Two of the island sugar carriers were sent to the quarantine station yesterday for fumigation, says the Chronicle of Aug. 2. The schooner Rosamond, Captain Fernald, twenty-one days from Honolulu, has 30,000 bags of sugar on board, and the barkentine S. N. Castle, Captain Nelson, twenty-three days from the same port, brought a cargo of 12,520 bags of sugar. Among the passengers in the Ventura who registered at the Young hotel today were the following: Mrs. J. E. Gorman and daughter and Mrs. George T. Nicholson, of Chicago; Mrs. W. J. Black, Topeka; Miss Harvey and Miss Atchison, Topeka; Dr. Frank L. Putnam and F. W. Janifer, San Francisco; W. J. Kasenberg and wife, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. John B. Byrne and Miss M. B. Byrne, Brooklyn; Frank T. Kennedy, San Francisco.

The Chronicle of August 6 says that the bark Mary L. Cushing, from Newcastle, Australia, for Honolulu, previously reported as having put into Auckland leaking, but kept clear of water by her pumps, has been surveyed at Auckland, according to a telegram received yesterday. The recommendation has been made that part of the cargo be discharged for further survey. The cargo has been disposed of, and the vessel is to be discharged and docked for further examination.

KOKI'S ARM BROKEN

Koki, the clever fiddler of the Kamehameha team, will not be able to play this Saturday nor during the remainder of the season. Ill-fortune overtook him and put him out of the running. The Kamehameha team went out to practice yesterday afternoon with a full turnout and Koki was among the number. The boys were practicing hitting and Reuter was in the box. He was throwing his hardest in order that his associates might be given the best practice possible for their game against the Punahou on Saturday. Suddenly there came an in-curve and Koki caught the ball full on his right forearm, just above the wrist, causing a bad fracture. He was immediately taken to the office of a physician and the injury was attended to. Today, Koki was at his work with E. O. Hall & Son as usual, his arm done up in a sling. He stated to a Bulletin reporter that from the nature of the injury, he will probably never be able to play ball again.

Political Significance Of Sarto's Election

Paris, Aug. 5.—Monsieur Boeglin, a prominent ecclesiastical writer, has a lengthy article in the Temps to-night on the political meaning of Sarto's election. He declares that it means that the policy of Pope Leo will be continued. Next to Rampolla, Sarto was the obvious successor, he completing the edifice that Leo began. The writer asserts that the result of the conclave indicates the complete collapse of the coalition of Austrian, English, German and American Cardinals, which aimed at the supremacy of the Anglo-Saxon-German races in the direction of the Catholic church and at the overthrow of the French policy of the Papacy. He makes sarcastic allusions to Cardinal Gibbons taking part in this European coalition in favor of reaction, and declares that Pope Leo foresaw this coalition and subsequently strengthened the Italian element in the Sacred College in order to defeat it. In conclusion, Monsieur Boeglin says the defeat of the anti-French coalition is most auspicious both for the republic and church, which have every reason to be satisfied with the result of the conclave.

LOSS OF MAUNA ALA.

The Chronicle of August 6 has the following interesting statement concerning the loss of the bark Mauna Ala, which is so well known here: Later advices received from the Mexican coast, by way of London, report that the bark Mauna Ala struck the bar at Topolobampo which entering that harbor, Apitot was on board, which would seem to be exoneration from blame on the part of Captain Smith. At last accounts the Mauna Ala was full of water, but the cargo can be saved if immediate assistance be sent. A tug or steamer from some Mexican port is expected to give the vessel all necessary relief.

UP-TO-DATE MUSIC STORE

The public is invited at all times to visit this store and if they have any wants that cannot be immediately filled they can depend on the prompt and efficient special order department of the new store. A music store that is thoroughly up-to-date and embraces everything that this music-loving community could wish in standard and classical sheet music, folios, pianos, organs and all the lighter class of music including popular songs and rag-time as well as every kind of stringed instrument has just been opened in the Alexander Young Buildings by the Hawaiian News Co. The handling of musical goods is not new with the Hawaiian News Co. They have always carried a very fine stock. But this department has been materially enlarged and now can be found a very superior stock of the celebrated Fischer pianos and Smith & Barnes pianos for sale on easy terms and tourists can rent new pianos at a very reasonable figure during their stay in the city.

WAIALUA PIG PENS

Reports of Government physicians for the outlying districts, for the month, have been received and tabulated at the office of the Board of Health. Dr. Herbert Wood, of Waialua, says that the truck gardens and pig-pens of his district need handling, being in an insanitary condition. He referred to this matter in a previous report. Very few cases of fevers are reported outside of dengue.

PEOPLE IN THE VENTURA.

Among the passengers in the Ventura are the Misses Hayward, daughters of the commander of the Ventura, who will make the round trip to Sydney. A Santa Fe party to sail in the Ventura includes Mrs. and Miss Black, wife and daughter of W. K. Black, general passenger agent of the Santa Fe; Mrs. George T. Nicholson, wife of the passenger traffic manager of the company, and Mrs. and Miss Gorman, wife and daughter of the general freight agent of the Santa Fe, all of Chicago.

IT IS TO LAUGH.

Editor Evening Bulletin:—The idea that a Mainland ball team would be unable to stand the joshing of a Honolulu crowd is almost as funny as Sonny Cunha's protest. A PATRON. Professor Richard Townsend, of Oxford, is visiting the United States after an absence of twenty years.

NOTHING AGAINST MOORE

Al Moore, second baseman of the Elks team, called in at this office today and spoke with reference to the unfortunate incident of Saturday afternoon last. "I want to say to the public that I am sorry for what occurred," said Mr. Moore. "I was running along with the runner, as is often done and I was watching the ball at the same time. I ran into Catcher Leslie and this I know was wrong. However, it was unintentional on my part and I have apologized to every member of the Honolulu team. I have always played clean ball here and I do not want the people of Honolulu to think that at this stage of the game I have taken another tack." Al Moore has always been known in Honolulu as a clean, sportsmanlike player and none of the boys are holding up anything against him. In the excitement of the moment, any player might have done the same thing. He is sorry for what happened and has done what any sportsmanlike player would do. He has seen the men interested and apologized.

MABEL M'KINLEY WILL RETIRE

Los Angeles, Aug. 5.—It is probable that Mabel McKinley's two weeks at the local Orpheum were her farewell to the stage. The singer, who in reality is Mrs. H. L. Baer of New York city, is at present resting by the blue waters of the Bay of Avalon, Catalina Island, and advices received from there to-night say that all the rest of her summer engagements have been canceled, and her friends say she has finished her stage career. As the daughter of Abner McKinley, the brother of the lamented President, whose favorite niece she was, Mrs. Baer gained theatrical renown and in reality commanded her own price. She was a clever artist and sang with taste and finished style, but her name was her biggest drawing card. The Orpheum circuit paid her the enormous vaudeville salary of $1000 a week. Miss McKinley received her education in Europe, and her voice was trained by the best masters of the Old World. Mrs. Baer is a cripple, unable to take a step without crutches.
