AMERICAN AND CHINESE.
Great Vaudeville Show to Be Given For Week Beginning Jan. 17.
 A great theatrical treat is in store for New Honolulu for a week beginning Jan. 17. A combined Chinese and American vaudeville show is to be given at the new Chinese theatre on Aala lane under the management of W. H. Crawford and Sol. Berliner. Rosa the great Honolulu favorite will sing American, Hawaiian and Chinese songs and Eddie Armond the great sk-teh and dance artist will appear. Coupled with this will be the appearance of the best Chinese talent that the Chinese produce. Admission will be 10 and 25 cents. This is a great opportunity to see the combined American and Chinese forces as fun makers. Tickets on sale at Chinese News opposite I. X. L. hack stand. See New Today.

Captain Geo Townsend of the schooner Mokulele did not go out on that vessel today on account of the illness of his two children. The first mate took charge as captain. The Mokulele went out very heavily laden.
