduct of his paper, the Tribune. The copy editors who put up the headlines of stories of the day fell into the habit of making most of them interrogative, as, for instance, "Was it murder or suicide?" or "Did she kill him for love?" or "Will the President sign it?" etc.

The whole paper was speckled with interrogative points. The thing had been going for weeks, till one day a postal arrived, addressed to Mr. Reid, and marked personal. It read as follows:

"I'm getting awful tired of your questions. Why don't you find out something? A great newspaper is supposed to know everything, and ought not to annoy its readers with needless inquiries. This morning you asked: 'Will Mr. Platt consent?' How the h—l do I know?"

That night an order came that the Tribune must ask fewer questions.

In spite of Whitelaw Reid's experience we are tempted to ask the people of Hawaii a few leading questions, just an even half a dozen of them.

QUESTION 1—Have you seen the new improved American MEAT and VEGETABLE CHOPPER? If you haven't it will pay you to call and take a look at it. It has an automatic rotary movement as well as the up and down chopping motion. They are simply and cheap and a child can operate them.

QUESTION 2—Have you seen the new BRASS BIRD CAGES we have just received? They are beauties and they only cost from $2.50 to $4.50 according to style.

QUESTION 3—Have you seen the PAINTED Bird Cages we are offering at $1.25 to $2.00?

QUESTION 4—Have you seen the HARTMAN STEEL WIRE MATS we are offering? The rainy season is coming on and they are just what you want. They are cheap, cleanly and indestructible.

QUESTION 5—Have you seen the RAIN GAUGES we have lately imported? With one of these little instruments you can laugh at the Clerk of the Weather and give him a pointer after every storm.

QUESTION 6—Have you seen the latest thing out? It is a portable bootblack stand, made of iron, which can be screwed to a post anywhere and moved in any direction. Must be seen to be appreciated. Complete with brushes, two kinds of blacking, etc., only $2.50.
