FIND HIS THEFT OF LONG AGO

But of Kinau Robbery He Can Tell Nothing.

KAMAKAWIWOOLE MUST ANSWER HIGHER COURT

Police Make Interesting Discovery in Searching Young Man's Home--Stole Socks from McInerney Store.

Wm. Kamakawiwoole, the clerk aboard the steamer Kinau who had charge of the mail room when the registered mail pouch was stolen and who has been under surveillance of the police ever since that time, is now in very deep water and, if he does in the Circuit Court just as he did with Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth yesterday, he will certainly go out to Oahu jail for a term.

At one time, a couple of years ago, the young man was employed as a messenger boy in the clothing store of M. McInerney & Co. He remained there for some time and was dismissed for general incompetence. It was noticed shortly afterwards that a lot of socks, collars and shoes had made their disappearance. In some mysterious way, the place had been entered and the goods were gone.

Nothing was thought of the native boy who had been discharged and the goods were given up as lost for all time. When the registered mail pouch was discovered gone, William was taken to the police station and very closely questioned by both Sheriff Brown and his deputy but the young man had nothing that would in any way help the officers in their investigations.

William was allowed to go aboard the Kinau again but when that steamer returned on her last trip, the young man was again examined by the police, certain facts having come to light during the interim that made such an examination necessary. The police could find out nothing from the young man, so it was determined to search his home.

All manner of evidence was found but this evidence was not what the police were after. Socks, collars and shoes stolen from McInerney's store were what the officers found. Kamakawiwoole was questioned about the stolen property and he came out with a full confession of having stolen the goods. However, try as they would, the officers could get nothing out of the young man about the mail robbery. William appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of larceny in the second degree. He waived examination and was committed to the Circuit Court for trial.

FOOTBALL CHALLENGE.

E. V. Richardson has received the following acceptance of a football challenge from J. A. Thompson: Honolulu, Dec. 31, 1901. E. V. Richardson Esq.—Dear Sir: Your challenge to play a game of football with the clerks of the Allohail and Kapuwa buildings is accepted. It is the desire of our boys that the game be played on Saturday, the 11th day of January, 1902. Yours truly, J. A. THOMPSON.

Rev. Dr. Sainly—Bobbie, I don't see you at Sunday school any more. Bobbie—No, sir. There isn't anything more for me to learn. Rev. Dr. Sainly—No more to learn? What can you mean? Bobbie (proudly)—I've licked every boy in the class—town and Country.

Norway's population is the smallest in Europe compared with her area. Each of her inhabitants could have forty acres of land, while the Briton would have to be content with less than an acre.

MCKINLEY MEMORIAL

At a meeting of the McKinley Memorial executive committee yesterday afternoon the following motion was carried: "That it be expressed as the sentiment of this committee that we favor a public square and playground as a memorial to Mr. McKinley."

Governor Dole, C. M. Cooke, F. A. Schaefer, K. Imanishi and Rev. W. D. Westervelt were present at the meeting held in Mr. Cooke's office yesterday. There was a request from the Oahu committee that there be some definite idea given as to the form of the memorial. There was a lot of discussion on this matter. Then came the motion of Rev. W. D. Westervelt as given above.

A motion was made by C. M. Cooke that a committee of two be appointed to consider the sites which might be offered for the use of the committee and to give some estimates as to the cost of fitting up these sites for the uses to which they are to be put. This carried unanimously and Messrs. McCandless and Cooke were appointed on the committee, Governor Dole to act as ex-officio chairman. It was also decided that, at the next meeting, the Oahu committee be called in for a general discussion of the future work to be carried on. Later in the afternoon, there was a meeting of the Oahu committee. A letter from R. Law recommending a memorial in the shape of school building to hold 1000 children, was read and the meeting, after a short discussion, adjourned.

STALLED IN THE MUD

ADVENTURE OF COURT PARTY AT PEARL CITY

Wagon Becomes Mired and Inspection of Land is Concluded on Foot—The Boundaries Viewed.

