

EVENING BULLETIN.

Published Every Day, except Sunday, at 210 King street, Honolulu, H. I., by the BULLETIN PUBLISHING COMPANY.

TUESDAY, OCT. 17, 1899.

The official organ states that J. W. Girvin has resumed his position as secretary of the Chinese Bureau.

If Hilo has to wait until the United States appropriates money, before obtaining a new postoffice building, it will see the day when the mail bags will be left on the sidewalk and the postmaster distributing the mail from the street corner.

Our officials have yet to state for what public purposes they purchased six and a half acres of Tantalus land by means of an exchange with W. R. Castle.

The government organ says the doings of the President's land order on this island "are exceedingly mischievous."

An official organ is authority for the statement that work on the Wailuku water system was "just about to begin" when it was stopped by the President's land order.

The funny part of this resignation business is that the official organ, which has said the opposition wants the Executive officials to resign, should be the first to accept the canard that Mr. Dole had resigned.

Seven hundred Japanese can come to the country and the official organ does not raise a whimper. Let a body of American soldiers come to the city and the mouthpiece of the government finds that wives and daughters are in danger and officers disgrace their uniforms.

THE PUBLIC LAND TRANSFERS.

When a request was made at the Government building for a list of the land sales, leases and transfers made by the local government since July 7, 1898, the reply came that this list now being prepared would not be given to the Hawaiian public but would be sent to Washington.

By what method of reasoning the local officials reach the conclusion that the people of Hawaii must not know the details of the public land business done since annexation or before is a mystery.

land transactions will be damaging to public or private interests or interfere with the policy of the national authorities.

By promising to withhold this list of transactions, our officials are assuming a prerogative which no Washington authorities delegate to themselves.

LOSS TO OAHU COLLEGE

The following resolution was adopted at a meeting of the Trustees of Oahu College held Monday, October 16, 1899:

Whereas the Rev. Dr. Charles M. Hyde has, after months of suffering, been taken away from the scene of his earthly activities, and thereby Oahu College has been deprived of an able and efficient trustee, therefore it is

Resolved, that the trustees of Oahu College hereby express their deep and heartfelt sympathy with the bereaved family, whose great loss is shared in a degree only, by this entire community.

In his death all good causes have lost an efficient and conscientious helper. His talents and rare executive capacity were ever and freely at the service of educational, religious and social progress.

Oahu College has lost one of its most faithful and willing servants. His aid and advice will be painfully missed in the important developments of the near future.

W. F. FREAR, Secretary Trustees Oahu College.

LOVED ON ACCOUNT OF HIS ENEMIES.

"Money," said the philosopher, "may often do more harm than good. Sometimes the mighty dollar is a man's worst enemy."

Myrtilla: "Let me explain basket ball to you, Mr. Ambrose. The object, you know—"

Mr. Ambrose: "Oh, I understand the object, Miss Myrtilla. The object is to hit some innocent bystander who has on twenty dollar eye-glasses."

The P. C. & M'g Co. has both basket balls and goals, imported direct from Spalding Brothers.

Likely Purchaser: "By the way, your manager has just lately been married."

Head Salesman: "Yes; oh yes. Sterling bicycle people are to blame for that."

Purchaser: "That's interesting; what did they have to do with it?"

Head Salesman for P. C. & M'g Co.: "Well, you see, he took the young lady out on the Sterling Tandem we have here, and it ran so easy he thought she was doing all the work, and the same thing was passing through her mind. They both thought how nice it would be to have things always that way. They didn't know those Sterlings were to blame."

Purchaser: "Well, I guess you can set up that same Sterling wheel for me."

Did you know that the P. C. & M'g Co. will make your old wheel look like new for $6? Well, they will; try them.
