LONGSHOREMEN AND PUBLIC WORKS WIN

All-American Team Fails to Appear in Tug-of-War Contest.

SUBSTITUTES SECURED MAKE GOOD SHOWING

Sorrow on Punchbowl at Record Beating Pull Which Defeated Portuguese--Contest on Thursday.

The All American tug-of-war team failed to show up last night at the contest in the Aala warehouse, and the Longshoremen as a consequence won by default. The Public Works team defeated the Portuguese team after a record-beating pull, and there is general sorrow on Punchbowl.

A disappointment was in store for the crowds, however. The All American team failed to materialize. Several of its members were sick and as a consequence the rest of the team kept away.

Manager W. C. Crook mopped his brow. Then he resolutely decided that as a pull had been advertised a pull should be given at all odds, and he called for volunteers from among the spectators. He soon succeeded in gathering a team of husky natives, unknown to fame but pretty nearly equal in weight to the Longshoremen. Chalmers Graham stood up before the public and gave it as his decision that as the constitution followed the flag his team was really an "All American" team. Every one was satisfied and the teams sat down on the cleats, grasped the rope and at 8:23 the pistol was fired and the pull started.

For a few minutes neither side budged an inch. Then the All American team slowly began to give away. After three minutes pulling the Longshoremen gained six inches. A minute after they had a foot. Again the teams in vain strained every muscle tugging the rope with no avail. The Longshoremen suddenly made a vigorous tug. At the seventh minute they reached the two-foot mark. A moment after the indicator showed three feet gained.

Another sudden pull on the part of the Longshoremen and an unavailing effort by the Americans. The indicator slid up with a rush past the final mark. A pistol shot rang out and the Longshoremen held the victory eight minutes after the starting of the pull.

Owing to the absence of the original All American team all bets were declared off. The All American team in its former shape can be considered as disbanded but a new team will be formed which will pull on Thursday night. The second pull between the Public Works team and the Portuguese team was in all ways a good one. When the two teams passed to their places the contrast between them was very striking. The big husky Hawaiians of the Public Works team appeared about twice as large as the smaller Portuguese but the latter team can, even if it lost the pull, pride itself on the fact that it offered the most stubborn resistance seen as yet in these islands. It is said that the local record is 51 minutes. The Portuguese held out for nearly 35 minutes. The longest time in this tournament has been 27 minutes.

For the first five minutes of the pull neither side budged an inch. Then the Public Works suddenly gained half a foot and kept it. At six minutes after the start they tried for a gain by a sudden pull but failed to get an inch. At seven minutes they gained two inches but the Portuguese brought the indicator back to the 6 inch mark at 9 minutes. Then the teams pulled in silent combat for several minutes. Words of encouragement sounded from all sides and the strained muscles and heavy perspiration of the pullers showed the determined efforts made by both sides.

At 10 minutes the Public Works had 10 inches, at 15 minutes past 1 foot 4 inches and at 18 minutes 2 feet. At 19 minutes they had gained 2 feet 8 inches, at 21 minutes 3 feet 4 inches, but a minute later they had gone back to the three foot mark. After 30 minutes the struggle hovered around the 3 foot 6 inches mark with a gain and loss of an inch or two almost every minute. At thirty minutes past this mark was reached and kept. At 33 minutes the Public Works reached the four foot mark and at 35 minutes and 33 seconds past, the game was won by the Public Works.

Many of the bells had been made that the Portuguese would last 20 or 30 minutes respectively and the vigorous resistance of this team was a great surprise. Despite the defeat the Portuguese were congratulated. The H. A. C. band struck up a martial air and the warty of the winning team shouted by a chorus of its backers, "Wela ka hao."

HONOLULU ATHLETICS AND MAILE-ILIMAS WINNERS

down the first base line for two bags. Williams came home on a wild throw from catcher to third. Joy was in a pious mood when he went to the bat. He seemed to be sure of a hit, but went out on three strikes, much to the amusement of the assembled crowd. Louis flew out to right. Leslie secured first on a slow grounder to third. Thompson went out on an assist from short to first.

High struck out for the Artillerymen. Smith flew out to second, and Davis went out on three strikes.

The score stood 23 to 1 in favor of the Honolulu Athletic Club. The Artillerymen didn't have a show at any stage of the game.

Joy, pitcher for the Honolulu Athletic Club team, did splendid work, and throughout the whole game only about three hits were made off his cannon-ball delivery.

Score by Innings. The score of runs by innings for the first game was as follows: H. A. C. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Artillery 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-1

The teams were as follows: H. A. C.—Price, 3b; Aylett, cf; Williams, ss; Joy, p; Louis, c; Leslie, lb; Thompson, 2b; Gleason, rf; and Hansman, lf. Artillery—High, 3b; Smith, 2b; Davis, rf; Jones, c; Gupfll, cf; Pliney, lb; Lieut. Behr, ss; Bennett, rf; and Brown, lf.

Second Game Begins. Great enthusiasm was shown when the teams of the second game started out into the field. The Kamehameha and Maile-Ilima Athletic players were all well known to the people present on the grounds and each team had a large following present.