On its visit to the leasehold property of the Honolulu Plantation Company yesterday the United States District Court ran the risk of a swampy instead of a "bung" jury. Judge Esteeste himself had a narrow escape from having prejudice created in his mind—not in favor of either party to the case at bar, but against anybody who may hereafter try to lure him out of a military corral and on a good driving road for a judicial inspection of farming lands.

Marshal Hendry conducted the jury by train to the margin of the lands to be inspected. With them were Clerk W. B. Maling, United States Attorney J. J. Dunne, Captain Pona, Lieut. Rodman and Manager J. A. Low. Judge Esteeste, Captain Merry and Attorney Silliman took lively stable rigs down the turnpike to Pearl City. Two springless wagons and half a dozen military couriers were waiting the reunited party. With six miles to a wagon the expedition over the condemned leasehold of 617 acres started. (Court and counsel this morning had to hold themselves in strong restraint to avoid pronouncing "condemned" without the art syllable and with the first "e" like an Englishman uses it in the word "clerk.")

Before the caravans had proceeded far on an alleged road, one of the huge wheels sank to the hubs. When the mules were urged, four of them entered a demurrer and lay down on their sides while the prosecution argued. Judge Esteeste, when all efforts to extricate the vehicle seemed unavailing, was for entering a mistrial. Whenever Mr. Dunne would make a suggestion, Mr. Dunne objected that it was irrelevant, immaterial, speculative and remote. At last somebody thought of the classical advice, "Put your own shoulder to the wheel," and with a herculean effort fifteen shoulders raised the wagon from its mired bed. The rest of the inspection was made on foot. Besides viewing the boundaries of the land the party took a look at the well. Marshal Hendry provided luncheon from town, which was enjoyed at the defendant's plantation headquarters. The main body returned to Honolulu in the afternoon train, Judge Esteeste, Captain Merry, Mr. Dunne and Mr. Silliman taking carriages by the Government road.

MURPHY CLUB DOINGS.

A general meeting of the Francis Murphy Club was held last evening for the discussion and adoption of the new constitution, the most important provision of which is the furnishing of bonds by the treasurer, the amount of such bonds to be fixed by the board of directors. The new constitution, after a short discussion, was adopted. The election of officers of the club, under the new constitution, will be held next Monday evening, January 6, 1902, at 7:30 o'clock. It was announced at the meeting last evening that all the debts of the club up to the end of the year, would be paid off, thanks to an anonymous donation of $100.

New Guinea is just now suffering from a visitation of whooping cough. This is the first time that the malady has occurred there, and, as usual in such cases, it is spreading like wild fire.

FRAZEE APPOINTED TO INSPECT WIRES

In Obedience to Verdict Of the Coroner's Jury.

GOVERNMENT ARRANGES FOR QUARTER'S SPENDING

Mrs. Foster Makes Exchange of Land With Government—Hawaiian Agricultural Company Wants to Buy Land.

It is not often that the verdict of a Coroner's jury comes to fruition in its recommendations, excepting where an arrest has to be made, so quickly as has taken place over the inquest on the body of Charles Ah Pa, killed by electricity in McInerney's clothing store on Saturday evening. "That the Superintendent of Public Works appoint a competent inspector to inspect all electric wires in the city of Honolulu, with the power to condemn and to perform all other such acts as in the premises may seem meet."

At the meeting of the Governor's council this morning, Superintendent J. H. Boyd proposed the appointment of an electrical inspector and nominated William L. Frazee, superintendent of the Government electric lighting system, to fill the position. This was all approved.

An application was received from the Central Union church for an alteration in its charter to enable it to hold property to the value of $600,000.

Superintendent Boyd submitted a proposition for an exchange of land with Mrs. Mary E. Foster, who was prepared to give land for the widening of Fort street in exchange for a lot on Mount Tantalus. This was approved. Commissioner E. S. Boyd submitted an offer from the Hawaiian Agricultural Co. to bid an upset price of $1000 for the fee simple of a tract in Kau nua held under a soon expiring leasehold. This was considered favorably. A schedule of pro rata expenditures on the appropriations for the various departments, covering the ensuing three months, was submitted by Treasurer Wright, approved and ordered to be transmitted to each department.

