Making Up The Official Slates

Twenty-Eighth Returns In Sheridan From Moro Campaign

The United States Army transport, Sheridan arrived off port from Manila early this morning. She was docked at Naval wharf No. 1 at about 8 o'clock. The Sheridan sailed from Manila December 14 and experienced pleasant weather all the way. The only event worthy of notice was the death of one of the privates of the 28th Infantry. He died of dysentery on the third day out from Manila.

The Sheridan carries no less than 1,250 souls. In her first cabin she has 68 men, 24 women and 13 children, and in her second cabin 21 men, 5 women and 5 children. In her steerage she carries 1,051 enlisted men, 44 discharged men and civilians, 44 prisoners and 48 sick. The transport's crew consists of 292 persons, divided as follows: Quartermaster and staff, 5; surgeon and hospital corps, 5; deck department, 42; steward's department, 76; engineer's department, 61; stowaways, 6; workways, 6.

The transport has the 28th Infantry regiment, consisting of 36 officers and 797 men.

The 28th Infantry, commanded by Colonel O. J. Sweet, has just completed two years' hard work in the Philippines. They went almost directly from shipboard into the field two years ago, participating in Bell's famous "Batangas campaign". They then built the military prison on Malah Island, and guarded the Manila water supply during the cholera epidemic, losing several men in this work.

After a year's service in the tropics the regiment was ordered to Mindanao, and built the now famous military road from the sea to Lake Lanao, 2,000 feet above the sea level. And now it returns home coming almost directly from the field.

On November 9th, the 28th, commanded by Colonel Sweet, sailed from Iligan Bay for the island of Jolo, where the regiment took part in General Wood's recent "Jolo campaign". Colonel Sweet commanding, in addition to his own regiment, parts of the 17th and 25th Infantry.

The fighting was short, sharp and decisive. Commencing at the landing of the expedition at Slet Lake, on November 12th and ending in a skirmish

TREASURER WILL HOLD THE STAKES

Revenues On Special Deposit Awaiting Decision.

SUPREME COURT RULING WILL SETTLE OWNERSHIP

DETERMINATION OF COUNTY ACT TEST CASE WILL ALSO ARRANGE CASHING OF WARRANTS.

Pending the decision of the Supreme Court in the matter of the County Act test case, in regard to the validity of the bill, Territorial Treasurer A. N. Kepoikai is receiving the incidental revenues from certain public works as special deposits, the money to be used by neither the Territory or the County of Oahu until the ruling of the highest local court determines to which government these departments belong.

This morning Registrar T. G. Thurm of the conveyance bureau turned over to Treasurer Kepoikai $114.10 as a special deposit, to be held in trust until the Supreme Court says who shall have it. Superintendent of Water Works Brown has also handed to Mr. Kepoikai, as Territorial Treasurer, on December 29, 30 and 31, altogether $1028.40 received in his department, being payments of water rates.

"I take it," said the Treasurer this morning, "that this payment of water rates as a special deposit, subject to the decision of the Supreme Court, is practically an admission that I was taking the right attitude in my contention that the water works system is Territorial property."

"Mind you, I believe in County government although I do not think it is altogether correct in its present form. I do not contest the County Act, I only hold that certain revenues heretofore received by the Territory and which I believe cannot be taken from the Territory, should be kept by the Territorial Government."

Speaking in regard to the present special deposit system, Mr. Kepoikai said: "I propose to handle the matter of licenses on the special deposit plan until the Supreme Court tells us where we stand in regard to County government."

"Under County government all license receipts go to the counties. Pending the Supreme Court decision I will receive on special deposit all fees in the renewal of licenses, keeping returns separate for the different counties and holding myself ready to turn over such receipts when the proper time comes."

Supervisors Appoint Many Men To Many Positions

The first business at the afternoon session of the Board of Supervisors was the consideration of a county seal, a design of which was submitted. On motion of Mr. Gilman, the design was accepted. It is a very plain affair in the center of which is Diamond Head and a section of beach with coconut trees. Above are the words "County of Oahu" and below the word "Seal."

