FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1899.

If White continues to retrieve British fortunes at the present rate, "We have Seen Better Days" will soon be the Boer national anthem.

For the first time since Dewey was Admiral, he has had to listen to words of advice. That's what comes of getting married.

When McKinley heard the returns from the Ohio election, "he simply smiled." That is certainly the least he could do when assured of the grand support given his policy.

MISLEADING SENATOR CULLOM.

That Senator Cullom has been misled is now the word sent out by the officials of the Hawaiian Executive. This statement is the result of an assumption on the part of local government godheads that Senator Cullom is very much dissatisfied with the manner in which the Hawaiian Executive has administered affairs since annexation. It is said that Senator Cullom has practically endorsed the views on local administration expressed by the Opposition. Consequently the conclusion that the Opposition has misinformed the Senator.

Our officials undoubtedly have better means of learning Senator Cullom's views than the BULLETIN.
 A Cullom letter received in Hilo has become a matter of public comment.
 As the government friends appear to regard the report as authentic, the public has been disposed to accept the same view.

The BULLETIN refrains from commenting on the letter until it knows the contents, but we have to disagree with our governmental friends on the proposition that Senator Cullom is such a benighted individual as to be misled by statements emanating from Hawaii. We place a higher estimate on the keen political and business like character of Mr. Cullom than appears to be granted by the men seeking to shirk the responsibility of their official acts. Senator Cullom is a man of marked ability with years of training in public life. He knows mankind and it does not take him a year and a day to size up a situation, be it social, political, industrial, local or national. We do not believe Mr.
 Dole with his attractive and pleasing personality, or W. O. Smith with his convincing manners or Gen. Hartwell with his legal ability and war records could mislead Senator Cullom even had they the desire to do so. Consequently we cannot believe that Mr. Cullom can be misled by the members of the Opposition whom the Official Organ Jr. has classed as "two-bit politicians" and "kickers."

Mr. Cullom's public career is sufficient to warrant this conclusion had he never been in Hawaii. But he has been in Hawaii, the particular purpose of his visit being a study of conditions and to meet the people. If any members of the Opposition are corresponding with M. Cullom, he is not unacquainted with their personal business, or political associations. He knows the principles which prompt the Opposition as well as he knows those of the Government officials.

With all due respect to the political acumen of our Government officials, the man who thinks he can mislead Senator Cullom on matters of fact and principle is barking up the wrong tree.

OTIS MOVING HIS TROOPS

Washington, Nov. 9.—The following cablegram has been received at the War Department:
 Manila, Nov. 9.—General Wheaton successfully landed expedition at Lin-sayen, west of Dagupan, afternoon of 7th, after considerable opposition, slight casualties, rough sea not permitting landing at San Fabian, north of Dagupan, as directed; he is moving eastward. MacArthur seized Mahalacat on railroad 7th inst. Colonel Bell taking same on directed reconnoissance.
 General Lawton at Cabanatuan.
 Troops beyond Talavera and Altaga have met with slight opposition, enemy being driven back in all instances, country still submerged, but water falling. Troops will move rapidly as soon as conditions permit. Hughes moved against Panay insurgents today.

ARMORED TRAIN WORK.

Estecourt, Natal, Sunday, Nov. 5. (San Francisco, Nov. 9 11:45).—Details were received from the armored train which returned from Colenso today of a brilliant little performance.
 The train, which carried two companies of the Dublin Fusiliers under Captain Romero, sighted near Colenso, the Boers in considerable force near the line. The Fusiliers immediately opened a brisk fire, to which the Boers replied ineffectively and as they were suffering loss, they quickly retired out of sight. But as the train cautiously advanced, the Boers were seen moving round on its left flank, their presumed object being to take the train in the rear. To avoid this the train retired.
 It was then seen that the Boers had no intention of attacking, but were in full retreat over the road and bridge. Immediately a strong detachment left the train and entered the town, while the train slowly advanced to the station. Several volleys at long range were fired on the retreating enemy.
 The British also succeeded in entering Fort Wylie, near Colenso, and brought back four wagon loads of shells, provisions and stores.

BRAVERY OF THE BOERS.

Cape Town, Monday, Nov. 6.—There is no doubt that the feeling prevalent of admiration for the courage of the Boers during the recent fighting is a good augury for a future peaceful settlement of the existing trouble. The Boer prisoners on the British cruiser Penelope, pay high tribute to the British artillery.
 Reports from Kimberley seem to indicate that the investing force has been greatly weakened for the purpose of sending detachments to the eastern and southern borders. The threatened widespread Boer invasion of Cape Colony has not materialized. Doubtless the swollen river and the possibility of their retreat being cut off has had some effect.

BOER PRIVATEERS.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The Temps corroborates the statement of the Eclair that the Boers have decided to employ privateers, and says:
 "There is an immense fleet of transports at sea carrying troops. The Transvaal government cannot seriously threaten these, but there is no doubt that it has issued letters of marque in Europe and the United States, and British commerce may suffer, even if the transports do not."

MacArthur's Advance.

Manila, Nov. 6.—10:15 a. m.—Two columns of General MacArthur's division yesterday took Magaling, about six miles northeast of Angeles. Col.
 Smith, with two battalions of the 17th Infantry, two guns of the 1st Artillery and a body of engineers, advanced from Angeles. Major O'Brien, with a battalion of the 17th Infantry and two troops of the 4th Cavalry, moved from Calulut. Colonel Smith's command killed eleven insurgents, wounded 125 and captured fifty, as well as taking a lot of insurgent transportation. Major O'Brien's command killed forty-nine insurgents, wounded many and took twenty-eight prisoners. The Americans had eleven men wounded.

RAN A HALF MILE IN 2 MINUTES.

London, Nov. 4.—A Rochedale today Harry Cullom of Cardiff, best E.
 C. Bredin in a half-mile run for the world's championship and £200. Cullom covered the distance in 2:00 and finished two yards ahead of his competitor.

 ander, editor of the Mail and Express,

 Alexander became editor of the Mail and Express in March, 1895.

London, Nov. 4.—The Outlook announces that Lady Randolph Churchill is going to the Cape to attend the wounded.

tons of coal. It was supposed by the officers that they would be unable to get any at all here so they are patting
