

Do you value your life?

If your life is worth a ten-penny nail you need some protection from the constantly occurring visitations of murderous burglars. Every night finds a new victim and the next day finds him in our store preparing against future molestation. Just a day later—Remember that old adage, "Don't put off till tomorrow what you should do today"; but get the proper protection in one of our revolvers.

New York, Jan. 7.—Montague Leasler (R) was elected to Congress in the Seventh district today, to succeed Nicholas Muller (D), resigned. He beat Perry Belmont, the regular Democratic candidate, 294 votes, the count showing these figures: Leasler, 7677; Belmont, 7243. The rest of the vote was: Ward (S. D.), 194; Lindinger (I. D.), 135; Bennett (Greater New York Democracy), 182.
The Seventh Congressional district is made up of Richmond borough (Staten Island) and thirty election districts in the extreme lower end of this city.

The canvass was a bitter one as regards Democratic factions. Charges of the free use of money were frequent, and last night Superintendent of Elections McCullagh announced that he had discovered a plan of wholesale colonization. During the day the McCullagh deputies made a score of arrests, among them those of ex-Aliensman Joseph Welling and John Puc, a Democratic district captain, who were taken to court on a charge of having abetted illegal registration. Each was released in $2000 bail until Thursday.

Frederick L. Hoffman, the chief insurance statistician of America, states that the death rate of persons under 20 years, and especially young children is greater in the United States than in most European countries; but that after middle age Americans live longer.
