PROBLEM NO. 26.

By H. F. W. Lane, Oxford. 1st PRIZE "LEISURE HOUR" TOURNEY.

[BLACK]

[WHITE]

WHITE MATES IN TWO MOVES.

The following interesting game is taken from the British Chess Magazine. Played in the North v. South Correspondence match.

GAME NO. —

Ruy Lopez.

(Notes by Jas. Mason.)

White. Mr. H. D. O'Brien. Black. Mr. M. Jackson. 1. P-K4 1. P-K4 2. Kt-KB3 2. Kt-QB3 3. B-K15 3. P-QB3 4. B-R4 4. Kt-B3 5. Castles 5. P-Q7 6. P-Q4

White may be satisfied with 6. BxKt ch., etc., doubling the pawns.

7. B-K15 6. P-QR4 8. Kt-K4 7. Kt-QP 9. P-QB3 8. P-K4

Not 9. QxP? P-B4! etc. Black trapping the B. The theory (perhaps doubtful) of this variation is that White's superior development is of more value than the Pawn.

10. Kt-P 9. PxP 11. BxP 10. B-K3 12. Q-K3 11. PxB 13. P-QR4 12. Q-Q2 14. PxB 13. R-QK1 15. P-B4 14. PxB

Some fine chess follows. But in course thereof, unfortunately for

White, there is serious misapprehension of the position.

16. P-B5 15. P-Q4 17. K-R1 16. B-B4 ch. 18. PxB 17. Castles 19. B-B4 18. Kt-K15 19. QxP

But now White should again attack the Queen 20. PxB. He apparently attaches too much importance to the Knight's check two moves later and loses accordingly.

20. Kt-B7 ch. 21. RxBt 21. BxR 22. Kt-K7 ch? 22. K-B2 23. Kt-Q5 23. QxP? 24. R-KB1 24. K-K15 25. BxP 25. Q-K7 26. R-Bsq. 26. QR-Ksq. 27. Q-QB7 27. Q-Ksch.

Winning plainly through superior force. A most interesting little game. 28. RxB 28. RxB ch. 29. QxR 29. BxQ 30. Kt-B4 ch. 30. K-B4 31. P-KK3 31. R-Bsq. 32. B-K15 32. K-K7 33. K-K15 33. R-B7 ch. 34. K-R3 34. RxBtP 35. Kt-K6 35. P-K15 36. Resigns.

REVERSE FOR THE REBELS

Willemstadt, Island of Curacao, Sept. 18, via Haytian cable.—The Dutch cruiser Sommeladjik arrived last evening from La Hacha, which she left at 8 p. m. September 16th. She brought a number of Dutchmen who were desirous of leaving La Hacha. The refugees say fighting between the Colombian Liberals and the allied Venezuelan troops occurred September 14th, in the suburbs of La Hacha, and that the Venezuelans and Colombian Liberals were defeated, especially in the engagement of September 14th, at a place called Curuzo, near La Hacha. The number of casualties and prisoners captured is not known, but it is reported to be considerable.

CZAR IN RUSSIA

Compeigne, France, Sept. 18.—The Czar's first day on French soil passed without outward incident, except a couple of hours' delay in docking the Standard, the Russian Imperial yacht, at Dunkirk. The Presidential train conveying M. Loubet and the Czar and Caarina, with their suites, arrived at Compeigne this evening. The utmost vigilance was exercised along the railroad track. The train dashed through a double row of bayonets and drawn sabers, as the Infantry was reinforced by regiments of hussars and dragoons. In some cases a double line of troops was on each side of the track, the first line being foot soldiers and the second line cavalry. Any outrage along the track was utterly impossible, as no one was allowed to approach it.

FAST AMERICAN ROUTE.

Omaha, Sept. 18.—At Union Pacific headquarters it is announced that as a result of the fast time made by the trains carrying the mails over the country en route from Australia to London, such mail will in the future go via the United States route instead of the Suez canal. The mail was carried from San Francisco to New York over the Union Pacific, Burlington and New York Central, and the time from Sydney to London was cut down seven days. The mail, consisting of seven sacks, left Sydney at 10 a. m. August 13th, and was delivered to the London postoffice at 7 a. m. September 14th. Importance attaches to the new departure in handling the British mail because it consists largely of documents intended for the British Parliament, which will hereafter pass across the Western continent.

HIS FIRST APPOINTMENT.

Canton, O., Sept. 19.—President Roosevelt, in conformity with his plans to carry out as far as possible the plans of President McKinley announced today the appointment of W. B. Ridgeley of Springfield, Ill., as Controller of the Currency. Ridgeley, who is the son-in-law of Senator Cullom, was the choice of the late President for the place to be made vacant on October 1st by the resignation of Charles B. Dawes. In fact, the commission was signed by McKinley just before the journey to Buffalo, but formal announcement of the appointment was delayed.

FAVOR SETH LOW FOR MAYOR.

New York, Sept. 18.—The committee of eighteen of the anti-Tammany organization, which has been holding sessions for several days, considering candidates for Mayor to be submitted to the general conference of the organization, took a final vote tonight, which stood: For Seth Low, 17; for George L. Rives, 1. The general conference then met and selected Seth Low as its candidate for Mayor. In its regular course this nomination will now go to the nominating convention of the various anti-Tammany bodies.

ESTATE MATTERS FROM COURT FILES

A. G. Kauulou has rendered a master's report on the account of William O. Smith, guardian of Edward, Joseph and John Hamauku, minors. The receipts were $1509.80 and the payments $1893.93, leaving a balance due the guardian of $384.13. Nothing had been done the past year toward reduction of the outstanding mortgage upon the estate and $550 at 7 per cent was due thereon to Oahu College trustees. It was originally for $7000 and had been reduced $500 a year hitherto, until the court authorities intervened with orders for improvements that cost $396.12. The only expenditure to inquire into was for funeral expenses of one Kahanaui amounting to $41. A note in pencil penned to the report says: "Kahanaui was the grandfather of the minors. He died without any property and it seemed no more than right to give him a proper burial. Frank Archer attended to the whole matter and bills were paid through him."

John K. Prendergast has filed a supplementary account as administrator of the estate of Kalewal Pearson, receipts being $199.75 and payments $62.15, making a balance of $137.60. Plaintiff in the ejectment suit of Sister Albertina, trustee v. Kaplolan Estate et al, is by stipulation allowed twenty days in which to file her bill of exceptions. Plaintiff in the assumpsit suit of Frank Lillis vs. James Carty has by stipulation twenty days for filing exceptions. Geo. A. Davis has filed a motion and affidavit against default of plaintiff for nonjoinder of demurrer in the suit of John Cook vs. E. Cott Holborn. He pleads pressure of business for delay in entering joinder for plaintiff. Hatch & Stillman for defendant in the case of Cecil Brown, administrator of the estate of D. B. Smith, deceased, vs. the Equitable Life Assurance Society have filed a motion for a new trial, together with defendant's bond in $1000, C. Bolte being surety.
