

The Evening Bulletin,

DANIEL LOGAN, Editor.

TUESDAY, AUG. 17, 1897.

It is pleasing to the St. Louis Star to contemplate that Hawaiian annexation "will put a few vessels, small though they be, under the American flag." Some very decent ships, headed by the floating palace China, might be added to the American mercantile marine if American and Hawaiian statesmen abandoned what looks like a somewhat narrow policy. Under such a policy annexation will find American shipowners ready with only the Alameda, Mariposa, Rio de Janeiro and Peru, of vessels at all decent, to conduct the traffic touching at Honolulu between all sides of the Pacific. Would it not be wise to concede a point that should afford a few other respectable steamships, at least while new ones were being built in American yards, to perform all that vast traffic?

According to accounts previously referred to in the BULLETIN, a portion of the Japanese press is wrong in attributing the low state of Japan's treasury to new public improvements. Those accounts showed that it was due to the backwardness of public works that there was an apparent surplus figured, large amounts of money voted for such purpose not having been expended. Had the contemplated works all been carried out, there would have been a prodigious deficiency. Figures were quoted in this paper to prove this fact.

Significance has been attached both in Japan and the United States to the consent given by the Board of Immigration to the introduction of more Japanese labor immigrants. If the press of both those countries had taken the right means of becoming acquainted with the facts, they would be able to inform their constituents that Japanese immigration, under the lawful regulation of our authorities, never was stopped, never was attempted to be stopped.

Senator Morgan's tribute to the courage of President McKinley, in personally taking the initiative of negotiating the Hawaiian annexation treaty, makes an effective answer to the manufactured story that the treaty was a political trick to baffle the sugar trust in the tariff discussion. The Senator is coming to Hawaii, as are other American legislators, and the result of their observations will be the dissipating of a whole lot of fictions.

Newspapers on the Klondyke.

Though it is not certainly known here that a newspaper has yet been established at Dawson, one of the officials of the Alaska Commercial Company said yesterday that he had no doubt one had been issued there for some time now. A small newspaper outfit was long ago said to be in Dawson, so that it is not improbable that the next steamer from the Yukon may bring out, along with another instalment of golden treasure, copies of a journal issued in that Ultima Thule. A representative of a house dealing in printers' supplies stated yesterday that he had also furnished, some two weeks ago, a press, type and materials for printing a newspaper at Dawson. Two outfits for publishing a small paper have been shipped from Seattle—and several newspaper men and others who have gone there have planned to publish a paper if possible. There will be a palladium there soon if there is not already.—S.F. paper.

ADMIT JAPANESE LABORERS.

Request of the Sugar Planters for More Help Granted.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—A cablegram received at the Japanese legation from Tokio today said the request made by Hawaiian sugar planters for the admission of Japanese laborers to handle the big sugar crop this year had been granted by the immigration authorities of the republic and permission for landing 300 of them had been given. It is said at the legation that Japan is opposed to allowing its subjects to go in large numbers to places where they will enter into competition with other foreign labor, particularly Chinese, and this may have some bearing on another application made by Hawaiian planters for the admission of more Japanese than the 300 mentioned. The action of the immigration authorities is significant in view of the previous exclusion of Japanese. As Japan has practically consented to arbitrate, this new aspect of the case may do much to further a peaceable settlement of the controversy.

Germany and England.

The Spectator says: "The German Emperor is credited with a project for uniting the whole Continent in a war with England, which—says one scribe supposed to be inspired—could afford to each power engaged a magnificent compensation." The league is to be for plunder. * * * Emperor William II. is almost as formidable an enemy as Napoleon, and we do not feel sure that he will not ultimately succeed in organizing a coalition of some kind, the motto of which will be Delenda est Carthago. Let us hope that we may find a more fortunate Hannibal, and meanwhile let us see that every ship and every battery and regiment is not only existing but efficient. We shall not have a long warning if a crisis comes."

Gold in Galore.

The Alaska Mining Record prints a letter from James Kite, a manufacturing jeweller, who is at Dawson City. Kite says: "Gold is as common here as iron in Juneau. Everybody has money. There seems to be no limit to this district, as they are striking new creeks every other day for a hundred miles around. Stamping is all the rage. Men with packs on their backs can be seen running in all directions. I am getting all the work I can do. I get $25 for making a half-ounce ring. This is the greatest camp on record."

Keep Up the Forests.

Keeping up a fit proportion of forests to arable land is the prime condition of human health. If the trees go, men must decay. Whosoever works for the forest, works for the happiness and permanence of our civilization. A tree may be an obstruction, but it is never useless. Now is the time to work if we are to be blessed and not cursed by the people of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. The nation that neglects its forests is surely destined to ruin.—Hon. Elizur Wright.

The Kewalo Bicycle Track, to be known as Cyclomere Park, is at last a reality and "not a dream," thanks to the energy and enterprise of Mr. Desky, and will be opened with a grand meet next month, and all the young men—and perhaps also the lovely girls—will want to try their luck on it. In anticipation of increased sales on bicycles we have quietly laid in a good stock of Tribune Bicycles than which there is none better in the market. The Tribune is now recognized in the United States as the best; it is the favorite with all the society people and business men all over the Union, and our own American Minister rides one. Recent advices announce a cut in prices of low grade, but the strictly high grade wheels still sell readily at the former list price. We have made better arrangements with the manufacturers, whereby we are enabled to sell the Tribune bicycles at list price—$100, and invite all intending purchasers of wheels to come and inspect our stock before going elsewhere. We have ladies' and gentlemen's road wheels, racers and all models manufactured by the celebrated Black Manufacturing Co. We also carry the Columbus, Columbus Juvenile for Boys and Girls, B & H Special, Zimmy and Stormer, which are sold exceedingly cheap.

The Old Stand: The New Stand:

Where for the past seventeen years we served the people of Honolulu, having neither accommodation nor proper facilities for conducting an increasing business, our efforts for the past seven months have been mainly directed to erecting a building ample for our requirements and equipped with facilities for handling all business with dispatch. We feel that this result has been accomplished notwithstanding a number of unavoidable delays caused by material not coming to hand as anticipated. In giving our attention to the details of building we were obliged to neglect some of our jobbing trade which we regret, and hope under the new conditions to make up for same by prompt and faithful attention to all matters placed in our charge.

Is our own creation adapted in every detail to conducting our business. In opening this stand we do so with the purpose of confining ourselves to the lines of goods carried by us at the old store but showing a more complete assortment than heretofore. Understanding the requirements of this community we will endeavor to supply our trade with strictly up to date goods of a quality that we can guarantee. We invite inspection of our stock.
