Social Side of Life

Hilo, Hawaii, Aug. 8.—Amid a bowler of roses and greenery last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Peck, their daughter Emelle was united in marriage to Dr. Ormond Wall of Honolulu. The ceremony was the impressive but simple Episcopal service, performed by the Rev. W. C. Stewart, the bridal couple standing in the beautiful hall of "Wehikalani," the sumptuous home of the bride's father and mother. Mrs. E. D. Baluwini rendered the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the bride came into the room promptly at 8:30 o'clock on the arm of her father. She wore a Parisian effect in white chiffon, with flowing bridal veil. The only ornament worn by the bride was her mother's bridal ring. Mrs. J. E. Metcalf presided as matron of honor, and Dr. Alfred C. Wall attended the groom as best man. Mrs. Peck, who had been confined to her room for several days previous, was wheeled near the bridal group and witnessed the ceremony. After the groom had bestowed the wedding ring and embraced his wife, Mrs. Peck received the first from the bride, after which the couple were the recipients of a profusion of congratulations from those assembled.

Following the wedding, an elaborate supper was served in the spacious dining hall. As the occasion was the thirty-sixth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Peck, especial interest was given to the happy event. At 10:30 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Wall departed on a special train for Oahu and the Volcano House. They will reside on Wilder avenue, Honolulu.

Among the guests present were: Sam Peck, Dr. Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ross, Hakalau; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Metcalf, Papaihou; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Moir, Omeke; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stobie, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Baldwin, Judge and Mrs. G. W. A. Hapal, Mrs. Jules Richardson, Mrs. W. H. Shipman, Misses Mary Richardson, Lillioe Hapal, Louisa Hapal, Messrs. G. N. Day, Geo. Hapal, Dr. C. L. Stow, Dr. Archer Irwin, Dr. H. B. Elliot, Dr. J. J. Grace and W. S. Wise.—Tribune.

An agreeable luncheon was given at the Pacific Club by Governor Cleveland in honor of Col. Church on Monday. Among those present were, besides the honored guest, Captain Henry Lyon, John H. Bliss, James Spencer and Col. A. G. Hawes.

Oakland, August 1.—A merry party of Oaklanders gathered at the pier yesterday to give a right royal welcome to Miss Marietta Havens, who returned home after an absence of several months.

Tokio, July 29.—Secretary Taft and party left for Kyoto by special train last evening amid a most enthusiastic send-off from all the distinguished parties connected with the court, and the civil, military and naval departments, also from the bankers and other mercantile representatives. In fact, all the typical representatives of the city who had received the party upon its arrival again assembled at the Shimbashi railway station.

The Ladies' Relief Association, which presented flowers to Miss Roosevelt, was especially well represented. Among the delegates of the association was Madam Togo, the wife of the Admiral.

Heavy cheers and banners were joined in by usually undemonstrative men of rank and position, as the train pulled out of the station.

Long before the hour of departure the streets near the station were lined with delegates from different sections of the city, holding lanterns bearing their respective marks.

The sailing of the Mongolla was quite an event for many prominent local people were on board as well as Capt. Berger and the Hawaiian band. The Portuguese band was also in evidence and played in honor of Consul Vizzavona, who goes on a vacation to France and Italy. Among those who departed were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Suhr, Mr. C. Hedemann and Carl Hedemann, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeth, Miss Muriel Campbell, Mrs. Parkhurst, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Eric Knudsen, Mr. and Mrs. Gullick, Mrs. J. F. Connelly, the Misses Connelly, Col. A. G. Hawes, Miss Emily Rice, Mrs. H. Berger, wife of our own Berger, Miss Laura Wells, Ward Wells and Fred McGraw and many others.

Secretary Taft and Miss Alice Roosevelt came out of their car and expressed their warm appreciation of the kind welcome.

It is not too much to say that cheers of welcome echoed from station after station, until Kyoto was reached, shortly before noon today.

Nagasaki, July 29.—Secretary Taft and party arrived at Kyoto at 11:15 o'clock this morning. The Governor, Mayor and other officials, representatives of the women's war societies, 1500 students and a great crowd of people greeted the visitors. A band played the American anthem as the train was entering the station. Miss Alice Roosevelt was presented with many flowers.

The party visited the old Imperial palace, the temples and museums, and this evening witnessed a cherry dance. They will proceed to Kobe tomorrow.—Chronicle.

A charming little dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Klamp on Saturday evening last at their home on Thurston avenue. The table was Miss Helen Thayer, who has been a guest of Mrs. F. M. Hatch, departed for her home in Los Angeles on the Mongolla. She is a daughter of Frank Thayer, Esq., so prominent in the New York Life Insurance Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Scott are guests at the Osborne bungalow for the week. Mr. Scott brought back some lovely sketches of Kaula scenery while away on a visit to the Knudsen two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kimball and Mrs. Geo. Kimball have joined Miss Helen Kimball at the Charles Rices on Kaula. They will be gone for two weeks. Miss Georgie Lacey is the guest of the boys, and life on the island is a perfect joy for strangers. There is riding, hunting in all its perfection and the Rices, Baldwins, Gays and Knudsen are with each other for the entertainment of their guests. Life seems tame in Honolulu after a stay on Kaula.

