Bonavitz On Trial.

J. Bonavitz, a Portuguese, is on trial in the Police Court this afternoon on the charge of assault and battery on D. A. Fox. The police have obtained the information that, on the day the assault was committed, Bonavitz was "on his feet." It is said that he went into the Freeth premises on Emma street and chased a young lady around the place until she was so frightened she did not know what to do. Just then, Fox came along and remonstrated with the fellow but in reply, he received a blow in the face. George Angus rushed down from his house to see what the matter was and, while he was talking to Bonavitz, the fellow hit him in the mouth, cutting his lip. Young Freeth happened along just then and he ran up to Bonavitz. The Portuguese showed signs of fight but there was no match for Freeth who gave him a good drubbing in payment for the trouble he had caused.

The steamer Chas. D. Lane bound from Fairhaven to Guayaquile experienced a heavy gale on Dec. 10. Heavy seas washed over her, carried away two life boats and jettisoned deckload. As her pumps would not work and her steering gear becoming disabled, she returned to Seat for repairs.