Mr. Gilman said it would be best to postpone the ordering of the seal until the decision of the Supreme Court should be handed down. Mr. Harvey objected, saying that the Board should go right ahead without reference to any decision that the Supreme Court might hand down. This opinion prevailed and the clerk was instructed to order the seal. It will cost in the neighborhood of $20.

The clerk was instructed to write the Superintendent of Public Works telling him of the appointments that had been made to the various departments and requesting him to turn over the various offices to the officers named.

The bond of H. C. Vida as road supervisor of the District of Kona having been corrected and approved by the County Attorney, was approved by the Board.

On motion of Mr. Gilman, it was voted that all applications for minor positions be referred to the heads of the departments to which they pertain.

Mr. Gilman reported a meeting with Mr. Damon, who appeared before the Board during the morning session. He had contended that Mr. Damon's position was not in accordance with the provisions of the County Act. Mr. Damon said he thought Mr. Gilman was probably right and consented to drop the matter where it stood, so far as the Board was concerned.

At the request of Clerk Murray, Geo. P. Thielen was named stenographer and bookkeeper in the Clerk's office at a salary of $150 a month.

Mr. Lucas reported the appointment of Solomon Mahelona as clerk in the Auditor's office by Mr. Sherwood, who asked the approval of the Board.

On motion of Mr. Gilman, Jas. W. Lloyd was appointed bookkeeper and deputy and Solomon Mahelona, assistant, in the Auditor's office, their salaries to be $150 and $100 a month respectively.

Attorney Rawlins asked for a deputy, an assistant, a stenographer and a clerk in his office. On motion of Mr. Gilman, these were allowed, their respective salaries being set at $200, $125, $125 and $90 respectively.

Delegate Kuhio Under Arrest

[Associated Press Special Cable.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 5.—A sensation was created in Washington today by Prince Cupid, the Territorial Delegate from Hawaii, who was arrested charged with disorderly conduct.

Delegate Kuhio got into an altercation with Charles Clarke over a personal matter and a fistic encounter followed.

It is claimed that Kuhio being a Congressman was immune from arrest. The Delegate, however, waived this privilege and when arrested declined to deposit bail. He spent the night in jail feeding on coffee and sandwiches. This morning the Delegate was taken to the Police Court in the Black Maria with other prisoners, refusing to accept the friendly offices of Senators and Congressmen, who desired to prevent his appearance in the Police Court. The case was continued till Thursday.

Charles Clarke, who was the cause of Kuhio's arrest, came here a short time ago to act as sort of an assistant secretary, he being a representative of business interests in Honolulu. The Hawaiian Delegate is obdurate and will give no explanation of the cause of the trouble or his reasons for refusing the advice of friends.

SAD NEWS KEEPS GOVERNOR FROM LANAI TRIP

Governor Carter received sad news by wire early this morning. A telegram from Rochester, New York, announced that Mrs. Strong, Mrs. Carter's mother, was very seriously ill and advising the Governor to prepare his wife for further information.

Governor Carter had intended making a trip to the island of Lanai in the United States tug Iroquois tomorrow, together with Secretary Atkinson and Land Commissioner Pratt for the purpose of investigating certain land matters. Mr. Carter's plans in this regard are changed. The Governor will not go to Lanai. Secretary Atkinson will make the trip, however, accompanied by Land Commissioner Pratt and a representative of the Survey Department.

Mr. Atkinson's commission as Secretary of the Territory is expected in the mail from the mainland by this afternoon's boat. Should the commission be received Mr. Atkinson will take the oath of office this evening and will sail in the Iroquois at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning as Secretary of the Territory.

Agricultural and other lands on Lanai will be looked over with a view to considering development and the Government's interests in Conrad's lease of the island of Kahoolawe will be investigated. Conrad contemplates certain improvements on Kahoolawe, beneficial to the Government, and wants an extension of lease before starting to establish protections against the wind and other improvements.

Secretary Atkinson stated this morning that he contemplated a trip through all the islands of the group before long. The Governor also plans occasional trips through the Territory. Both the Governor and the Secretary are anxious to keep in touch with the needs and conditions of the entire Territory.

Atkinson's trip in the Iroquois will be his first official act as Secretary of the Territory.

At the station house the fellow behaved himself like a wild beast, but was quelled in short order by Palenaba, the big officer.
