CAPTAIN'S BOAT LOST.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 27.—The steamer Ventnor, which recently took lumber from this coast to the Orient, foundered near Ho Kiang, near New Zealand, when bound from Wellington to Hongkong with coal and 500 coffins containing the remains of Chinese for interment in China.

The Aorangi brings news that on October 25th the Ventnor struck the rocks southeast of Mount Egmont, and being floated continued her voyage. Next day she began to fill and soon became unmanageable.

All hands took to the boats and had barely time to get clear before the steamer sank. One of the boats, containing the captain, third officer and eleven of the crew, failed to reach shore.

Those in the other boats which made land say the missing boat was drawn under when the vessel foundered.

NEW BRITISH ISLANDS.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 27.—According to advices received from Sydney by the steamer Aorangi H. M. S. Sparrow has returned from a protracted cruise through the South Sea group, during the cruise the warship's officers annexed Suvarrow, Yasbel Choi and Port Diamond, and at each place the villages were shelled and partly destroyed.

THE BULLETIN'S island subscription list is larger than those of all other Honolulu papers combined.

They can be carried in the coat pocket and are easily inflated. Sent by mail for 35 cents and 50 cents each. HUNTER'S SON.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Minister Hunter at Guatemala City has cabled the State Department that his son, Godfrey, who shot Fitzgerald, is 21 years of age, is in business on his own account, and therefore is not under the protection of the legation.

All that he asks is that Mr. Bailey, the Secretary of the Legation, be allowed to testify before the Guatemalan courts. This permission has already been granted by the department.

"I don't see," said the sensible girl, "how you could bring yourself to run around after that actor; such a conceited stick as he is." "You're mistaken," replied the matinee girl. "He's just as modest as he can be. Why, when I asked him whom he considered the greatest actor in the world, he actually blushed and replied that it wasn't for him to say."—Philadelphia Record.
