AN IMPORTANT LAND SUIT

Albert E. Nichols has brought suit against the Aloha Coffee Company of Oloa for specific performance.

The suit is a very important one in that the land in question is a part of the Oloa plantation floated some time ago and is one of the pieces that Nichols got an option on while he was on Hawaii negotiating for several others.

The price of the land as arranged between the parties and given in the papers is something over $40,000. Complaint states that upon handing over the remaining $37,000 for the land, defendant refused to take the amount and still refuses to take it; also that he has been and is ready to hand it over at the time of delivery of the land.

The papers in the matter were served this afternoon.

McVay as Othello.

The part of Othello is peculiarly suited to Mr. McVay's personality. He has the splendid voice and physique necessary to the requirements of the part—without which successful performance of this great character could not be given—and being an actor of splendid dramatic ability, one may look for and not find a fitter exponent of Shakespeare's dusky Moor. Mr. McVay has surrounded himself with an intelligent company of players, several of whom have had many years experience in Shakespearean roles. Tonight will open the McVay season.

Steamer Waialeale which got into port from Kilauea early today, brought 2500 bags sugar to W. G. Irwin & Co., 4,000 bags of K. S. Co.'s sugar were left on Kauai; owing to trouble with the telephone, reports from other sugar ports were not received. Good weather prevails on Kauai, though the sea is very choppy at Kilauea.

COOPER IN DAMON'S PLACE

A few days ago the BULLETIN announced exclusively the departure of Minister Damon for the Coast. At a Cabinet meeting this morning the matter was discussed and Mr. Damon was given full permission to leave. He will be gone about a month or six weeks, leaving Honolulu next Tuesday.

The next thing done was the appointment of Attorney General Cooper to fill the office of Minister of Finance during Minister Damon's absence.

The Orphan.

This Saturday evening, the program will be entirely changed and to an Irish farce, "Duffy's Daughter Kate," will give Post full play as the exponent of Hibernian wit. Harry Darling, late of Curtis' minstrel company, will make his first appearance in pass and wing dancing.

The popular native balladists, Annie and Minnie Kanoho, will sing some favorite duets.

Glorine has a new specialty and Violet Dale, May Ashley and all the old favorites will participate. If you feel too tired to stand see that you book seats early.

Othello at the Y. M. C. A.

There was a large attendance at the recital given by Hannibal A. Williams at the Y. M. C. A. last night. The audience was greatly pleased with the interpretation of Mr. Williams and paid the closest attention throughout. There was not a minute when interest lagged. Mr. Williams is certainly an artist with every character in the play of Othello perfectly understood. The next recital will be on Tuesday evening when "A Midsummer Night's Dream" will be given.

NEWS OF THE WEEK ON MAUI

Senator Holstein Honored at a Big Luau.

Death of Henry Kuahi from Fever—Visitors of the Week—Exodus to Honolulu for the Races.

WAILUKU, MAUI, June 9.—Henry Kuahi, a young half white employed as an engineer on one of the cars of the Kahului railroad, died at about eight o'clock last Sunday morning June 4th at his home at Kahului from typhoid fever. Dr. Armitage was the attending physician but it seems that the services of the doctor were called when the patient was almost too far gone. The mother of the young man was at Honolulu at the time of his death, and only his wife and a few of his intimate friends were present at his deathbed. Deceased is a nephew of Pilot Bob English of Kahului and grandson of Cap. English, night watchman at Wilder's wharf office at Honolulu. Henry Kuahi leaves a young wife married only about two years, a mother, several brothers and sisters, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. He was greatly liked by his employers and well beloved by those who knew him. His funeral took place at 8 o'clock on Monday morning, June 5th, from the late family residence at Kahului, and his remains were interred at the family cemetery at Waikapu. The floral decorations from friends and acquaintances were very numerous.

Henry M. Whitney, Sr., the veteran Honolulu newspaper man, was a guest of Judge McKay at his Wailuku home last Monday afternoon.

Senator H. L. Holstein of Kohala was the guest of Senator and Mrs. A. N. Kepoikai at Wailuku this week. On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Kepoikai gave a very elegant luau of their home in honor of the visit of Senator Holstein to which were invited a number of their friends. Among those who sat down at the table to partake of the most sumptuous repast a la Hawaiian were the following ladies and gentlemen: Senator and Mrs. Kepoikai, Senator Holstein, W. J. Lowrie, Miss Lowrie, C. B. Wells, Circuit Judge J. W. Kalas, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Aluli, Mrs. Sackson, and Messrs. T. Clark, Noa Aluli and Jas. Keola. After dinner the gentlemen repaired to the spacious lanai while the more musically inclined members of the party went into the parlor and discoursed sweet music for a greater part of the evening. The playing by Miss Lowrie and Mrs. Lyons were highly appreciated, especially some of the more rare native melodies. The more politically inclined gentlemen spent the evening discussing live topics of the day as touching upon Hawaii and its future. The enjoyments of the evening were kept until about midnight. Senator Holstein returned to Kohala per Kinan last Tuesday evening. Mr. Holstein thinks and believes Wailuku to be a livelier town than Kohala, but does not care to change his residence. He went home carrying back with him fond memories, not of Kibei stocks but of Kibei district.

