THE CO. "I" OF NATIONAL GUARD

Walluku Military Men Organize and Elect Officers.

CAPT. KEOLA, 1st LIEUT. BOOTE, 2nd LIEUT. CUMMINGS

Wild Yarn about Manila Service Causes Cold Feet in Ballot-box—Company Made Up of Representative Young Men.

Walluku, Dec. 22.—The new Walluku military company known as Co. I, First Regiment, N. G. H., was organized on Thursday night.

There were about fifty applicants but only 45 enlisted, a few of the natives being scared off by the false alarm that Major Pratt came up to enlist men to go to Manila.

The material of the company is first class although most of them never handled a gun before, but their physique is excellent and no doubt will make a fine showing on parade.

The first was that of a captain. The names of W. G. Scott, G. B. Schrader, G. H. Cummings and Jas. N. K. Keia were presented, but the first three withdrew their names which left only Mr. Keola in the field.

Dr. W. R. Boote, W. E. Bal and Geo. Schrader were nominated for first lieutenant. Dr. Boote and Bal tied on the first count and a new election was ordered by the major.

The nominees for second lieutenant were: Geo. H. Cummings, W. E. Bal, Geo. Schrader and Chas. Crowell, a Manila hero.

Major Pratt informed the officers that they would have to go to Honolulu to be examined whenever they are ordered from headquarters to that effect.

The meeting was enthusiastic throughout. The company will commence drilling marching movements and facing next week and it is likely that the skating rink will be secured for a drill shed as there is no other available place in Walluku for the purpose.

and working men of this town. There are natives, half whites, boaters and Portuguese enlisted in the company and harmony is possible in the make up of the various nationalities constituting the rank and file.

Not Badly Treated.

Captain Fox of the Mounted Patrol, who speaks Spanish fluently, kindly interviewed for the Bulletin the Porto Ricans who arrived in the Rio de Janeiro in regard to the story in some of the "Prisco papers and some of the local papers of bad treatment received by them while coming across the country.

A dusty piece of baggage or some old-looking Japanese curio would make an excellent Christmas present. For sale by Iwahama, Hotel street.

The burial took place in Nuuanu cemetery and the procession was a long one. H. H. Williams was the undertaker in charge. These were honorary pall bearers: John A. McCandless, Wm. G. Irwin, F. J. Wilhelm, J. O. Carter, J. B. Atherton and M. S. Grinbaum.

PORTUGUESE LABORERS FROM NEW BEDFORD, MASS

By the Warrimoo This Morning—Bound for Lihue Plantation—No Desertions or Scare Stories Reported.

The arrival of the R. M. S. Warrimoo this morning from Vancouver with a cargo of Portuguese laborers for the Lihue plantation on Kauai was the most interesting matter connected with the steamer or in fact of the water front.

Immediately upon the arrival of the Canadian liner the steamer Warrimoo came alongside when the laborers were hustled on board without delay. The Kaula remained quite a while along side owing to some matters connected with the baggage.

The party consists of fourteen women, eighteen children and sixty men, making a total of ninety-two people. The officers of the Warrimoo that brought them here say that they are glad to be rid of them.

JAPANESE TEA GARDEN ON PACIFIC HEIGHTS

Ten Thousand Dollars will be spent—Two-story Building—Landscaping and Fire-works.

An entirely novel attraction for Honolulu is to be provided on Pacific Heights. It is a Japanese tea garden, operated by a Japanese company.

Mr. Otsuka, a representative of the company, is already at work on the landscape gardening preliminaries. He is a refined specimen of his race, and his garden would be taken for a college professor.

Mr. Otsuka told a Bulletin reporter, who met him on the Heights Saturday, that the gardens would have an artificial lake with an island in the middle of it. The place would be modeled somewhat after one in San Francisco of which he is the promoter.

RAPID TRANSIT LINE APPROVED

By Governor's Council At Its Meeting Today.

SNAG STRUCK IN CROSSING OF RIVER

Camp No. 1 to be Discontinued—Land on Replanned to be Leased—McKinley Writes to Dole.

There was a long session of the Governor's Council this forenoon to attend to matters of business that had been piling up for the past few weeks while Governor Dole was away in Europe.

A part of the Rapid Transit line was approved by the government. This line runs from Liliha street to and along King, across the Nuuanu stream at Hotel and Alakea, down Alakea to Queen and South, up South to King and along King to Alapala. The only exception which the meeting took to this line was the place of crossing the Nuuanu stream.

Reports from the Board of Health, recommending the cessation of Hell-Camps 1 and 2 were read, this recommendation having been made on account of the insanitary condition of the premises.

Mr. McCandless was authorized to sell the buildings of the camp that are owned by the government, these buildings to be removed from the premises within thirty days if bought by any other persons than those owning the premises.

Mr. McCandless reported rapid progress in the work on the new government road from the park out around the mauka part of Diamond Head.

Mr. McCandless was authorized to advertise for lease, two lots on the esplanade now used for piling coal from vessels of the C.-A. S. S. line.

TO TEST OPIUM LAW

TO FIND WHETHER IT IS CONSTITUTIONAL OR NOT

What Attorney Brooks Had to Say About the Matter on the Police Court Today.

Ah Sung and Lock Siu appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of unlawful possession of opium. The two men were caught in a den in Kapalama Saturday night.

The only witness for the prosecution was Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth. When he had finished, there was no doubt whatever that Lock Siu had been caught with opium in his possession.

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth objected to this on the ground that, if the precedent was set, there would be other attorneys asking for the suspension of sentence on the same ground.

PURCHASE MADE FOR PARSONAGE

Several Church Members Anticipate Special Committee.

BUY W. G. ASHLEY'S HOME IN THURSTON AVENUE

Will Put the Property in Trust and at Disposal of Pastor Until the Church Takes Action.

Central Union church, at a congregational meeting last Wednesday night, appointed a committee as this paper has reported to investigate and report upon a parsonage for its minister.

It is the new mansion and lot of W. Geo. Ashley in Thurston avenue. The contributors were quick to grasp the opportunity and assume the responsibility, as another offer of $500 more than the price given was already outstanding.

The job is a trifle over half an acre. Besides being commodious and fitted with modern improvements, the two-story house has large rooms on the ground floor peculiarly well adapted for pastoral receptions.

The property will be temporarily put in trust by the contributors so that the church may have time to decide whether or not to take it over as a parsonage.

There is a new program at the Orpheum tonight especially selected for Christmas week. Lillian Jeanette who arrived on the Rio is a new attraction with a happy family of trained cockatoos.

A complete new stock of shoes has been received at L. B. Kerr & Co.'s shoe store, corner Fort and Hotel streets and will be sold at the mercantile shaving of profits.