USHERING IN THE NEW YEAR

Happy New Year! Tomorrow with the midnight's leaf turning will be the beginning of just as much trouble as was experienced during the past year. If it is any consolation, there may be an increase of trials and tribulations. The Chinese are the only people in town who, at this stage of the game, can look on and say that their leaf turning time is still in the future. In consequence, they must be the only happy fellows for really it is a beastly bore to turn leaves when you don't want to.

The bootblack stands are being kept very busy today. The young men about town are all shaking the last vestiges of the dirt of the old year from their feet. There are some older men and some women too who are getting their shoes polished at home. There are many in town today who are glad of the cold weather for it furnishes a very plausible excuse for keeping warm just as the midnight hour strikes, in this land where there are no fireplaces.

The time of the year has arrived when it is a case of swearing off on all manner of vices that have taken hold of people during the past year or of sleeping past the midnight hour and then coolly announcing tomorrow morning that nature was to blame for failure to make resolutions just at the proper time. There are many excuses but this is really the worst of all. Honolulu on New Year's day will be a sad one without Captain Berger and his band and there are many today who, when they should be forgiving, kindly in their thoughts, and all that kind of thing, are saying that they are in hopes it will rain all manner of lehua blossoms in Hilo tomorrow.

Those who sleep late in the mornings should take a purse full of twenty-five cent pieces to bed with them to-night for the ones who cry out: "Happy New Year" and then never even put a comma after the word "year" but add "gimme a quarter" in one breath, will certainly be about.

This is the night and tomorrow is the morning when extremely sweet and extremely indifferent music will be heard in abundance. To shut out the latter, lock the gate, turn out the lights and, if there is a bad dog handy, chain him in a place where his growl may be heard. If the other kind is heard approaching, open up everything.

JAPANESE FINED $5.

The ten Japanese charged with assault and battery on Kekahio at Makoolili on Christmas morning appeared for trial in the Police Court this forenoon to have their case finished. It was proved beyond a doubt that the fellows did tie up the native and leave him in the rain but, since they were of the opinion Kekahio was stealing horses it was the opinion of Judge Wilcox that the case was not a very bad one. However, they went too far in tying the man up and then beating him. The defendants were found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs each.

ATTEMPTED HOLD UP.

Fred J. Scott, editor of the Gosap, while on his way through Thomas Square last evening noticed a man lying on the grass and groaning. Scott went to him to see if he could be of any assistance and while kneeling by the man he was assaulted by another man from behind. The man on the grass suddenly sprang up and attempted to take hold of Scott who got to his feet and ran. The men followed him out of the park but stopped in their chase. Scott does not know the identity of the men but thinks they made an attempt to rob him.

TRIAL IS POSTPONED

OWING TO THE ILLNESS OF ONE OF THE JURY

A. S. Prescott Was Not Well and Pearl Harbor Trip Hurt Him—Circuit Court Cases.

A. S. Prescott, a juror in the Honolulu Plantation Company's condemnation case, was too ill to attend court this morning. He had not been in very good health and the Pearl Harbor expedition yesterday broke him up. Dr. Howard is attending Mr. Prescott. Judge Esteeste adjourned the trial to Monday morning next. Judge Humphreys set cases for hearing. Godfrey vs. Rowland, demurrer, will be heard on Thursday, and Kahalepua vs. L. L. McCandless on Friday. In the matter of the estate of James Love, an order was made by Judge Humphreys granting Love or his attorney leave to withdraw a will filed as an exhibit.

The Scotch team has already been selected and will line up as follows: Goal, Cockburn; backs, McGill and Anderson; half-backs, Brown, Craik and Guild; forwards, McWhirter, Kay, Goudie and Fiddes. George Morse is selecting the other team.

