KAM GIRLS WIN. The Kamehameha Girls' School and High School basketball teams played a very interesting game on the campus at Punahou after the football game yesterday afternoon in the presence of some four hundred people. The score was 6 to 4. Mr. Babbitt umpired the game. The girls played with a great deal of snap but the Kamehameha defenders showed better team work. There were quite a number of fouls, the girls in their anxiety to score often overstepping the bounds laid down in the rules. However, it was a hard fought game. The girls looked very attractive, those of the High School in black with gold ribbons and the Kamehamehas in blue with red collars.

An agitation has been going on for some time to secure a better home for the American embassy in London. BELIEVE EXPLORERS DEAD. St. Johns, Nov. 24.—It is believed here that the Labrador exploring party headed by Leonidas Hubbard, Jr., of New York, has perished. Leonidas Hubbard, Jr., assistant editor of the "Outing" magazine, and a party were sent out by that magazine to explore the wilderness of Labrador. Some weeks ago Mr. Hubbard and one white companion started out in a canoe with an Indian guide to go to a point seven hundred miles beyond the farthest inland post of the Hudson Bay Company, a point to which no white man had ever reached. This is a portion of unknown country along the George river and the explorers expected to reach the place at a time when a primitive tribe of Indians were holding their annual gathering there. Explorer Hubbard is fifty years old. Editor Caspar Whitney, of "Outing," recently stated that he was confident that Mr. Hubbard would return from the interior later with flying colors.