Herbert Dickey's funeral took place on Friday, June 9. Several of the sporting young men go to Honolulu today to take in the Kapiolani Park races. Among them are W. T. Robinson, G. H. Cummings and T. B. Lyons. Senator Kepoikai also goes to town.

A subscription list is going around for a big luau to be given

DEATH OF HERBERT DICKEY

Accidentally Killed by the Breaking of a Guy Rope at Kalaanui.

With Harry Baldwin He Was Superintending Repairs to the Trolley When the Accident Occurred on Wednesday.

The Kinan last night brought the sad news of the accidental death of Herbert Dickey, the youngest son of C. H. Dickey and brother of Lyle A. Dickey, the well known attorney.

The young man was employed on the Pais plantation with his cousin Harry Baldwin and was learning the sugar business. The young man died a few hours after the accident his father and brother being with him as he breathed his last. The funeral took place yesterday at Wailuku. Young Dickey was about 26 years of age, born and raised on the Islands and had a promising and successful career cut short by the untimely death on Wednesday.

The accident occurred Wednesday at about 10 o'clock in the morning while Harry Baldwin and young Dickey were superintending the repairing of the trolley used for conveying cane from the upper level to the mill.

They were standing just back of the anchor stake which supported the trolley when it suddenly gave way, the end of the stake striking Dickey full in the face and most terribly mashing the forehead and nose and cheek bones.

Drs. McConkey and Weddick quickly responded to a call and Dr. Raymond who was at Kahului at the time of the accident was rung up and arrived at the side of the injured man about half-past two.

Dr. Raymond said this morning: "When I arrived Mr. Dickey was nearly dead from the great loss of blood and from the effects of the terrible blow. It was decided to give him the one chance in a million and ether was administered and the bones replaced and the wound packed and sewed up. The young man survived the operation and was half conscious until death relieved him of his suffering."

Harry Baldwin who was standing within a foot of Dickey had a miraculous escape. They both say the stake gave way and both exclaimed "Look out!" but Dickey was struck. The accident happened at Kalaanui.

Peacock's Plow.

W. C. Peacock has given the American plow, for which he holds extensive rights, a deep hold in the soil of Australasia. He has established workshops in Melbourne for making the plow all but some of the castings. There are 80 or 90 men employed on the floor, and 16 salesmen on the road. Mr. Peacock left his brother C. A. well in the Colonies, and looks better than ever himself. He arrived in the Warrimoo on Thursday evening.

Death of Mrs. Wilhelm.

The death of Mrs. Wilhelm, wife of the well known architect and builder of this city, died at 6:50 o'clock yesterday evening at the family home on Keeaumoku street. Deceased was forty-four years of age. She leaves a husband and a daughter, Mrs. A. Smithies, to mourn her loss.

A Kewanee in Luck.

Terrence Keven, well known in Honolulu, has received a letter from a firm of barristers in Victoria, B. C., announcing the death of a relative who has left an estate estimated at about $10,000 and that Mr. Keven is the sole heir. As the heir has a Honolulu born family of eleven children the news is very pleasing.

The betting was very slow and almost entirely confined to the owners and employees of the several stables. At the outset it was announced that bets would be paid in all races even though the Judges should declare them off in any race.

HOIKE OF SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Fine Work Done When Children Gathered in Kawaiahao.

Church was Crowded—Ewa, Waianae, Makua and Wailua Carry Off Palm—Luau Now in Progress.

The hoike of the Hawaiian Sunday School of this island in Kawaiahao church this morning was one of the best that has taken place there since the annual hoikes were first instituted. The front part of the church was filled with the Sunday schools from every part of the island while the back part was equally as well filled with the church people present to witness the work of the schools.

Each school had its assigned place and at the proper time, marched up in front and went through their exercises in fine shape, singing and repeating their texts without a single flaw. As each Sunday School marched back to place, rounds of applause greeted them. It would be difficult to say which Sunday Schools did the best, taken all in all, the combined schools of Ewa, Waianae, Makua and Wailua did better than the remainder. The program was as follows:

1 Song.

2 Prayer by Rev. E. S. Timoteo.

3 Hoike of the combined schools of Ewa, Waianae, Makua and Wailua.

4 Song.

5 Hoike of the combined schools of Kawaiahao, Kaneohe and Waikane.

6 Short talks by Hon. Henry Waterhouse and Theo. Richards.

7 Hoike of the combined schools of Haunalea, Keoneka, Kaili and Moanalua.

8 Collection.

9 Hoike of the combined schools of Punalani, Waikiki, Kamaoiliili and Manoa, outside schools of Kawaiahao.

10 Song.

11 Hoike of the Sunday Schools of Kaunakapili.

12 Words of encouragement, by Rev. S. L. Desha of Hilo.

13 Closing song.

14 Closing prayer.

At the close of the exercises in the church the Sunday Schools marched out to the pavilion put up outside and took the places assigned them at the tables spread with many Hawaiian dishes. The feast is continuing as the BULLETIN goes to press. Upon the arrival of the Waikane Sunday School in town this morning, the members marched to the church led by a large and small drum. The Waikane people were the only ones who carried their banners along.

"Speaking and Hearing" will be the subject of Rev. W. A. Gardner's sermon at the Christian church tomorrow morning; in the evening he will conclude the series of sermons on "The Three Heavens." Both sermons will be illustrated with charts.