There will be a pole game on the field at Kapiolani Park at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. This is the event that was to have taken place on Christmas Day but which was postponed on account of the weather. WORK OF OLAA MILL

IT MAY BE DUPLICATED TO GRIND PUNA CROPS

Sugar Was to Be Produced from Home Plantation Last Friday--Handing Over the Mill.

Louis Busnell, of the Honolulu Iron Works, has returned to town after having been engaged on the erection of the Olaa mill machinery for six months. The mill was working well when he left. By a Tuesday evening of last week eighteen tons of syrup had been produced, but its conversion into sugar would not be done until Friday. The cane being cut at Olaa was splendid in quality.

While at Olaa Mr. Busnell heard talk that Puna plantation would not have a mill erected within any definite period, but have its grinding done at the Olaa mill. There is 500 acres of fine cane ready for milling now at Puna. Whenever it is finally decided by the Puna people to depend on the Olaa mill for good, that mill will have its machinery duplicated. The building is all ready for this purpose. Manager C. Hedemann of the Honolulu Iron Works left for Olaa yesterday to hand over the mill to the company. Its capacity is 175 tons of sugar a day.

An appeal has been taken by the Orpheum Co., Ltd., from District Judge Dickey's refusal to reopen default in the suit against it of H. F. Wichman for $70 debt and costs.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Koloa Sugar Co., Ltd., will be held January 8. See New Today.

HENRY SMITH RECEIVES SETBACK

Prescribed Verdict Set Aside in Land Dispute.

SECOND SUPREME COURT DECISION IN SAME CASE

Law of Inheritance is Elucidated--Doctrine of Adverse Possession Made Plain--New Trial Ordered.

A unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court was filed this morning in the case of Henry Smith, trustee, vs. Hamakua Mill Co. It is written by Chief Justice Frear and sustains the exceptions of defendants, sets aside the verdict and orders a new trial.

The suit was one of ejectment for an undivided one-fourth of the ahupuaa of Kohalaolele, Hamakua, containing 6300 acres. A decision in probate was formerly reversed, after which the case was tried before a jury. On law points most of the defendant's evidence was stricken out and a verdict directed for the plaintiff. Several questions raised by the exceptions the Supreme Court avoids answering, but the conclusions above reported are based on the following summary of the law: "Under Civil Laws, Section 2113, which provides that kindred of the half blood shall inherit equally with those of the whole blood in the same degree, but shall be excluded when not of the blood of the ancestor from whom the inheritance came to the intestate by descent, devise or gift, cousins of an intestate on his mother's side inherit in preference to his half-brother on his father's side where the estate came to him by descent from his half-sister on his mother's side.

"Evidence of ouster or adverse possession must be much clearer as between co-tenants than as between strangers in title. The circumstances must be such as to bring home to the ousted co-tenant the adverse character of the possession or such as would bring it home to him if he paid proper attention to his rights. Notice or knowledge of the adverse possession may be implied or constructive as well as actual. "But this rule as to adverse possession as between co-tenants does not apply where the possession of the one co-tenant is not at its inception in recognition of or subservience to the other's title; as, where the co-tenant in possession claims sole ownership and is not aware of the existence of claim of title in the other co-tenant. "One in possession claiming title but having no title may purchase the outstanding title of one of two co-tenants and continue to hold without thereby acknowledging the similar title in the other co-tenant or holding in subservience to that title."

Lyle A. Dickey and Andrew, Peters & Andrade for plaintiff; Cecil Brown and F. W. Hankey for defendant.

Panned Out Poorly.

Deputy Sheriff F. Witrook of Hana, Maui, has made a return of execution in the case of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., vs. K. Ito. The amount of judgment was $3455.91. Defendant's property was levied on, advertised and sold, bringing $329.15, out of which came $65.45 expenses. The net amount realized is thus $263.70.

KABNA'S TRIAL.

The little steamer Karona was out for a trial spin yesterday. She was found to work very well after her long lay-up. Some minor changes and repairs still remain to be made, and she will then be ready for work on the Pearl river bar.
