The Waialua bridge on the government road to Waialua collapsed on Friday last and precipitated two loads of sugar cane and four horses into the stream below. A. W. Eames, of Waialua, was the owner of the outfit. The wagons are a total loss and two of the horses have been shot on account of their wounds. The cane was being taken to the Waialua mill for grinding. Alfred Eames was driving and Harry Carpenter went along as helper. The latter had a narrow escape.

ENA GIRLS ARE MUSICIANS.
A Los Angeles paper of July 11 contains the following on a concert given in that place on the night of the 10th and in which the Misses Ena, of this place, took a prominent part:
The concert given by the Misses Ena in Coughran's Opera House last evening was one of the most delightful of all the musical events of the year. It was not given the hearing it deserved but those who were present were captivated by the excellence of the performance and the young ladies were recalled to the full limit of the patience. In this concert the Misses Ena demonstrated that they were musicians and vocalists of more than the ordinary ability and their services are sure to be in demand in the future whenever such programs are to be given. It is not often that five members of one family are so uniformly talented. They were ably assisted by the Misses Kingore and by Mr. Arthur of this city. The stage was prettily decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and evergreens. Following is the program:
"Mid Marian"—March and waltz—step—R. de Koven
Violins, Mandolin, Cello, Guitar and Piano.
Absence—Soprano Solo..... Bennett
Miss D. Ena.
Old Folks at Home—Vocal Quartet
..... Foster
Misses Ena.
Polonaise de Concert—Violin Solo
..... Kue Henmeister
Miss C. Kingore.
Entre Acte—Medley..... Le Barge
Orchestra.
Bolero—Piano Solo..... Lack
Miss A. Ena.
The Lost Chord—Vocal Quartet..... Sullivan
Misses Ena
Goigotha—Contralto Solo..... Couchols
Miss M. Ena.
Simple Aveo—Cello Solo..... Thome
Miss B. Kingore.
Selected—Baritone Solo.....
Mr. Arthur.
March Triomphale—Two Pianos
(Op. 91)..... Gorla
First Piano—Miss C. Ena
Second Piano—Miss M. Ena.
Accompanists—Miss C. Ena, Miss A. Ena.

HEMENWAY TO CATCH.
The Punahou team will undergo some change on Saturday next. Mark Robinson, Jr., is away on a recreation trip and will not be back until late Saturday afternoon or perhaps not until Sunday morning. It was thought that Perry might take the position behind the bat but this arrangement could not be made, so Hemenway, the old reliable and one of the most earnest players in the league, will have to take up the work again. His finger, which was so badly injured in one of the early games of the present season, is still in bad condition but he thinks he will be able to do the work. Castle will pitch.
The Kamehamehas are in no better condition than they were yesterday, but they will go into the field with some kind of a team and do the best in their power to wrench the game from the Elks.
From the Reports of the dealers in this city, we think no proprietary medicine has a larger sale than PAIN-KILLER.
