BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FORESTRY, DIVISION OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY, TERRITORY OF HAWAII.

RULE AND REGULATION NO. 1
INSPECTION OF IMPORTED LIVE STOCK.

In order to prevent the introduction into this Territory of infectious, contagious and communicable diseases among live stock and other animals, local managers or agents of Steamship and Navigation lines or the commanding officer of any ship shall notify the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector immediately upon the arrival of any ship, of the presence on board if any, of live domestic animals, including poultry and dogs, when same is intended to be landed in this Territory and shall upon arrival of any ship furnish the inspecting officer with a list of the number and kind of animals taken on board from any port outside of this Territory, the number and kind destined for the Territory, the names of the owners or consignees, and a report as to the condition of health and cases of sickness or death among the animals while on board.

All other animals which have been exposed to the infection by being in the same stall, yard or premises, or which in any way have come in contact with an affected animal, shall be quarantined for such period as shall be required by the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector, or submitted to the mallein test.

The premises where affected animals have been kept shall be disinfected under the supervision of the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector.

All expenses in connection with the examination, testing, destroying and disposing of affected animals, as well as quarantine and disinfection, shall be paid by the owner.

Any violation of this regulation is a misdemeanor.

This regulation shall take effect at once.

Lee's Son Takes The Place Of Foreoescue

New York, September 3.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: President Roosevelt has informed the War Department he desires that Lieutenant Fitzhugh Lee Jr., Twelfth United States Cavalry, be assigned to special duty in Washington. Lee will take the place of Lieutenant Granville R. Fortescue, Tenth United States Cavalry, who is a relative of the President and for two years has been stationed here, his principal duty consisting of making himself generally useful at the White House during the social season and acting as an assistant to Colonel S. S. Bromwell.

Lee was recently ordered to the Philippines, but a telegram was today sent to San Francisco directing that he should be held here for further orders. Fortescue, who was named as one of the co-respondents in the Taggart divorce suit, is now in Europe and will later rejoin his regiment.

If necessary to remove such animals before the arrival of the inspector, they must be confined on the pier in such a manner as to facilitate inspection, but should in no case be turned loose on the pier. Hogs and sheep shall be confined in temporary pens. Cattle and horses shall be tied on the pier. No animal of any description shall be allowed to leave the pier until the Territorial Veterinarian or local Live Stock Inspector has issued a certificate of health permitting the landing of the animal or animals in question.

In no case shall the removal of live animals from the ship for inspection or other purposes, constitute a landing until a certificate of health for such animals has been issued.

Until further notice the ports of Honolulu, Oahu, and Hilo, Hawaii, shall constitute the only ports of entry for live stock and other animals for this Territory.

Any violation of this regulation is a misdemeanor.

This regulation shall take effect at once.

SMALL FARM HOPE

GEORGE FAIRCHILD SAYS IT'S MIGHTY SMALL RAY

PERSONAL NEWS OF THE GARDEN ISLAND — THE ROBINSONS GOING TO CALIFORNIA.

(Special to The Bulletin)

Lihue, Kauai, Sept. 11.—Geo. Fairchild, manager of the Mokee Sugar Company, of Kealia, who has recently returned from an extensive tour of the States with his wife, has much of interest to say concerning business conditions as he found them in the United States and as he knows them to be in Hawaii.

While away Mr. and Mrs. Fairchild visited San Francisco, St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, New York, Washington, Boston and other large cities in the East. Mr. Fairchild also visited his native town in Ohio which he had not seen for eighteen years.

He has always maintained that small farming could not be successfully carried out in Hawaii and is more firmly impressed with that idea than ever since he has learned more about the lands in the Western States and Canada, which are being opened up for settlement. At these places he says, a farmer has a chance but in Hawaii he has none as here a farmer is surrounded by unsurmountable obstacles which are known to everybody who has ever attempted to till the soil in the Islands.

H. Rohrig, of Koloa, was a recent Wahiawa visitor.

Wm. Schimmelfennig and wife have returned to Koloa from an extended Honolulu trip. Mrs. Schimmelfennig will teach the Koloa Catholic school.

Miss Daisy Neal, of Kealia, will visit her sister upon Hawaii.

L. Weizelheimer, of Lawai, is visiting in Germany. L. Conrad is temporarily filling his position as head-overser of Lawai division of the McBryde Sugar Co.

Miss Hannah Sheldon and father came over to Waimea from Lihue last Sunday. Miss Sheldon will teach school at Kekaha.

L. A. Andrews was in Waimea last week.

Manager John Fassoth of Waimea plantation returned from Honolulu Friday.

The Kauai leaves for Honolulu this morning with a load of sheep from Nilhau.

Waimea, Kekaha and Makawell have had very little rain this season, yet plenty has fallen from Koloa to Hanalei.

Jas. McKechnie and Mr. Moler of Wahiawa went to Honolulu last week. Dr. Sandow was in Mana Wednesday.

Willie Vida and wife have been visiting friends in Koloa.

Jas. McLean, vice-president of the Inter-Island Co., visited Kauai last week for the first time in many years.

Mr. Aubrey Robinson, owner of Nilhau Island, came over in the Kauai yesterday and returns to Makawell this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are preparing for a lengthy trip to California. They returned but recently from California where they left their sons in school.

RULE AND REGULATION NO. 3
CONCERNING GLANDERED HORSE STOCK IN THE TERRITORY.

It having been brought to the notice of this board that a contagious disease known as glanders and farcy prevails among the horse stock in various portions of this Territory; therefore, in case any animal shows symptoms of glanders, the owner or person having charge of the same, or any person having reason to believe or to suspect that an animal has glanders shall immediately notify the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector.

If the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector decides that there is reason to believe an animal is suffering from glanders he shall at once isolate the suspected animal or animals and either submit them to the mallein test or remove them to quarantine, where they shall be kept under observation until the nature of the disease can be definitely established.

All animals which upon examination by the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector are found to exhibit definite symptoms of glanders shall be destroyed and the carcass