There seems to be a regular epidemic of engagements in Honolulu at the present time, and much interesting news around that of Eric Knudsen, Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Hawaiian Legislature, whose engagement to Miss Cecilia L'Orange of Christiana, Norway, was announced last week. Miss L'Orange is a cousin of Mr. Knudsen and she came out to the Islands with the Westmills about a year ago. Mr. Knudsen sailed on the Mongolla for the Coast, his objective point being Norway, and when he returns he will bring his bride. The Knudsen have a beautiful home on the island of Kaula, and are a very prominent family. The bride-elect, a lovely and charming girl, will be a great addition to society in general. Dr. Arthur Knudsen, another brother, is engaged to pretty Ella Wright, a daughter of Mrs. Laura Wright and granddaughter of Mrs. E. K. Wilder. They expect to be married next year, and will probably live abroad. And now we hear of Miss Sophia Judd's engagement to George Cooke, son of Charles M. Cooke, Esq., which was announced on Saturday afternoon last at Mrs. Gerrit Wilder's. This is also a much delightful surprise and pleases every body. Miss Judd sailed for the Coast this week, and will be away for several months. Engagement dinners and engagement cups are the topic of the town, and many entertainments are being planned in September for the engaged girls.

Miss Julia Dean, so well known here, is making quite a success of the role of Nance Olden. An extract from a recent paper says: "Possessing all the elements of a genuine and emphatic dramatic success and given an enthusiastic reception by the audience that filled Parsons' Theater, the play based on the novel, 'In the Bishop's Carriage,' had its premier here tonight. The work is cleverly constructed and its intense climax and sufficient humor.

With the return of her father to Washington as Secretary of State, Miss Edith Root once more enters the ranks of official society at the national capital. Miss Root first entered the Cabinet set with the appointment of her father to succeed Secretary Alger in 1899, and she soon won her way to popularity. She is still quite young, but she possesses a poise and carriage that distinguish her from many girls of her age. She is an exceptionally talented young woman, her education having been very substantial indeed, and yet she is extremely fond of the pleasure of society. Miss Root is tall and "The role of Nance Olden was played by Miss Julia Dean, whose conception of the part was admirable. She scored a signal success in the part. Those who have followed the career of Miss Dean and who witnessed her performance tonight believe she will make a very favorable impression on New York audiences. Members of the supporting company include Edmund Greene, John Westley, John Finlay, Helen Ware and Clarence Handy-side. Curtain calls were demanded at the end of each act.

The Rev. W. E. Crabtree sailed on the Alameda for San Diego where he will have charge of the Christian Church.

An engagement which is of more than passing interest to social circles

Dr. J. B. de Faria was a passenger on the Mongolla. He will meet Mrs. de Faria in the East and they will go to Europe.

Judge Frear is expected to arrive in Honolulu on the transport Sherman.

The Catholic Benevolent Union's moonlight festival will occur this evening at the Peninsula. A special train leaves the station at 7 p. m. and the Rapid Transit cars will await passengers. The Ellis Glee Club and the Concordia band will furnish music.

Mrs. F. M. Swany is entertaining quite a large house party for the week end at her ranch over the Paik.

Mr. C. William Rosenstock, of Manila, who is connected with the Manila Bulletin and a commissioner for the Philippine Islands for the Lewis and Clarke Exposition, was seen in Honolulu this week. He was most favorably impressed by our up-to-dateness.

A very pretty wedding took place in San Jose, at high noon on July 28. The contracting parties being Miss Winifred Salisbury Husted, daughter of F. M. Husted of Oakland, and Walter Alan Crossman of San Jose. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Phillips of Oakland and to the strains of Mendelssohn's march the young and lovely bride was met at the foot of the staircase by the groom and they stood in a banner composed of bamboo stubs and sweet peas. The bride wore a charming costume of pale grey crepe de chin, a picture hat of the same tone with pink roses under the brim, and she carried salmon pink carnations. The bride is a Mill College girl and the groom a Stanford graduate. A dainty wedding breakfast was served, the Stanford red and the flower of the Theta Delta Chi being used in the decorations with artistic effect. Mr. and Mrs. Crossman were the recipient of many costly wedding presents and after a brief honeymoon expect to reside in San Jose.

Mr. F. M. Hatch intends leaving for the Coast on the 23rd. She will proceed directly to Victoria where Mr. Hatch will join her.

The engagement is the culmination of a romance which had its beginning last December in Honolulu. At that time young Spilvato was attending to the business interests of his father in the Hawaiian Islands. Miss Mighell came to Honolulu on a pleasure trip, and shortly afterward became acquainted with her future husband. Their friendship was renewed when both returned to California, and later ripened into love and prospective marriage.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will take place in the early winter at the San Francisco residence of the Mighells.

Miss Mighell has been a favorite in society both in San Francisco and in Berkeley. Her fiancé is a graduate of Stanford and is prominent in club and social circles.
