Kamehameha Day's Racing Proves Very Great Success

Although yesterday was very warm, it will be agreed by all who were at Kapiolani Park that no more ideal day for racing could have been wished for. The sun was not out very strong and the track was fast, the rain of the day before not having interfered to any great extent.

Amarino Up Again. The third race, five-furlong dash, Hawaiian bred, purse $100, showed that Amarino is still very much alive, although some of the frequenters of the turf have been wont to lay the Kealia favorite on the shelf for five successive years.

The Jockey Club's arrangements were perfect in every detail, and had it not been for the fact that the officers of the day were extremely slow in getting the horses out on the track, the event would have been one of unqualified success. As it was, these long delays caused people to become very weary.

Half Mile Dash. It was not until about 10:30 o'clock that the races were started. The list began with the Union Feed Company's cup, half-mile dash, free for all; purse, $100.

240 Trotting and Pacing. The second race was the 2:40 class, trotting and pacing, free for all, best two heats in three; purse, $150. Sweepstakes, club adds $100.

Waldo J's Good Race. The sixth race was the Ranier cup, trotting and pacing, free for all, best two heats in three; purse, $200, to be won twice by same stable. The entries were Waldo J and Wait-a-Little. Viola was withdrawn.

Pacific Mail Cup. The seventh race, the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's cup, one-mile dash, Hawaiian bred, purse $150, was one of the best of the day. Again Amarino won out, this time by about six lengths ahead of Gaiety Girl.

Steamplough Was Beaten. The 2:21 trotting race was the artistic event of the day. There were three starters—Sambo (Steamplough), owned by John Ouderick; Los Angeles, owned by M. H. Drummond, and Wayboy, belonging to the J. C. Quinn stable.

Garteline Took a Fall. The free-for-all dash, four and a half furlongs, furnished the first sensation of the day. Garteline took a header 125 yards from the wire, rolling over her jockey, Oploplo, and almost throwing Morrell's Faust, and Ross, rider, who were coming under the lash at her heels. While Oploplo was brushing the dust from his satin suit, the field, consisting of Virgie A. Racery and Morrell's Faust passed under the wire in the order named. The judges announced Virgie A. the winner. Time, 1:06 3-5. It was during this event that something happened to Judge Durfee's voice and Judge C. T. Wilder was put in his place as announcer. The change was a good one. Mr. Wilder's voice being heard very distinctly by all in the grand stand.

Rosita Challenge Race. Following the excitement caused by Garteline's accident came the Rosita Challenge Race, free for all. This race was for the Rosita Challenge cup and a purse of $200, with $50 added if Virgie's record of 1:45 be beaten.

These horses lined up for the start and were off in good shape. By the time the bunch had reached the end of the first quarter, J. J. Hogan, the starter, rushed into the judge's stand and stated that he had not called it a go. The judge's gong was then rattled lustily in a vain attempt to call the racers back.

The race was finished after the other numbers on the program and resulted in an easy victory for Weller in 1:45, with Billy McCloskey second.

The three-eighths mile dash free-for-all was marred by a bad start. Molly Connors, rode by Lenard, came under the wire first in 28 4-5, Venus finishing second and Peppy third.

The three-eighths mile dash by polo ponies was a splay little sport and was won by Picaninny in :44, Baby coming under second and Pepper third.

The mule race, one mile dash, for a purse of $50, attracted three entries. Kickapoo, owned by T. E. Richardson; Jim, owned by F. R. Vida, and Alannul, owned by James Kona, were off together. Kickapoo balked at the first quarter and refused to budge another inch. Alannul came under the wire first. Time not announced.

When the one mile dash, free for all, had been run a second time, it was after 7 o'clock, and the crowd, which had had nine hours of racing, made a general rush for waiting hacks and cars to take them to the city.

The officers of the day were as follows: Judges, C. H. Durfee, C. T. Wilder and W. S. Withers; clerk, T. V. King; starter, J. J. Hogan; time, T. V. Marks; Chris. Willis and C. H. W. Norton; clerk of course, T. P. Cummins and assistant, David Koli; saddlebag packer, Capt. Samuel Johnson; handicapper, Robert Ballentine.
