B. F. Dillingham as a Republican delegate to the national convention will be an able representative of the Islands.

Members of the Republican enrollment committees are the men on whom rests the burden of most serious responsibility in this preliminary stage of the Party.

Should the Democrats elect Dr. J. S. McGrew as a delegate to the National Democratic Convention, their delegate would be assured an enthusiastic non-partisan send-off from this end of the line.

The refusal of Col. J. H. Fisher to serve on the preliminary committee fully demonstrates that former political leaders are consistent in their determination to place political activity in new hands.

MINSTRELS AFTER MONEY

Trial of Hogan Damage Suits Begins Before Judge Davis.

Kamalo Sugar Company Directorate Win First Blood—Sentences Imposed Today—Probate Matters Filed.

Judge Davis began this morning the hearing of the cases of Ernest Hogan and others, known as the Hogan Minstrel Troupe, against the Canadian-Australian Royal Mail Steamship Company, the following jury being empaneled: W. M. Cunningham, Theo. Wolff, J. D. Tregloan, L. C. Ables, C. B. Gray, I. Rubenstein, F. S. Lyman, A. D. Larnach, W. H. Smith, J. J. Egan, G. A. Schuman and C. J. Ludwigen.

There are twenty-nine separate actions, with one on trial as a test case. Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan for plaintiffs; Robertson & Wilder for defendant.

The complainants sue for damages on account of being refused passage to Victoria, B. C., in the steamer Miowera. They will try to prove that the color line was drawn against them Captain Hemming of the Miowera will be in court this afternoon.

Judge Stanley has sustained the demurrer of Frank Hustace and others, defendants to a suit in equity of H. R. Hitchcock and others, shareholders of Kamalo Sugar Co. The grounds of decision are that there is a misjoinder of parties and that the bill does not state such a cause of action as to entitle complainants to relief in equity.

Paul Neumann and W. A. Henshall for plaintiffs; Robertson & Wilder for defendants.

William Crewes had his sentence of one month at hard labor for drunkenness suspended until the August term by Judge Stanley. E. P. Dole for prosecution; J. L. Kaulukou for defendant.

J. Kalapoeopoe, larceny, on appeal for mitigation, was committed to the Reformatory School for one year. Kaulukou for defendant.

Kookoo Bolobola, assault and battery, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment at hard labor. Kaulukou for defendant.

The case of Judge Stanley, suing for the use and benefit of C. Lai Young, guardian of Laahia, minor, vs. Akoi and J. H. Barenaba having been overruled.

John E. Walker, executor of the estate of Joseph Lazarus, deceased, has filed his account showing receipts $12,727.69, payments $9245.54, balance $3,482.15.

T. McCants Stewart has filed a claim for $4596.19, balance of account, of Dalziel & Moller, San Francisco, against the estate of John Phillips.

Luz Madelros has been appointed by Judge Stanley administrator of the estate of Manuel de Silva Pavao under $1000 bond. J. M. Davidson for petition; none to contest.

ELI PERKINS AND DEMOCRATS.

The other day, says the Louisville Commercial, Eli Perkins was introduced to Judge Scott, an old dyed-in-the-wool Kentucky Democrat.

The Judge is well known in the Blue Grass region, and the grand old Kentuckian has always been looked up to as a high priest of "befo' the wah Democracy."

Perkins was introduced by an old Democrat, and Judge Scott supposed that Eli was a Democrat, too, and he became confidential with him at once.

"How are we Democrats getting along Judge?" asked Eli in a confidential tone.

The Judge looked at Eli a moment to see if he really wanted information about the party, and slowly remarked:

"Well, sir, we are getting on very well financially, but politically we are running behind; yes, I am afraid we are running behind."

"What causes this?" asked Eli.

"Well, sir," said the Judge sadly, "I am afraid our party has not been altogether right. We have erred in some things."

"Where have we erred, Judge?"

"Well, sir, I hate to admit it, but our Grover Cleveland policy hurt us Kentuckians. I wouldn't say it to a black Republican, but we Democrats all admit it among ourselves. You see," said the Judge, "we used to get 35 cents for wool, and a big price for hemp and tobacco before Grover came in, but that Wilson bill hurt us. It knocked wool down to 12 cents. Free jute, put in to help the cotton fellows, ruined our hemp, and it rotted in the ground. Then we lowered the tariff on tobacco, and our tobacco went down on us. We didn't complain, but we Democrats did a good deal of thinking. Cattle and hogs got lower and lower, and when Grover went out we were pretty poor; yes, dog-on hard up, sir!"

"Are they still bad—the times?" asked Eli.

"No, honestly, the time are good. Wool and hemp and tobacco have doubled in price and are still going up. Cattle and hogs are high and our blue grass farmers are getting rich."

"Well, what is the matter, then?"

"Why, these good times have knocked out our dead old Democratic party. Our Democratic farmers say they will never vote for free trade or low tariff again."

"Well, what can we Democrats do?" asked Eli.

"I hate to admit it," said the Judge sadly, "but if we Democrats want to win in Kentucky again we've got to keep the tariff right where it is. That old Wilson bill and Bryan's free silver will be a scarecrow to every farmer in Kentucky and Tennessee. We've tried low tariff and we know—I'm ashamed to say so, but we know it hurt us! No, sir, the people are prosperous but our Democratic party is doing poor."

ly. I wouldn't say it to a black Republican, but that is the way we Democrats talk among ourselves."

As the Judge got off the train at Lexington he remarked: "Yes, and there was another mistake we Democrats made. Grover Cleveland wanted to sink the Republic of Hawaii and con- nune a monarchical throne. We Democrats didn't complain, but it made us sick, for between you and me, we Democrats ain't puttin' up monarchies."

UNRULY SOLDIERS.

When the Warren came into port the Custom House officers asked the commanding military officer aboard to assist the guards in maintaining order on the wharves. The officer answered: "Very well, we will place a sentry on the wharf to see that no damage is done."

As soon as the soldiers were ashore they pounced down on the bunches of bananas meant for the Aorangi and, tearing off the coverings, used the fruit to pelt each other with. This continued for a whole afternoon and a night. Officers aboard the transport were looking on all the while.

The next day the Chinese and Portuguese owners of the bananas went to the wharf to have a look at their fruit. Seeing its condition and knowing the reason they told the soldiers to take them aboard as they must certainly be very hungry. It took but a very few minutes for them to take the fruit aboard.

Heretofore, the Custom House officers have had the support of the officers of various transports but, in this instance they were simply powerless, the officers offered no objection whatever to the depredations of the men.

is coming. Cupid calls it good and beautiful No article of wear partakes of so many patterns and makes as does neckwear.

When you see the new old that you thought beautiful grows stale. We have just received our new spring stock and if you don't say that they are swell when you see them we will quit importing.

WE ARE NOT exactly selling our goods at auction, but we are doing the next best thing by selling them at greatly reduced prices. It is not our habit to carry goods over from one season to another, so we must sell our remnants of sizes at once, and at such prices that you will save money by buying of us. These goods must sell even if we incur a war in doing so. Boys' and Men's Clothing, Underwear and Men's Furnishings. We mean business. Call and have a look.