The Kamehamehas started off the game. Koki started the ball rolling by sending a very high fly into right to Osborne, for two bags. Kanoani got a put out on first from short and Koki, running to third, was put out at third (Akau) on a splendid throw from Davis at first, constituting a double play. Anderson went to first on ball between first and second. Jones flew out on a liner to second and blocked Anderson, thus completing the inning without a run.

Osborne for the Mailes went out on an assist from pitcher to first. Davis secured first on a fumble of a grounder by Koki at second. Akau's grounder to short was thrown to second, forcing Davis out and was then thrown to first in time to catch Akau. The side was retired without a run.

In the second inning Kekuwa struck out. Clark seeming to prove a very mysterious problem. Kanewani sent a hot grounder to Mana at second who was fairly caught. Cockett batted to right field for a single which was muffed. Harbottle hit safe to right, bringing in Cockett, and Pachaole flew out center. Taylor making a beautiful run for the ball.

Kiley went to first on four balls Taylor went out to first on an assist from the pitcher. Jones struck out, Tobin went out on an assist from short to first.

Most excellent ball playing characterized the first two innings.

The Third Inning. Koki for the Kamehamehas sent a

Very warm grounder through pitcher and second for one bag in the third inning. Kanoani struck out. Anderson hit to short and Koki was caught at second. The ball did not arrive quickly enough at first to catch Anderson. Kiley fumbled a ball thrown to the batter but he recovered himself splendidly and threw to second, the baseman catching the ball right on Anderson's neck. This retired the side.

Mana for the Maile-Ilimas hit far out into second, got to second and took his third on a balk. Clark hit safe to second, bringing Mana in and taking one base himself. Osborne struck out. Davis got a base hit in the direction of short, advancing Clark to third. Davis stole second. Akau struck out and Kiley followed suit. The score was tied in this inning, each team having secured a run.

The Fourth Inning. Jones started off the fourth inning for the Kamehamehas and flew out to center. Kamehameha struck out. Kanewani hit a safe fly into left. Cockett was put out on an assist from pitcher to first.

Taylor struck out for the Maile-Ilimas. Jones batted to short and reached first on a fumble. Kekuwa threw wild to first to catch Jones who was advanced to third thereby. Tobin went out on an assist from pitcher to first. Mana sent a parachute ball to Pachaole in center who made a splendid run and gathered in the ball, retiring the side and leaving Jones at third. The expected run did not arrive.

The Fifth Inning. Harbottle struck out for the Kamehamehas in the beginning of the fifth and Pachaole did the same. Koki hit safe between second and center for one bag. Kanoani went out on a foul far over from first toward the crowd. Davis didn't care for the crowd, running right in among the scattering people and catching the ball without trouble. Clark struck out for the Maile-Ilimas. Osborne flew out on a hit over first. Jones making a splendid catch. Davis went on a slow hit, the catcher securing the ball in time to throw it to first.

The Sixth Inning. Anderson went to bat first for the Kamehamehas in the sixth. He hit to pitcher but fell on the way to first and was put out on an assist. Jones went out on an assist from short to first and Kekuwa struck out.

Akai struck out. Kiley followed the good example. Taylor got base on balls and in attempting to steal second was caught on a throw by catcher to second.

In the seventh, Kanewani was the first man at the bat for the Kamehamehas. He made a clean one-bagger into center and Cockett struck out. Harbottle hit safe into first and Kanewani started for home but was caught at the home plate on a splendid throw

By Bush, Pachaole hit to center, the ball was muffed and he held his base. Koki struck out.

This was one of the prettiest innings of the whole game.

Jones went to bat for the Mailes and flew out to short. Tobin struck out and Mana flew out to pitcher.

The Eighth Inning. In the eighth inning, Kanoani flew out to Jones at short. Anderson, the Kamehameha hammer thrower, hit safe into right for a two-bagger and was advanced to third on a passed ball. Jones flew out to second. Kekuwa struck out.

Clark hit down third line for a two-bagger. Bush, the new player for the Mailes, made a safe hit into center, bringing Clark in. Bush stole second on a splendid slide. Davis went out in an assist from pitcher to first. Akau remained on first on a wild throw from short to first. Kiley hit to first, who threw to third, putting Bush out. Akau was caught at third on a swift throw from the catcher.

When Kanewani hit far out into center it was thought he would certainly secure at least one base hit but Taylor was there to meet the ball and the batter was out. Cockett flew out to short. Harbottle, the last man, went out on an assist from pitcher to first.

Maile-Ilimas the Winners. The Mailes did not play their last half of the game as it was unnecessary. They won the contest in the eighth inning on the run made by Clark. It was due directly to Bush, the substitute for Osborne, that the Mailes won the game.

The whole of the second game was characterized by most excellent playing on the part of both in the end and field. Pitchers Kanoani and Clark struck out player after player and not more than three or four players succeeded in making first base on balls.

The score by innings was as follows: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Kams 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-1 Maile-Ilima 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 1 2-2

The teams were as follows: Kamehameha—Koki, 2b; Kanoani, p; Anderson, 3b; Jones, lb; Kekuwa, c; Kanewani, rf; Cockett, lf; Harbottle, ss, and Cockett, cf.

Maile-Ilima—Osborne, lf; Davis, lb; Akau, 3b; Kiley, c; Taylor, cf; Jones, ss; Tobin, rf; Mana, 2b; and Clark, p.
